Roosevelt Not Expected To Reach Capital City Until This Evening

(International News Service)

MAYAGUEZ, Porto Rico, July 6—President Roosevelt disembarked here this morning for a 200 mile motor trip across Porto Rico to San Juan, the island capital.

He was greeted by General Blanton Winship governor of Porto Rico, who is accompanying him on the automobile trip.

The sky was overcast and rain threatening as the president left the Cruiser Houston, his vacation "yacht" on which he is making a 10,000 mile cruise that will carry him through the Panama Canal and to Hawaii.

Crowds Cheer

He rode through many towns and villages Mrs. Roosevelt had visited on her trip to Porto Rico this spring, all gay with bunting and the stars and stripes. Crowds cheered him wildly and in larger towns bands played the Star Spangled Banner as the presidential motor car moved slowly through the streets.

The road from Mayaguez to San Juan is mountainous in places and the Roosevelt party is not expected to reach the capital until tonight.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

New Castle Rotarians, meeting this week, decided by ballot that their June luncheon programs were the best offered for the first six months of 1934. National Guard On Duty To Halt San Francisco Waterfront Strike Battles

By RALPH B. JORDAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—San Francisco's historic waterfront today was encircled with flashing steel—the steel of bayonets in the hands of California National Guardsmen, called out by acting Governor Frank F. Merriam to halt the vicious and bloody battling between maritime strikers and the city's police force.

1800 Guardsmen Out

As the guardsmen, 1800 strong, moved into the Embarcadero, waterfront highway, the casualty list of the fighting between the police and strikers stood at two dead, three probably fatally wounded, 69 hospitalized and hundreds nursing severe cuts and bruises and suffering from tear and nauseating gas.

The dead were Howard Sperry, 59, strinking longshoreman, and a man tentatively identified as Frank Condon, a member of the Cooks and Waiters' Union.

They, with at least 60 others, fell before police and strikers' guns—shotguns, revolvers and sub-machine guns.

One Of Hilton Twins Seeking Permit To Wed

City Clerk Refuses To Issue License To One Of Siamese Twins

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6.—Many minds were at work today to straighten out the tangle which engulfs Violet and Daisy Hilton and Maurice L. Lambert, Violet's would-be spouse. The city clerk still refused to issue a marriage license to Violet, one of the Siamese twins, on the grounds of "moral reasons".

Still Violet and Lambert vow they will be married just as any other natural couple do.

When interviewed at her apartment today she told International News service:

"I feel this state has been most unjust. I can't see any reason for the refusal of the license.

"We'll be married all right. My attorney is preparing an affidavit today, and providing it is rushed through we'll wait for the outcome. It ought to be filed by Monday. If not we'll go probably to Elkton, Md."

Attorney Irvine Levy, also approached today declared in no simple terms his fight to have the marriage license issued. He pointed out he failed to see a good reason for withholding the license.

When questioned about the plans for the wedding, should the supreme court fail to take cognizance of a mandamus, order, Levy said:

"My advice would be that the Siamese twins should not break up their vaudeville tour for that. They swing out to Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Ohio. We can try those states, though after Newark's refusal it would seem that no New Jersey towns would issue it."

Two More Die In Heat Wave

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.— The prolonged heat wave added two more fatalities here today to the list of victims whose lives have been ended by the torrid temperatures.

Death of the two latest victims was directly attributed to the excessive heat and sticky humidity.

Outbreak In Amsterdam

Communists Incite Trouble In City; Barricades Being Built

(International News Service)

AMSTERDAM, July 6.—A revolutionary movement broke out here today under the leadership of Communists.

Serious rioting is feared tonight.

In several sections of the city communists erected barricades and defied police efforts to dislodge them. They also looted a number of shops and wrecked small buildings.

The police admitted this afternoon that unrest was spreading to all working quarters of the city but declared that for the moment no attempt would be made to dislodge the communists from their barricades.

The government, however, authorized the city authorities to take the strongest measures to quell the disturbances and the burgomaster called out 300 additional gendarmes and armored cars.

Late this afternoon there had been no declaration of martial law.

The communists this evening began tearing up pacing blocks from the streets to build barricades.

National Auto Shows Abandoned

Big Exhibits In New York And Chicago Are Being Given Up

(International News Service)

DETROIT, July 6.—The national automobile shows held annually in New York and Chicago have been definitely abandoned, Alvan McCauley, president of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, announced here today.

The lavish and expensive shows will be succeeded by smaller shows which will be held by distributors in all important cities as new models a given to the public. McCauley explained many firms felt the expense of the national shows was no longer justified.

Detroit, home of the motor industry, will not abandon its annual auto show, however, he said. It will continue to be held each January under present plans.

Mrs. Insull denied that she would return to the stage, where she was once famous, or enter the movies.

Reserve Board Head Confers With Kennedy

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Gov. George L. Harrison, of the New York Federal Reserve Board, spent half an hour in conference with Chairman Joseph P. Kennedy of the New York Stock Market regulatory board today.

Harrison kept his visit as quiet as possible.

Leaving the federal trade commission building where the market body is now quartered temporarily, he was intercepted by International News Service and asked the purpose of his visit. He replied:

"I came down to see Chairman Kennedy and the market commission. We talked over a number of things. I cannot divulge what we discussed. See Mr. Kennedy. Goodbye."

Virginia Farmer Spares Life Of Four-Year Old Son, In Tragedy Today

(International News Service)

WOODSTOCK, Va., July 6.—Drunk with both liquor and anger, Marshall Hottel, a farm laborer, nevertheless spared the life of his four-year old son when he shot and killed his wife and his father-in-law, and killed himself last night.

"Daddy told me to come out here where I wouldn't be hurt," the boy told police. They found him crouched in a corner of the kitchen. The tragedy occurred in an adjoining room.

Federal Employes Are Given Warning

Are Ordered To Eat Breakfast On Own Time Instead Of Government's

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6—Interior department employees who eat breakfast on government time have received "gentle reminders."

Secretary of the interior Ickes fixed a summer working schedule of 8 a. m. to 3:30, instead of the usual 9 to 4:30. The employes welcomed the change but some apparently interpreted this to include time out for breakfast at the department's cafeteria.

Ickes denied he warned the offenders they would be fired.

"I just sent them a gentle reminder of the proprieties," he said.

Cooler Weather Over Week-End Is Indication

Forecaster Believes Heat Wave Will Be Broken By Saturday

(International News Service)

While the mercury continued to zoom higher today, four new deaths were added to the lists of heat victims in Pennsylvania.

At one o'clock Pittsburgh's official thermometer read 88, with expectations of it going as high as 92 to 94 later in the day unless cloud formations shut out the sun.

Rain tonight and possibly Saturday in the eastern section of the state was expected to bring genuine relief into the state for the first time in several days.

Cooler weather was looked for by forecasters for the week-end.

Philadelphia reported two deaths. The victims were William Palmer, 60, and Michael Dasic, 78.

French Assert German Story Of Aiding Plot Is "Nonsensical Fable"

By PIERRE HUSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, July 6.—Germany has offended France and today the aftermath of week-end executions which was a serious domestic problem to the Reich became a serious international one.

The French embassy here has not protested to the government the publication in the Nazi-controlled press of a story from London that France was a party to the alleged plot of General Kurt von Schleicher.

So far it has been content with issuing a categorical denial to the press calling the story "a nonsensical fable."

But the French embassy let it be known that if "any official quarters" should try to endorse the tale denied, it would consider further steps to impress on Germany the gravity of such tactics.

Five Daring Bandits In Fashionable Attire Get $200,000 In Loot

(International News Service)

MAGNOLIA, Mass., July 6.—Five daring bandits, all fashionably arrayed in white trousers and summer coats—one carrying a machine gun and the others automatics, today systematically looted the Bodgson & Kennard Jewelry store in this fashionable summer resort town, and escaped after binding and gagging five employees

Police officials announced that the loot obtained from the jewelry store would probably approximate $200,000.

Leaving the store, the bandits headed toward Beverly in two automobiles. Police and State troopers, throwing a cordon around all roads leading to and from the North Shore, expressed the belief the daring robbers headed for some secluded cove and probably escaped in a yacht.

None of the employees of the store was hurt.

American Firms Will Suffer By Action In France

French Parliament Shelves Bill Ratifying Agreement On Foreign Trade

(International News Service)

PARIS, July 6.—In an effort to force debt concessions from the United States government the French parliament has decided to shelve a bill, ratifying an agreement to relieve American firms doing business in Paris from onerous double taxation.

This was learned by International News Service today, despite the fact that Finance Minister Louis Germain-Martin Americans at a Fourth of July banquet that the bill would be passed. More than $100,000,000 in tax claims against Americans is involved.

American business men, who have waged a six years' fight to settle the problem and were certain the chamber of deputies would pass the bill before adjourning tonight, were dumbfounded to learn that after it had been placed on the agenda for action yesterday morning it was suddenly withdrawn.

WILL ROGERS says:

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., July 6.—Senator Borah, who, I think is a mighty able and self-thinking statesman (you notice I said statesman—a statesman is a man that can do what the politician would like to do, but can't, because he is afraid of not being elected.)

Well, Senator Borah, who has spent the past winter with the Democrats, is leaving their bed and board and has given instructions that he won't be responsible for any bills they incur.

Now from the way his tracks led when he left their campfire, it looked like he might be headed for the Republican chuck wagon again. Or he may just camp on a hill where he can roll rocks down on both of 'em.

New Executions By Nazi Firing Squads, Report

German Radicals Openly Demand Overthrow Of Hitler Government

ECONOMIC PLIGHT GERMANY'S WORRY

Food Rationing Plans Are Denied; New Orders On Food Sales

By TOM WILHELM
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, July 6.—Demand for a second revolution and the overthrow of the Hitler government was openly made today by German radicals while Nazi firing squads resumed the execution of Hitler's foes at the Military Academy in Lichterfelde.

In several sections of Berlin, admittedly one of the world's greatest Communist centers, men appeared distributing handbills calling for the revolution and stigmatizing Hitler as the agent of a net of reactionaries.

Second Revolution

"Our leaders are dead but the second revolution is coming", read the proclamation. "Our leader Ernst (Karl Ernst, Berlin storm troop leader, who was executed) and others were murdered.

"They were our ideals. Those living do not represent our ideals.

"Chancellor Hitler has become the tool of reaction and of the big industrialists who want to oppress the workers."

This outburst, coming from the radical groups that are convinced Hitler, in crushing the younger element within the storm troopers has definitely aligned himself with monarchist and reactionary elements within the republic, came at a time when the Reich admittedly is face to face with serious economic problems.

What the response will be no one knows. But the workingmen in this great capital received straightforward information today that the situation is becoming acute.

Deny Food Rationing

While it is officially denied that war-time food rationing is even contemplated Dr. Kurt Schmitt,

Woman Tells Of Racing Swindle

MEMBER OF GANG POSED AS FIXER

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6. — Mrs. Mayme C. Staley, of Wheeling, W. Va., a little, somewhat prim middle-aged woman, told Federal Judge Carroll C. Hincks and a jury today many details of the process by which she and her husband, Charles M. Staley, were swindled out of $45,000, their life savings, by means of the old race track game.

Under examination by George R. Pfann, assistant United States attorney, in the trial of William J. Graham, James C. McKay, and John J. Egleston, for using the mails to defraud, Mrs. Staley, who knew nothing about the race tracks, except for hearsay when she met one Fred Walsinger, in Vancouver, British Columbia, told how she had been induced, first, to contribute $25 toward a $50 bet which netted $100 in profit, then participated in bets leading to a $4,600 profit and finally how she contributed $45,000 to a fund by means of which she hoped to reap a "clean gain" of $104,000 for her husband and herself.

Mrs. Staley told yesterday about the finding of a billfold or large pocketbook under a table in a Vancouver restaurant at which she and her husband and Walsinger were dining. She said that they had found a card purporting to be that of "C. F. Parker" in the folder together with a $100,000 bond and had taken it to "Mr. Parker's" hotel. She also identified Egleston as "Mr. Parker."

Officials Confer On Court House At Judges Office

All Forenoon Session Is Held Today But No Definite Action Taken

County Commissioners held a conference with Judges R. L. Hildebrand and James A. Chambers this forenoon at the offices of the latter in the Union Trust Company building. The object of the meeting was to discuss the proposed new court house. Since three sites submitted by the county commissioners have been turned down by the court, the question in the minds of the county commissioners was whether or not there was any use in submitting any more sites.

Discussion lasted practically all forenoon but at the close it was announced that no definite conclusion had been reached. As Administrator Ickes has announced that funds which have been allocated for projects which have not yet been commenced, are soon to be turned into other channels, it is realized that the time is short during which a decision can be reached.

County Board Selects Acting Executive Director For Permanent Job

E. H. Robinson, acting executive director of the Lawrence county emergency relief board since April 1, has been chosen by the board as its permanent director, Dr. G. S. Bennett, board chairman, announced today.

Confirmation of his selection is expected to be made by the state relief board at Harrisburg within the near future.

Mr. Robinson came here as the successor to Wilson Hall, and in the more than three months of service has ably demonstrated himself as an efficient relief executive. His long and varied experience with the state executive board prior to his assignment here well qualifies him as the local director.

Upon learning of his confirmation Mr. Robinson will establish his residence here. He formerly resided in the Philadelphia district.

If the market only followed where the mercury would lead, if the stocks would move on upward with the selfsame kind of speed, if the common stock were booming preferred would do the same, well the market just at present would be quite a healthy game. But of course when snow is falling and the mercury went blump, all the profits of the summer would be wiped out the bump and the market would be dizzy, but its dizzy anyway, but there's no harm cogitating, weather's ninety six today.

Reserve Board Head Confers With Kennedy

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Gov. George L. Harrison, of the New York Federal Reserve Board, spent half an hour in conference with Chairman Joseph P. Kennedy of the New York Stock Market regulatory board today.

Harrison kept his visit as quiet as possible.

Leaving the federal trade commission building where the market body is now quartered temporarily, he was intercepted by International News Service and asked the purpose of his visit. He replied:

"I came down to see Chairman Kennedy and the market commission. We talked over a number of things. I cannot divulge what we discussed. See Mr. Kennedy. Goodbye."

Virginia Farmer Spares Life Of Four-Year Old Son, In Tragedy Today

(International News Service)

WOODSTOCK, Va., July 6.—Drunk with both liquor and anger, Marshall Hottel, a farm laborer, nevertheless spared the life of his four-year old son when he shot and killed his wife and his father-in-law, and killed himself last night.

"Daddy told me to come out here where I wouldn't be hurt," the boy told police. They found him crouched in a corner of the kitchen. The tragedy occurred in an adjoining room.

Federal Employes Are Given Warning

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6—Interior department employees who eat breakfast on government time have received "gentle reminders."

Secretary of the interior Ickes fixed a summer working schedule of 8 a. m. to 3:30, instead of the usual 9 to 4:30. The employes welcomed the change but some apparently interpreted this to include time out for breakfast at the department's cafeteria.

Ickes denied he warned the offenders they would be fired.

"I just sent them a gentle reminder of the proprieties," he said.

Cooler Weather Over Week-End Is Indication

Forecaster Believes Heat Wave Will Be Broken By Saturday

(International News Service)

While the mercury continued to zoom higher today, four new deaths were added to the lists of heat victims in Pennsylvania.

At one o'clock Pittsburgh's official thermometer read 88, with expectations of it going as high as 92 to 94 later in the day unless cloud formations shut out the sun.

Rain tonight and possibly Saturday in the eastern section of the state was expected to bring genuine relief into the state for the first time in several days.

Cooler weather was looked for by forecasters for the week-end.

Michael Pavilik, 71, died today to become Westmoreland county's first heat victim of the year. Pavilik collapsed while working in his garden at Mt. Pleasant.

Philadelphia reported two deaths. The victims were William Palmer, 60, and Michael Dasic, 78.

French Assert German Story Of Aiding Plot Is "Nonsensical Fable"

By PIERRE HUSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, July 6.—Germany has offended France and today the aftermath of week-end executions which was a serious domestic problem to the Reich became a serious international one.

The French embassy here has not protested to the government the publication in the Nazi-controlled press of a story from London that France was a party to the alleged plot of General Kurt von Schleicher.

So far it has been content with issuing a categorical denial to the press calling the story "a nonsensical fable."

But the French embassy let it be known that if "any official quarters" should try to endorse the tale denied, it would consider further steps to impress on Germany the gravity of such tactics.

Five Daring Bandits In Fashionable Attire Get $200,000 In Loot

(International News Service)

MAGNOLIA, Mass., July 6.—Five daring bandits, all fashionably arrayed in white trousers and summer coats—one carrying a machine gun and the others automatics, today systematically looted the Bodgson & Kennard Jewelry store in this fashionable summer resort town, and escaped after binding and gagging five employees

Police officials announced that the loot obtained from the jewelry store would probably approximate $200,000.

Leaving the store, the bandits headed toward Beverly in two automobiles. Police and State troopers, throwing a cordon around all roads leading to and from the North Shore, expressed the belief the daring robbers headed for some secluded cove and probably escaped in a yacht.

None of the employees of the store was hurt.

American Firms Will Suffer By Action In France

(International News Service)

PARIS, July 6.—In an effort to force debt concessions from the United States government the French parliament has decided to shelve a bill, ratifying an agreement to relieve American firms doing business in Paris from onerous double taxation.

This was learned by International News Service today, despite the fact that Finance Minister Louis Germain-Martin Americans at a Fourth of July banquet that the bill would be passed. More than $100,000,000 in tax claims against Americans is involved.

American business men, who have waged a six years' fight to settle the problem and were certain the chamber of deputies would pass the bill before adjourning tonight, were dumbfounded to learn that after it had been placed on the agenda for action yesterday morning it was suddenly withdrawn.

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., July 6.—Senator Borah, who, I think is a mighty able and self-thinking statesman (you notice I said statesman—a statesman is a man that can do what the politician would like to do, but can't, because he is afraid of not being elected.)

Well, Senator Borah, who has spent the past winter with the Democrats, is leaving their bed and board and has given instructions that he won't be responsible for any bills they incur.

Now from the way his tracks led when he left their campfire, it looked like he might be headed for the Republican chuck wagon again. Or he may just camp on a hill where he can roll rocks down on both of 'em.

Woman Tells Of Racing Swindle

MEMBER OF GANG POSED AS FIXER

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6. — Mrs. Mayme C. Staley, of Wheeling, W. Va., a little, somewhat prim middle-aged woman, told Federal Judge Carroll C. Hincks and a jury today many details of the process by which she and her husband, Charles M. Staley, were swindled out of $45,000, their life savings, by means of the old race track game.

Under examination by George R. Pfann, assistant United States attorney, in the trial of William J. Graham, James C. McKay, and John J. Egleston, for using the mails to defraud, Mrs. Staley, who knew nothing about the race tracks, except for hearsay when she met one Fred Walsinger, in Vancouver, British Columbia, told how she had been induced, first, to contribute $25 toward a $50 bet which netted $100 in profit, then participated in bets leading to a $4,600 profit and finally how she contributed $45,000 to a fund by means of which she hoped to reap a "clean gain" of $104,000 for her husband and herself.

Mrs. Staley told yesterday about the finding of a billfold or large pocketbook under a table in a Vancouver restaurant at which she and her husband and Walsinger were dining. She said that they had found a card purporting to be that of "C. F. Parker" in the folder together with a $100,000 bond and had taken it to "Mr. Parker's" hotel. She also identified Egleston as "Mr. Parker."

Officials Confer On Court House At Judges Office

All Forenoon Session Is Held Today But No Definite Action Taken

County Commissioners held a conference with Judges R. L. Hildebrand and James A. Chambers this forenoon at the offices of the latter in the Union Trust Company building. The object of the meeting was to discuss the proposed new court house. Since three sites submitted by the county commissioners have been turned down by the court, the question in the minds of the county commissioners was whether or not there was any use in submitting any more sites.

Discussion lasted practically all forenoon but at the close it was announced that no definite conclusion had been reached. As Administrator Ickes has announced that funds which have been allocated for projects which have not yet been commenced, are soon to be turned into other channels, it is realized that the time is short during which a decision can be reached.

New Executions By Nazi Firing Squads, Report

Food Rationing Plans Are Denied; New Orders On Food Sales

By TOM WILHELM
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, July 6.—Demand for a second revolution and the overthrow of the Hitler government was openly made today by German radicals while Nazi firing squads resumed the execution of Hitler's foes at the Military Academy in Lichterfelde.

In several sections of Berlin, admittedly one of the world's greatest Communist centers, men appeared distributing handbills calling for the revolution and stigmatizing Hitler as the agent of a net of reactionaries.

Second Revolution

"Our leaders are dead but the second revolution is coming", read the proclamation. "Our leader Ernst (Karl Ernst, Berlin storm troop leader, who was executed) and others were murdered.

"They were our ideals. Those living do not represent our ideals.

"Chancellor Hitler has become the tool of reaction and of the big industrialists who want to oppress the workers."

This outburst, coming from the radical groups that are convinced Hitler, in crushing the younger element within the storm troopers has definitely aligned himself with monarchist and reactionary elements within the republic, came at a time when the Reich admittedly is face to face with serious economic problems.

What the response will be no one knows. But the workingmen in this great capital received straightforward information today that the situation is becoming acute.

Deny Food Rationing

While it is officially denied that war-time food rationing is even contemplated Dr. Kurt Schmitt,

County Board Selects Acting Executive Director For Permanent Job

E. H. Robinson, acting executive director of the Lawrence county emergency relief board since April 1, has been chosen by the board as its permanent director, Dr. G. S. Bennett, board chairman, announced today.

Confirmation of his selection is expected to be made by the state relief board at Harrisburg within the near future.

Mr. Robinson came here as the successor to Wilson Hall, and in the more than three months of service has ably demonstrated himself as an efficient relief executive. His long and varied experience with the state executive board prior to his assignment here well qualifies him as the local director.

SOVIET PACT PROPOSAL REJECTED BY U. S.

Non-Aggression Pact Is Proposed

MOVE CONTRARY TO U. S. TRADITION

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The United States has flatly rejected a proposal by Soviet Russia for a political non-aggression pact, an unimpeachable source disclosed today.

This proposal, that Americans and Russians should never bear arms against one another, was made by Soviet Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinoff to Ambassador William C. Bullitt at Moscow.

It was turned down by this government not because of any desire to be free of war against the Soviet Union but because of policy and the political issues involved.

Contrary To U. S. Tradition.

Not only would such a pact be contrary to the traditional American policy of refusing to enter anything in the nature of separate political alliances with foreign powers in peace-time, but it also was felt it would be misunderstood in Japan and might seriously endanger the maintenance of America's friendly relations with that far eastern empire.

The proposal was broached delicately by Litvinoff as an informal suggestion to Bullitt. He has been seeking to safeguard the Soviet Union by a series of non-aggression pacts with important foreign powers, and suggested to Bullitt it might be of great value to the maintenance of peace in the far east if the United States would sign such a pact with Moscow.

Bullitt replied he would have to refer the suggestion to Washington. This was done and Bullitt subsequently was instructed to turn thumbs down on it for the foregoing reasons.

Japan already had regarded American recognition of Soviet Union, extended at a time when a tense situation existed between Tokyo and Moscow, as directed against it, and officials felt positive conclusion of a non-aggression pact with Russia would create extremely unfavorable reaction in the Nippon empire.

Apart from the fact such a pact would be contrary to American foreign policy, the Japanese angle alone was considered sufficient justification to reject it.

Bullitt explained to Litvinoff the United States, as announced by President Roosevelt in his world peace message in May, 1933, was prepared to enter into a universal pact of non-aggression with all the nations of the world but not bilateral pacts which might be misconstrued as directed against some nation or nations.

As a result, Moscow has dropped the idea for the time being.

FRENCH ASSERT GERMAN STORY IS NONSENSICAL FABLE

spread all over the front pages of Berlin newspapers, evidently at government orders, was that Louis Barthou, France's foreign minister, had said at Geneva that France was not ready to make concessions on armament to Germany because he had been informed that Hitler's regime was about over. And Barthou's informant, the story said, was General Kurt von Schleicher, former chancellor of Germany, killed Saturday while "resisting arrest."

The Berlin newspaper accused Von Schleicher as a traitor and identified France as "the foreign power" mentioned by the government in connection with the alleged plot which was circumvented by the bloody week-end.

Germany's diplomatic difficulty with her powerful neighbor to the west comes just after the conference in Paris of Generals Maxime Weygand and Sir Archibald Montgomery-Massingberd, commanders of the French and English armies, ostensibly for the perfection of staff co-operation especially in the air.

German Blunder

And it precedes the visit of Foreign Minister Louis Barthou to London which may be for the purpose of adding political to military co-operation.

England is also further alienated from the Reich through public opinion on the wholesale killings and official opinion on the tempt of the Hitler government to involve an unnamed "foreign power" in the alleged plot.

In the opinion of experts on international relations, Germany could not have chosen a worse time to make a diplomatic faux pas.

Germany has also endangered her repossession of the rich industrial valley of the Saar by her recent activity.

City Buys Three New Automobiles

Machines To Be Used As Radio Cruiser Cars In New System

Council met in the city building today and purchased three automobiles for the cruiser system to be installed by the city when the police radio has been completed.

The contract was awarded to the Rogers Motor company who will be paid $2,500.01 for three Oldsmobiles. The company will also receive from the city, the Chevrolet, Ford and two motorcycles.

The recommendation to award the contract was made by Mayor Mayne and Purchasing Agent Alexander, named by council to study the bids and make a recommendation.

It had been proposed to also buy a police patrol and trade in the Buick as part payment. However, the funds of the city did not permit council purchasing a patrol today.

Report in city hall says that the Buick will be kept in operation or the top removed and the body of the old patrol placed on the Buick chassis. This report, however, has not been confirmed.

The Rogers Motor company will furnish three 1934 standard four door Oldsmobile sedans. The cost without extras was listed as $2,631.00. The extras will cost $449.01.

The company agreed to accept as part payment the Chevrolet ($85.00), Ford, (185.00) and two motorcycles, ($310.00) which will get the city the new automobiles for $2,500.01.

According to the plans and specifications the extras will consist of three heaters, three bullet proof windshields, three sirens, three fender lights, generators and batteries.

Taxes amounting to $60.12 is refundable to the city, according to the bid. Date of delivery has not been announced.

NATIONAL GUARD ON DUTY TO HALT SAN FRANCISCO STRIKE

With a charge by the strikers down famed Rincon Hill, shadowing the docks, the action started.

A series of clashes on the Hill and in nearby streets—vicious battles with police blazing away with guns and gas shells and with strikers retaliating with rocks and bricks and an occasional shot—which lasted for hours, terrorized the city and ended with the acting governor ordering the National Guard into the riot area.

Colonel In Charge

Colonel R. E. Mittelstaedt, commanding the coast artillery, was in charge of the waterfront occupation.

The 184th infantry, comprising 240 officers and men, was mobilized in its various armories, held in reserve, waiting marching orders.

"Law and order will be maintained at any cost," announced Col. Mittelstaedt. "Our troops are armed with rifles, automatic rifles and machine guns, all high powered weapons.

"The Embarcadero is not the place for persons whose business does not justify running the risk of serious injury."

Special precautions were taken by guardsmen in protecting their armory here after members of their intelligence unit reported they overheard strikers threaten to "blow up" the building. Orders were sent out to shoot on sight any prowlers.

Among other rumors was one that federal troops from the San Francisco presidio would be called to reinforce the National Guard because federal property, the ferry building post office, was in danger. Officers at the presidio said they could see "no excuse for such a call now."

A flurry of excitement ran through the militia ranks when a truck caught fire. The driver, however, said he was carrying no cargo from the docks and that the fire was accidental.

As the sun came up the full damage of yesterday's conflicts became evident.

There's one consolation. If you give the kid a car and plenty of money and he doesn't go to the dogs, you know he is fool-proof.

minister of economics, has been given virtual dictatorship over all necessities of life with such sweeping authority that he could resort to rationing at any moment.

One of his first steps today was to give shopkeepers permission to sell potatoes of 2.8 centimer sizes, formerly reserved for pigs and thought unfit for human consumption. It is admitted that there is a great shortage in the crop of potatoes, one of the food mainstays in the life of the average German worker.

Despite Hitler's announcement on Tuesday that there would be no more executions, firing squads continued their work today at Lichterfelde and the sound of rifle fire was plainly heard by residents of that suburban district. Motor cars arrived with passengers and departed without passengers.

Rumor Storm Troop Leaders Shot

It was rumored that Brandenburg Storm Troop leaders were being shot.

Despite all denials it is reasonably well established that Father Muhler, a Catholic priest, and Fritz Gerlach, editor of a Catholic newspaper, were among the victims of the terroristic fury that blazed in Munich.

Father Muhler had previously been sentenced to eight month imprisonment for "seditious" remarks about conditions at the Dachau Concentration camp where foes of the Hitler regime were interned.

The Papal Nuncio, however, denies that Father Muhler was shot.

The official version of Chancellor Hitler's raid on the Wiesee villa near Munich, his arrest of Capt. Roehm, Storm Troop leader, and other occupants, and Roehm's later execution is now being doubted. It is rumored that persons who gained access to the villa early this week found it badly shot up.

Berlin, July 6.—The government today issued an official denial of a report, circulated by a British news agency, that Gen. Goering, Prussian premier, "had met with an accident".

Goering is in "excellent health and no attack has been made upon him," the statement said.

Resume Executions.

Berlin, July 6.—The firing squad executions have resumed. The terror is still on.

This morning the householders of the Lichterfelde district, a residential section, were awakened by the roar of rifle fire in unison from the military academy.

They heard indirectly from the academy that the firing squads were working on "proscription lists" but how they are prepared and by whom they do not know.

Hitler has ordered the end of court martials and directed that the remaining prisoners left over from the bloody week-end be tried by the courts.

It is significant that Hitler's decree ordered the trials transferred to the new "people's court".

The victims of the resumption of the work of the firing squads are thought to be the storm troop leaders of the Bradenburg-Berlin district, all of who were placed under arrest.

But it is also whispered that the proscription list contains political enemies of the regime.

A further indication of the fact that all is not yet serene in Germany was the announcement this afternoon that police had dispersed gangs of storm troopers who gathered at a wedding, a communist stronghold, chanting "revenge".

The secret police also issued an order that only German should be spoken in telephonic communications between Berlin and Munich.

(Editor's note—The London bureau of the International's News Service conversed yesterday with Cardinal Faulhaber but the communication was suddenly interrupted when the cardinal spoke in English.)

The ashes of Gen. Kurt Von Schleicher, former chancellor, and his wife, who were shot by Goering's police last Saturday, were buried this morning.

WOMAN TELLS OF RACING SWINDLE

She said that "Parker", who represented himself to be member of the "the racing commission" told them that races were "good things to leave alone" as they were all fixed. However, he modestly admitted "that he possessed inside information of the fixing process" to which she said he had been a party in many cases. He offered to give tips to Walsinger and Mrs. Staley because they had returned his wallet.

Through some pretext, the Staleys and Walsinger had gone to Reno where the big betting was supposedly done. "Mr. Parker" explained that he had "an exceptionally good thing" in mind but did not dare play it himself as his patrons would "see through it" and drop him from their service list.

New York Doctors Submit To Injections Of Fluid To Test Efficacy

HOPE TO PREVENT INFANTILE DISEASE

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6.—In the Bureau of Laboratories of the City Health Department, two men and a woman went quietly about their routine duties today.

But closely watching their every move were half a dozen department of health physicians and research specialists for the trio has become a living experiment of the efficacy of a new serum which, it is hoped, will be a preventive of infantile paralysis.

Scouting the idea that they had become "human guinea pigs" or that there was any possibility of their becoming "martyrs to science," the three, all doctors, insisted they were doing nothing unusual.

Those who submitted to an injection of the serum are Drs. Henry Wirt Jackson, William Park, 70-year-old director of the Bureau of Laboratories, and Josephine Neal.

"We decided to submit to the injections," Dr. Park said, "because in the first place we were unwilling to prescribe a serum that we would not use on ourselves and to learn definitely the action of the serum in developing infantile paralysis antibodies."

The serum, it was explained, was developed by Dr. Maurice Brodie on the lines of pasteur's specific for hydrophobia.

New Trial Faces Thomas Davis At Carlyle, Illinois

Pittsburgh Boy Faces Charges Of Robbery With Gun Growing Out Of Attack

(International News Service)

CARLYLE, Ill., July 6.—Thomas A. Davis, Jr., 19, of Pittsburgh, sentenced to ten months in prison and fined $500 for shooting a deputy sheriff, is not through with the law.

He is scheduled to go on trial in circuit court here July 16 on charges of robbery with a gun growing out of the wounding of Deputy Sheriff J. H. Donnewald here last September.

Davis was convicted of a charge of assault with a deadly weapon last month. At the trial, he testified the shooting was an accident, occurring while he and Donnewald, who was wounded only slightly, struggled for possession of the officer's revolver.

The prosecution bases its charge of robbery with a gun on Donnewalds' contention that after the shooting, Davis escaped in Donnewald's car. Davis was captured in Kansas City. He is expected to plead not guilty.

SOVIET PACT PROPOSAL REJECTED BY U. S.

MOVE CONTRARY TO U. S. TRADITION

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The United States has flatly rejected a proposal by Soviet Russia for a political non-aggression pact, an unimpeachable source disclosed today.

This proposal, that Americans and Russians should never bear arms against one another, was made by Soviet Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinoff to Ambassador William C. Bullitt at Moscow.

It was turned down by this government not because of any desire to be free of war against the Soviet Union but because of policy and the political issues involved.

Contrary To U. S. Tradition.

Not only would such a pact be contrary to the traditional American policy of refusing to enter anything in the nature of separate political alliances with foreign powers in peace-time, but it also was felt it would be misunderstood in Japan and might seriously endanger the maintenance of America's friendly relations with that far eastern empire.

The proposal was broached delicately by Litvinoff as an informal suggestion to Bullitt. He has been seeking to safeguard the Soviet Union by a series of non-aggression pacts with important foreign powers, and suggested to Bullitt it might be of great value to the maintenance of peace in the far east if the United States would sign such a pact with Moscow.

Bullitt replied he would have to refer the suggestion to Washington. This was done and Bullitt subsequently was instructed to turn thumbs down on it for the foregoing reasons.

Japan already had regarded American recognition of Soviet Union, extended at a time when a tense situation existed between Tokyo and Moscow, as directed against it, and officials felt positive conclusion of a non-aggression pact with Russia would create extremely unfavorable reaction in the Nippon empire.

Apart from the fact such a pact would be contrary to American foreign policy, the Japanese angle alone was considered sufficient justification to reject it.

Bullitt explained to Litvinoff the United States, as announced by President Roosevelt in his world peace message in May, 1933, was prepared to enter into a universal pact of non-aggression with all the nations of the world but not bilateral pacts which might be misconstrued as directed against some nation or nations.

As a result, Moscow has dropped the idea for the time being.

spread all over the front pages of Berlin newspapers, evidently at government orders, was that Louis Barthou, France's foreign minister, had said at Geneva that France was not ready to make concessions on armament to Germany because he had been informed that Hitler's regime was about over. And Barthou's informant, the story said, was General Kurt von Schleicher, former chancellor of Germany, killed Saturday while "resisting arrest."

The Berlin newspaper accused Von Schleicher as a traitor and identified France as "the foreign power" mentioned by the government in connection with the alleged plot which was circumvented by the bloody week-end.

Germany's diplomatic difficulty with her powerful neighbor to the west comes just after the conference in Paris of Generals Maxime Weygand and Sir Archibald Montgomery-Massingberd, commanders of the French and English armies, ostensibly for the perfection of staff co-operation especially in the air.

German Blunder

And it precedes the visit of Foreign Minister Louis Barthou to London which may be for the purpose of adding political to military co-operation.

England is also further alieniated from the Reich through public opinion on the wholesale killings and official opinion on the tempt of the Hitler government to involve an unnamed "foreign power" in the alleged plot.

In the opinion of experts on international relations, Germany could not have chosen a worse time to make a diplomatic faux pas.

Germany has also endangered her repossession of the rich industrial valley of the Saar by her recent activity.

at Jessup today with the troopers using tear gas bombs to rout a crowd of several hundred persons. A number of person were reported injured and several arrests were made.

BABY ON PLANE FLIGHT

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Apparently bored by it all, 11 weeks old Cornelia Whipple Davenport, granddaughter of Alma Gluck, the singer, took her first airplane trip today.

Bundled in a basket, the infant was placed into a cabin monoplane here and taken to her parents, Russell and Marcia Davenport at Windsor, Vt.

STARTS LIFE TERM

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 6.—Carl Church, 36, an itinerant painter, began accustoming himself to a life of confinement at the state prison at Waupun today.

Church was sentenced to life imprisonment for the slaying of Earl B. Gentry, 47, one time body-guard to D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan of Indiana.

Prominent Mason Dies At Ridgway

Past Commander Of Knights Templar Passes Away At Age Of 82

(International News Service)

RIDGWAY, Pa., July 6.—Fraternal and civic leaders here today mourned the death of J. M. Schram, 82, widely known Mason, and for 20 years secretary of Ridgway borough schools.

He died after a lingering illness of several years.

Active during his earlier life in Masonic circles, he was past grand commander of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania. Funeral services will take place Sunday afternoon at Grace Episcopal church here.

DEPOSITORS PAYED OFF

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 6.—The second closed bank in Pennsylvania to pay off its depositors in full, the Ickesburg State Bank, of Ickesburg, will make its seventh and final payment of 10 per cent next Wednesday, it was announced today by Dr. William D. Gordon, state secretary of banking.

City Buys Three New Automobiles

Machines To Be Used As Radio Cruiser Cars In New System

Council met in the city building today and purchased three automobiles for the cruiser system to be installed by the city when the police radio has been completed.

The contract was awarded to the Rogers Motor company who will be paid $2,500.01 for three Oldsmobiles. The company will also receive from the city, the Chevrolet, Ford and two motorcycles.

The recommendation to award the contract was made by Mayor Mayne and Purchasing Agent Alexander, named by council to study the bids and make a recommendation.

Council voted unanimously to buy the cars.

It had been proposed to also buy a police patrol and trade in the Buick as part payment. However, the funds of the city did not permit council purchasing a patrol today.

Report in city hall says that the Buick will be kept in operation or the top removed and the body of the old patrol placed on the Buick chassis. This report, however, has not been confirmed.

The Rogers Motor company will furnish three 1934 standard four door Oldsmobile sedans. The cost without extras was listed as $2,631.00. The extras will cost $449.01.

The company agreed to accept as part payment the Chevrolet ($85.00), Ford, (185.00) and two motorcycles, ($310.00) which will get the city the new automobiles for $2,500.01.

According to the plans and specifications the extras will consist of three heaters, three bullet proof windshields, three sirens, three fender lights, generators and batteries.

Taxes amounting to $60.12 is refundable to the city, according to the bid. Date of delivery has not been announced.

With a charge by the strikers down famed Rincon Hill, shadowing the docks, the action started.

A series of clashes on the Hill and in nearby streets—vicious battles with police blazing away with guns and gas shells and with strikers retaliating with rocks and bricks and an occasional shot—which lasted for hours, terrorized the city and ended with the acting governor ordering the National Guard into the riot area.

Colonel In Charge

Colonel R. E. Mittelstaedt, commanding the coast artillery, was in charge of the waterfront occupation.

The 184th infantry, comprising 240 officers and men, was mobilized in its various armories, held in reserve, waiting marching orders.

"Law and order will be maintained at any cost," announced Col. Mittelstaedt. "Our troops are armed with rifles, automatic rifles and machine guns, all high powered weapons.

"The Embarcadero is not the place for persons whose business does not justify running the risk of serious injury."

In the meantime the rioters held the threat of a general strike over San Francisco.

Special precautions were taken by guardsmen in protecting their armory here after members of their intelligence unit reported they overheard strikers threaten to "blow up" the building. Orders were sent out to shoot on sight any prowlers.

Among other rumors was one that federal troops from the San Francisco presidio would be called to reinforce the National Guard because federal property, the ferry building post office, was in danger. Officers at the presidio said they could see "no excuse for such a call now."

A flurry of excitement ran through the militia ranks when a truck caught fire. The driver however, said he was carrying no cargo from the docks and that the fire was accidental.

As the sun came up the full damage of yesterday's conflicts became evident.

There's one consolation. If you give the kid a car and plenty of money and he doesn't go to the dogs, you know he is fool-proof.

minister of economics, has been given virtual dictatorship over all necessities of life with such sweeping authority that he could resort to rationing at any moment.

One of his first steps today was to give shopkeepers permission to sell potatoes of 2.8 centimer sizes, formerly reserved for pigs and thought unfit for human consumption. It is admitted that there is a great shortage in the crop of potatoes, one of the food mainstays in the life of the average German worker.

Despite Hitler's announcement on Tuesday that there would be no more executions, firing squads continued their work today at Lichterfelde and the sound of rifle fire was plainly heard by residents of that suburban district. Motor cars arrived with passengers and departed without passengers.

Rumor Storm Troop Leaders Shot

It was rumored that Brandenburg Storm Troop leaders were being shot.

Despite all denials it is reasonably well established that Father Muhler, a Catholic priest, and Fritz Gerlach, editor of a Catholic newspaper, were among the victims of the terroristic fury that blazed in Munich.

Father Muhler had previously been sentenced to eight month imprisonment for "seditious" remarks about condtions at the Dachau Concentration camp where foes of the Hitler regime were interned.

The Papal Nuncio, however, denies that Father Muhler was shot.

The official version of Chancellor Hitler's raid on the Wiesee villa near Munich, his arrest of Capt. Roehm, Storm Troop leader, and other occupants, and Roehm's later execution is now being doubted. It is rumored that persons who gained access to the villa early this week found it badly shot up.

Berlin, July 6.—The government today issued an official denial of a report, circulated by a British news agency, that Gen. Goering, Prussian premier, "had met with an accident".

Goering is in "excellent health and no attack has been made upon him," the statement said.

Resume Executions.

Berlin, July 6.—The firing squad executions have resumed. The terror is still on.

This morning the householders of the Lichterfelde district, a residential section, were awakened by the roar of rifle fire in unison from the military academy.

They knew what that meant as they hastily pulled down their windows. More executions.

They heard indirectly from the academy that the firing squads were working on "proscription lists" but how they are prepared and by whom they do not know.

Hitler has ordered the end of court martials and directed that the remaining prisoners left over from the bloody week-end be tried by the courts.

It is significant that Hitler's decree ordered the trials transferred to the new "people's court".

The victims of the resumption of the work of the firing squads are thought to be the storm troop leaders of the Bradenburg-Berlin district, all of who were placed under arrest.

But it is also whispered that the proscription list contains political enemies of the regime.

A further indication of the fact that all is not yet serene in Germany was the announcement this afternoon that police had dispersed gangs of storm troopers who gathered at a wedding, a communist stronghold, chanting "revenge".

The secret police also issued an order that only German should be spoken in telephonic communications between Berlin and Munich.

(Editor's note—The London bureau of the International's News Service conversed yesterday with Cardinal Faulhaber but the communication was suddenly interrupted when the cardinal spoke in English.)

The ashes of Gen. Kurt Von Schleicher, former chancellor, and his wife, who were shot by Goering's police last Saturday, were buried this morning.

WOMAN TELLS OF RACING SWINDLE

She said that "Parker", who represented himself to be member of the "the racing commission" told them that races were "good things to leave alone" as they were all fixed. However, he modestly admitted "that he possessed inside information of the fixing process" to which he said he had been a party in many cases. He offered to give tips to Walsinger and Mrs. Staley because they had returned his wallet.

Through some pretext, the Staleys and Walsinger had gone to Reno where the big betting was supposedly done. "Mr. Parker" explained that he had "an exceptionally good thing" in mind but did not dare play it himself as his patrons would "see through it" and drop him from their service list.

CHAIRMAN NAMED

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Theodore L. Moritz, secretary to Mayor William N. McNair and candidate for congress, today was named chairman of the traction conference board.

The position pays $12,000 annually.

The mayor, sweeping authority and red tape aside, announced the appointment without bothering to ask city council for confirmation Immediately after he announced the appointment.

Ramie, known also as china grass, has been used from time immemorial for the making of cloth.

Effects Of New Serum Watched

HOPE TO PREVENT INFANTILE DISEASE

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6.—In the Bureau of Laboratories of the City Health Department, two men and a woman went quietly about their routine duties today.

But closely watching their every move were half a dozen department of health physicians and research specialists for the trio has become a living experiment of the efficacy of a new serum which, it is hoped, will be a preventive of infantile paralysis.

Scouting the idea that they had become "human guinea pigs" or that there was any possibility of their becoming "martyrs to science," the three, all doctors, insisted they were doing nothing unusual.

Those who submitted to an injection of the serum are Drs. Henry Wirt Jackson, William Park, 70-year-old director of the Bureau of Laboratories, and Josephine Neal.

"We decided to submit to the injections," Dr. Park said, "because in the first place we were unwilling to prescribe a serum that we would not use on ourselves and to learn definitely the action of the serum in developing infantile paralysis antibodies."

The serum, it was explained, was developed by Dr. Maurice Brodie on the lines of pasteur's specific for hydrophobia.

New Trial Faces Thomas Davis At Carlyle, Illinois

Pittsburgh Boy Faces Charges Of Robbery With Gun Growing Out Of Attack

(International News Service)

CARLYLE, Ill., July 6.—Thomas A. Davis, Jr., 19, of Pittsburgh, sentenced to ten months in prison and fined $500 for shooting a deputy sheriff, is not through with the law.

He is scheduled to go on trial in circuit court here July 16 on charges of robbery with a gun growing out of the wounding of Deputy Sheriff J. H. Donnewald here last September.

Davis was convicted of a charge of assault with a deadly weapon last month. At the trial, he testified the shooting was an accident, occurring while he and Donnewald, who was wounded only slightly, struggled for possession of the officer's revolver.

The prosecution bases its charge of robbery with a gun on Donnewalds' contention that after the shooting, Davis escaped in Donnewald's car. Davis was captured in Kansas City. He is expected to plead not guilty.

WOULD REORGANIZE

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Filing a petition in federal district court here, the Hyde Park Brewing Company, Hyde Park, Westmoreland county, today sought permission to effect plans for reorganization and appointment of trustees.

The company, recently placed in receivership, estimated its assets at $216,000 and liabilities at $87,000 in its reorganization petition.

FAMILY REUNIONS POPULAR ON FOURTH

Fourth of July was a perfect day for out door gatherings and many hundreds of people took advantage of it by having annual reunions.

Among those which interested a large number of people was that of the Allen family which was held at the home of H. L. Allen near Harbor Bridge. At noon a tempting dinner was served in the grove with covers for 55 guests.

The afternoon was spent playing ball, pitching horseshoes and other out door recreation, with prizes given to the winners in each group.

Following are the officers elected for the coming year: president, H. L. Allen; vice president, Mrs. J. D. Smith; secretary, Mrs. R. C. Reeves; treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Channing.

Committees: table, Mrs. H. L. Allen, Mrs. R. E. Stewart, Mrs. Fred Campbell, Mrs. Clara Allen; grounds, R. E. Stewart, C. K. Allen, H. C. Allen, sports, Mrs. H. C. Allen, Mrs. J. W. Channing, R. C. Reeves.

Relatives were present from New Castle, Ellwood City, Wierton and Hollidays Cove, W. Va.

Reynolds Reunion

The family of the late John G. Reynolds held their thirty first annual assembly at the home of M. S. Reynolds on the New Castle-New Wilmington road Wednesday, July 4.

One hundred and fifty people enjoyed a picnic dinner after which the afternoon was spent with games and music with several short talks given by various ones present.

Cottage At Lake

Mrs. J. E. Windl, son Gordon, Mrs. Richard Shoup, son Douglass, of Northview avenue, Mrs. H. M. Connor, Beaver Falls, Mrs. H. S. Shuttleworth, daughters Kathleen and Mary, Fairmont avenue, will leave July 7 to spend two weeks at a cottage at Glenwood Beach, along Lake Erie.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dietterle entertained informally in the garden of their East Washington street home on the Fourth.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas John and Leta Mae and Miss Anna Mae Dietterle.

PROMINENT COUPLE HAVE ANNIVERSARY

Among the memorable and delightful events of the current week was the golden wedding observance of one of Lawrence county's well known couples Mr. and Mrs. John Tillia, of Wayne township.

On July 3, 1884, Navada McQuiston was united in marriage to John Tillia at the personage of the Slippery Rock church with the former pastor, Rev. George S. Rice officiating. After their wedding the young couple went to housekeeping on the farm on which they are still living and it was there that the completion of fifty years of their happy Union was celebrated Tuesday.

The couple have but one son Peter J. Tillia and he with his wife and three children Edith, Adah and Robert, were present as was also, Mrs. Nancy Travis of Ellwood City, who is an aunt of the bride and is the only relative living who attended the wedding a half century ago.

Mrs. Tillia was the daughter of Josephine Matilda Foy McQuiston and her husband was the son of Peter and Clarainda Craven Tillia. All were pioneer residents of this section of the country and have hosts of friends hereabouts.

Upwards of 75 friends and relatives from Unity, Pa., Ellwood City, Slippery Rock and New Castle called during the reception hours following 8 o'clock Tuesday and many gifts, as well as good wishes, were bestowed upon the honored ones.

Mrs. Tillia is now in her sixty seventh year and Mr. Tillia in his seventy-third. Both are active. Mr. Tillia has been at different times tax collector and constable of Wayne township and at present is serving as assessor of that district.

Picnic Affair

A delightful picnic affair was held on the Fourth of July at the home of William N. Robinson, known as the "Old Robinson Homestead", on the New Castle-Ellwood road.

Games, horseshoe pitching and informal pastimes were afternoon pleasures and both dinner and supper were served in the orchard.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Townsend, New Castle; their daughter, Mrs. R. D. Patterson, of New York; Mrs. O. G. Solars, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Claypool and children, Wilma Jean and Billy; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scheli and children, Donald and Ethel Mae, Joe Douglas, all of New Castle.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hudson, Jr. from North Side, Edenburg; Mrs. Margaret Murphy and children, Margaret, Katherine, Gene and Joe, New Castle; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Kelso, Claire Howard, Alice and Frank Kelso.

Clarence Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Kelly, Charles, Sarah, Vincent, Katherine and Julia Kelly, New Castle; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Robison, Wilbur, Dorothy and Edna M. Robison.

Taylor Reunion

The spacious lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen De Vassie at Hubbard, O., was the scene of the annual Taylor reunion, July 4.

With forty members present, the day was spent most pleasantly. The newly appointed executive committee with Francis Martin as president, will arrange time and place of the next reunion.

NEW CASTLE TEACHER WEDS CLEVELAND MAN

Mrs. Pearl Fishkin, Phillips street, announces the marriage of her daughter, Lillian, to Morris Fineberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Fineberg, Cleveland, Ohio; the ceremony having been performed in Cleveland, Ohio, Thursday, July 5.

Mrs. Fineberg is a graduate of the Slippery Rock State Teachers College and has been a teacher in the New Castle schools for several years. Mr. Fineberg is a graduate of Spencerian College and is engaged in business in Cleveland.

After July 21 they will be at home to their friends at 2820 East 130th street, Shaker Heights, Cleveland.

OUTING ENJOYED AT BUTLER HOME

On the Fourth of July the home and grounds of W. H. Butler, 511 Court street, was thronged with the friends and relatives of the Joseph Anderson family.

Early in the morning relatives arrived, some from the east coast and some from the west coast of the United States.

Games and reminiscences marked the day, with bounteous menus served at noon and in the evening, under the supervision of Mrs. Butler and her competent aides.

It was a great disappointment to the relatives that Mrs. Emma McClure of West Chester, near Philadelphia, who is 90 years of age and the oldest of the family, was unable to be present, but she was well represented by two daughters, a son and grandson; Mrs. Fannie Boyd and son Willard; Birdie McClure and George McClure and their guest, Miss M. Stram.

Other out of town relatives included Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hartzell of Detroit, Mich., daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. O. F. Haltnorth; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cole, Long Beach, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. George Shemp and grandson, Slippery Rock; Mrs. Charles Shremp, daughter and son-in-law, Kent, Ohio; Mrs. Birdie Anderson and son and family of Sharon; Mrs. Elmer Couch, son and wife, New Brighton; Mrs. Celia Frisbee, Cleveland, O., and Joseph Anderson and family, of Ellwood City.

An election of officers resulted in Mrs. George Shremp being named president; Mrs. G. D. Hildebrand, secretary. The 1935 reunion will be on the Fourth again.

Fullerton-Sharpe.

After enjoying a delicious picnic dinner the business meeting was held, at which the following officers were elected: Joseph A. Davidson of Pittsburgh, president; A. S. Leslie, New Castle, vice president; Mrs. J. W. Fullerton, corresponding secretary; Alisan Leslie, recording secretary; Guy Fullerton, treasurer.

It was decided that the next reunion would be held on the second Saturday in June, 1935, at the home of A. H. Fullerton, near Westfield.

Guests of Mrs. Queer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. William Liddle and Miss Helen Queer of New York are the house guests at the present time of their mother, Mrs. M. M. Queer of Garfield avenue.

Miss Helen Queer will be a guest soloist at the First M. E. church on Sunday. She will return to her New York home shortly afterward.

Saw Niece Graduated.

Mrs. S. B. Johns, Garfield avenue, has returned from Buffalo, where she attended the commencement exercises at Penmore high school there in which her niece, Miss Catherine Clancy, was graduated.

FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY EVENT

A handsome mound of cut flowers, Talisman roses and calliopsis combined artistically with white achilla and asparagus fern accentuated gold and white appointments at the family dinner at noon Tuesday which featured the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Zeigler of 509 Whippo street.

There were covers for some 40 relatives including, besides the guests of honor, two of Mrs. Zeigler's sisters, Miss Dorothy Schaefnocker and Mrs. Mary Schaefnocker Harlan. The latter's presence was especially noteworthy as she with Mr. Harlan, now deceased, was a witness at the Zeigler nuptials a half century ago, having been married herself just shortly before on the same day and at the same place, the home of her aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Couch at Sharon.

The ten children of the venerable couple with their children and grandchildren were present and among those assisting in serving the very delicious menu were the two daughters at home, Elizabeth Grace Zeigler and Mary Florence Zeigler.

In the afternoon and evening upwards of 100 friends and neighbors called to extend greetings and refreshments were served from the dining table which held the gold and white centerpiece between tall gold and white tapers in crystal holders.

Many lovely gifts of a miscellaneous nature, money, flowers and personal presents, were showered upon the happy couple to further commemorate the occasion.

BRIDGE ATTRACTS MEMBERS THURSDAY

Thursday evening many members of the New Castle Field club assembled at the club house for a session of bridge, with Mrs. John Elder, Jr., and Jennie Morgan as hostesses.

When play was concluded prizes were awarded Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. McLure and Mrs. George Long, and refreshments were served at the small tables.

The Fourth was a busy day at the club house and golf course, with many members having guests over the holiday. The club house buzzed with conversation all through the day, while many played the course, others enjoyed bridge on the terrace and verendah, while still others just enjoyed sitting about.

The day closed with a colorful dance in the evening with many of the younger set in attendance.

Abner Polly Reunion

Eighth annual reunion of the Abner Polly family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miles at Sandy Lake, July 4. A picnic lunch was served on the lawn to 58 members.

After lunch, the annual election of officers was held with J. O. Nicklin of Jackson Center being named as president; Ed Diefender, vice president, and Verna Hutchison, secretary-treasurer.

Families represented were: Mr. and Thomas Miles, Sandy Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Young and family, Clarksville; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Diefender and family, Transfer; Mr. and Mrs. John Miles and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miles and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Park and family, Homer Miles, the latter all of New Castle.

The next meeting will be held July 4, 1935, at the home of Mrs. Rhinehart at Transfer, Pa.

Eightieth Birthday

A group of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jordan at Mercer on July 4 to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Prudence Fisher of East Brook, who is visiting at the Jordan home.

Mrs. Fisher is 80 years of age and is still enjoying exceptionally good health.

Those participating in the day's festivities were: Mr. and Mrs. George H. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jordan, Arthur Jordan, Lester Russler, David Park, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Russler, all of New Castle; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jordan, Leroy Jordan, Blanche Jordan, Helen Jordan, Edward Ramsey of Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jordan and the honor guest.

A lovely dinner was served on the lawn and everybody had a good time.

Ferry Reunion

A family reunion that was most interesting to the many relatives who attended was that of the Ferry family on the Fourth at Castle Beach.

Swimming and games were the diversion of the day, with 59 sitting down to the noon time meal and 68 in the evening.

Concludes Visit

Miss Phoebe Pearson of Montclair, N. J., who was maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Jane Moore and Thomas Phillips Johnson last week, has concluded a delightful stay in the city, stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Johnson, Jr., of Highland avenue.

McANLIS DESCENDENTS AT ENON VALLEY HOME

Rev. Samuel Boyles of Pittsburgh, who is on his way to China, where he will serve the next several years as a missionary, and Lawrence Douglass of Enon Valley were honored guests at the annual reunion of the descendants of J. S. and Mary Ann McAnlis which was an event of July 4 at the home of Robert R. Douglass near Enon Valley.

After a sumptuous picnic dinner the afternoon hours were devoted to games and conversation.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Douglass, son Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McAnlis, Mr. and Sterrett McAnlis and family Gladys, Garnet and John D., Mr. and Mrs. William S. McAnlis and family Marie, Paul, Glenn, Wayne and Lee, all of New Galilee.

Mr. and Mrs. George McAnlis, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal McAnlis, Mahoningtown R. D. 8; Mr. and Mrs. Sterrett Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon and daughter Suzanne, son Dale of Struthers, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Douglass, of Swissvale, Pa., Dale Fullerton and daughter Wilda of Mahoningtown R. D.

Falba-Kreuger Nuptials

A pretty wedding of July was that of Miss Constance Falba, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Falba, Morris street, and Joseph Kreuger, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Kreuger, Smithfield street, which was solemnized Monday, July 2, at 9 a. m., in St. Joseph's church with the Rev. Fr. J. A. Doerr reading the nuptial mass.

The bride, charmingly gowned in white satin, with trailing veil of lace, held in place by a band of orange blossoms, and arm bouquet of lilies, came down the aisle on the arm of her father, preceded by her bridesmaids, Colletta Preisel and Corrinna Munzy, dressed in blue and pink chiffon frocks and carrying arm bouquets of pink roses, and the attendants to the groom Leonard and Raymond Kreuger, brothers.

Supplementing the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, with about 200 guests in attendance.

Cascade Picnic

Cascade Park was the scene of many enjoyable gatherings Wednesday evening when several families had supper in the grove followed by entertainment with park amusements.

In one particular group were several guests from out of town including Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wigton and daughter Olive and son Joe, Mrs. Mary Morrow, daughter Jessie and Chalmers Maughn of Edinburg; Miss Edna Haycock of Alliance, O., Olivia and Lem Young of Hubbard, O.

From New Castle were Mr. and Mrs. O. H. McClelland, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McClelland and daughters Cora and Jennie and son John.

At Tranquilla Home

At the Fairmont avenue residence Mrs. Carl R. Tranquillo, the Semper Fidelis club was graciously received Thursday evening.

Two tables were used for the game of 500 with Mrs. H. A. Fozzone and Mrs. A. Acquaviva winning the favors. A delicious lunch was served at a late hour.

Mrs. Louis DeCaprio invited the members to her home in two weeks.

McANLIS DESCENDENTS AT ENON VALLEY HOME

Rev. Samuel Boyles of Pittsburgh, who is on his way to China, where he will serve the next several years as a missionary, and Lawrence Douglass of Enon Valley were honored guests at the annual reunion of the descendants of J. S. and Mary Ann McAnlis which was an event of July 4 at the home of Robert R. Douglass near Enon Valley.

After a sumptuous picnic dinner the afternoon hours were devoted to games and conversation.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Douglass, son Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McAnlis, Mr. and Sterrett McAnlis and family Gladys, Garnet and John D., Mr. and Mrs. William S. McAnlis and family Marie, Paul, Glenn, Wayne and Lee, all of New Galilee.

Mr. and Mrs. George McAnlis, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal McAnlis, Mahoningtown R. D. 8; Mr. and Mrs. Sterrett Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon and daughter Suzanne, son Dale of Struthers, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Douglass of Swissvale, Pa., Dale Fullerton and daughter Wilda of Mahoningtown R. D.

Falba-Kreuger Nuptials

A pretty wedding of July was that of Miss Constance Falba, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Falba, Morris street, and Joseph Kreuger, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Kreuger, Smithfield street, which was solemnized Monday, July 2, at 9 a. m., in St. Joseph's church with the Rev. Fr. J. A. Doerr reading the nuptial mass.

The bride, charmingly gowned in white satin, with trailing veil of lace, held in place by a band of orange blossoms, and arm bouquet of lilies, came down the aisle on the arm of her father, preceded by her bridesmaids, Colletta Preisel and Corrinna Munzy, dressed in blue and pink chiffon frocks and carrying arm bouquets of pink roses, and the attendants to the groom Leonard and Raymond Kreuger, brothers.

Supplementing the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, with about 200 guests in attendance.

Cascade Picnic

Cascade Park was the scene of many enjoyable gatherings Wednesday evening when several families had supper in the grove followed by entertainment with park amusements.

In one particular group were several guests from out of town including Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wigton and daughter Olive and son Joe, Mrs. Mary Morrow, daughter Jessie and Chalmers Maughn of Edinburg; Miss Edna Haycock of Alliance, O., Olivia and Lem Young of Hubbard, O.

From New Castle were Mr. and Mrs. O. H. McClelland, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McClelland and daughters Cora and Jennie and son John.

At Tranquilla Home

At the Fairmont avenue residence Mrs. Carl R. Tranquillo, the Semper Fidelis club was graciously received Thursday evening.

Two tables were used for the game of 500 with Mrs. H. A. Fazzone and Mrs. A. Acquaviva winning the favors. A delicious lunch was served at a late hour.

Mrs. Louis DeCaprio invited the members to her home in two weeks.

PROCESSING TAXES AND BENEFIT CHECKS

GOVERNMENT checks are now going out in an ever-increasing stream to farmers who have reduced their crops in exchange for a government fee.

The money, of course, is being raised by the famous processing tax, and some of the figures on the collection of the tax and the payment of money up to April 30, recently released, are interesting in the extreme, showing that the states which pay out the most in processing taxes usually get the least back in the way of benefits to the farmers.

Already complaints are beginning to be heard in some of these states and it is not difficult to foretell now just what the campaign of the candidates opposed to the AAA will consist of this year, in certain sections of the country.

Take New England, for example. From Connecticut, up to April 30, had been collected the sum of $1,680,705.38 while the rental and benefit to farmers in that state was but $196,818.94. The situation in Massachusetts was even less balanced. From the Bay State processing taxes of over $17,000,000 were collected yet the commonwealth's farmers got back but a little over $96,000. Rhode Island and Maine make an even sorrier showing. Processing taxes collected in Maine were a little over $1,780,000 and in Rhode Island over $2,879,000. Yet according to the figures, the rural inhabitants of neither of these states had gotten back a single penny in the way of benefits. Now Maine will vote early in September and it will be interesting to see what, if any, effect the farm benefit program will have on the election results.

It will be especially interesting in view of the fact that a number of Southern states have done especially well, in the matter of benefits. For example, Arkansas has collected $509,000 in taxes and the farmers have gotten back nearly $11,000,000 in benefits. Louisiana has collected a little more than $1,273,000,000 and been paid over $5,000,000 in benefits. Mississippi has collected $686,950.99 in processing taxes, and received back farm benefits of moret han ten millions. The greatest beneficiary has been the state of Texas with taxes collected in the sum of $8,176,941.67 and benefits received in the sum of $47,044,240.10.

New York has the greatest disparity on the wrong side of the ledger with total processing taxes collected in the sum of $31,847,946.10 and benefits in the sum of $55,000! Ohio, itself a big farm state, is a loser in the ratio of about 6 to 1, Illinois about 20 to 1, and Indiana three to one. Pennsylvania is also among the leading heavy losers.

No wonder, therefore, there have been some "mild" complaints from some of the states. The answer of those supporting the AAA plan is that the money benefits all the country, that what is spent in Akansas and Mississippi eventually is spread over the entire country. The answer is not entirely convincing due to the fact that the act was designed to benefit the farmers of the various states and that some of them seem to be getting most of the cash, and others little in proportion to the tax paid. Of course, later figures may change the proportions somewhat but if they do not, it is not difficult to see what one of the big political issues will be in many states this fall.

MADAME CURIE'S GIFT TO HUMANITY

In the death of Madame Marie Curie the world loses one who has been called the foremost woman of science of all time.

With her husband, the late Pierre Curie, a young Paris professor, she gave mankind the mysterious substance called radium. Twice awarded the Nobel Prize in chemistry, she was honored by learned societies everywhere. Though it is believed that paradoxically she was a victim of the rays she had discovered, the curative value of the product of her research can not be computed. Medical men say that radium saved the lives of at least 50,000 men during the World War.

The fact that Madame Curie refused to commercialize her great discovery helps to give an insight into her admirable character. During the course of her two visits to this country she won the love and affection of all who came into contact with her. Modest and shrinking from the honors that were heaped upon her, she yet possessed the rare gifts which make public homage inevitable. She was happiest when in her laboratory, explaining the secrets of nature. This little woman with a scientific mind lived only to do good to others. She will be sincerely mourned everywhere.

WORDS AND WORDS

Is there any authority for "after-effects," as in the phrase "the after-effects of measles," and if so what and why? An effect must follow its cause; it can not precede it. If the effect must come after the cause, why call it an after-effect? Of if that is good English, why not speak of a before-cause?

Then there is the commonly used expression "wearing apparel." What is apparel for, if not to be worn? Is there any other kind of apparel? The dictionaries say apparel is clothing. One doesn't buy clothing to eat, or to hang on the wall. Shakespeare did not say: "The wearing apparel oft proclaims the man." He said "apparel," net.

We are also moved to grief by the word "eyesight." To be sure there is foresight and more frequently hindsight. But sight implies the use of the eyes. People don't talk of earhearing or nosesmelling.

We suspect that all these expressions, and many more in common use that are equally tautologic, were invented by type-founders.

Maybe Hitler will give Wilhelm a job as his assistant.

It takes two fools to make riches important—one to show off and one to envy him.

Anyhow, we learned that the word "easy" described the customer instead of the payments.

SAVE YOUR PITY!

"POOR, OLD MAN!" I heard somebody whisper.

And I looked to see "the poor, old man" they pity so.

Poor, old man, indeed. I know that poor, old man better than the pitier knows him and I find no pity in my heart for him. . . . Neither would you if you know what his life has been, what it is.

Yes, he is old. I grant you that. Very old, indeed. And the walks with a stick and he is not strong and he may have but a few months to live upon this earth and breathe this air and feel the dews of evening and the glorious morning sun. . . . But look into his heart and you will find a world of richness there. He is weak in body, to be sure, but he is strong in spirit. His hands tremble. Any one may see that; but no one can look within and see how his heart is steady and unafraid.

The years have nourished this man and he feeds upon them. He has been brave, he has been unselfish, he has let himself adventure far and deep. Been foolish many a time, been widely reckless, reaped failure out of audacity, paid his debts manfully. Tears have coursed down those leathery old cheeks, but lightning has flashed from those old eyes. He made many friends in his life-time, and all the old ones have been gone these many years. He grieved for them. He sighed for the instability of all things mortal, but did not weaken beneath the bludgeons of fate and circumstances. Stubborn, enduring, he went his way.

You pity him? I do not. I have heard him say that much as he loves life, he likes to think of how, when he is unbodied, the part of him that dies will make a rich mulch somewhere in the earth and he will serve nature then as he has always served her in this life.

So save your pity for that old man. He has no need of it. . . . If he knew you pitied him he would be furious. He would pity you for your blind foolishness, straighten his shoulders and pour his scorn upon you, ask you to withhold your pity from every man until it is asked for. . . . But you pity him because he is BLIND, you say? You pity him because you put yourself in his place and try to imagine how you would feel if YOU were blind? . . . O save your foolish pity, man! This old, blind man has clearer eyes than you.

BE THE SORT OF MAN YOUR CADDIE THINKS YOU ARE.

You golfers—how do you treat the lads who caddie for you?

Do you complain about the way they do their work, or do you suggest in a kind manner the sort of service you would like?

Aside from what they do for you, have you any interest in them?

Do you encourage your caddie to make a confident of you?

Small to you, their troubles might be big matters to them.

You might be able to give advice or instruction of value to them.

If you get a bright, willing fellow to carry your bag, why not consider him a candidate for some other job you might give him?

Most of these lads would like jobs, especially in the Winter, and many of them would welcome a steady job even in Summer.

You have more influence on these boys than you think.

Would your caddies be wise to pattern themselves after you?

Should your outbursts of temper—perhaps your cussing—cause them to think that that sort of a disposition belongs to the higher class you are supposed to represent?

Be a real fellow with your caddie. He not only would appreciate it, but you would make a lasting favorable impression.

LULLABY.

Land of laughter and delight,
Keep our baby through the night.
Let no weeping
Where the silver moonbeams play
Round her streaming
Let her dreaming
Lovely be until the day.

Land of slumber, wondrous fair,
Take our baby in your care.
Free from sorrow
Till tomorrow
Let her dream the night away.
Vigil keeping
O'er her sleeping,
Guard her safely till the day.

Land of silver horns and drums
Now for her the sandman comes.
Gently dozing,
Eyes are closing;
Softly now she steals away.
Stars are peeping
O'er her sleeping.
Let her dreams be sweet, we pray.

Unemployed Numbers Go Up
Morgan Not Using His Yacht
Bonds Show Recovery

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, July 6.—The United States still has the doubtful distinction of having the largest number of unemployed men in the world—more than 10 million, the American Federation of Labor estimates. The number probably will increase during the summer.

Thus the continued insistence of General Hugh Johnson for "a spread in jobs." In many cases, hower, there isn't the business to supply the jobs.

NO YACHT

J. P. Morgan is not using his yacht Corsair this season. Its decks and upper works are shut in with canvas.

Comment has it that he believed it would look bad, although tying it up throws quite a few seamen out of jobs.

A WAY TO EARN

A coastwise line operates big boats on Sunday excursions, at $2 a person, plus 60 cents for box lunches.

The excursions are immensely popular. It's a $5 crowd.

Americans are just beginning to appreciate their waterways.

In the majority of cities, the waterfront is difficult to reach, and boats for short trips have been old wheezers.

Mayor LaGuardia of New York has included among his many plans for rejuvenating the city one for making piers more attractice.

IN GERMANY

Adolf Hitler's "purging" of the Nazis afforded an excellent example of how much people are permitted to know under a dictatorship.

Millions of citizens of Germany knew little or nothing concerning the momentous events there even a day afterwards, although every newspaper reader in America had columns on it.

And the columns that the American papers had were correct. American correspondents, because they have a free press, are such a power on world opinion, that the Hitler government had to permit them to send their stories. But suppose you were reading a German newspaper?

Foreign newspapers are at a premium in Germany and Austria. Yet what occurs when a citizen is caught reading one? That, too, is worth thinking about.

FRIDAY, JULY 6

Great Days—July 6, 1386—Arnold Winkelreid did the deed which made him a classic example of courageous patriot for six centuries.

He was one of 1,300 Swiss protecting his country against invasion by a large army of Austrians. In the battle of Sempach, the Swiss had failed to penetrate the line of the enemy when Winkelreid grasped all the Austrian pikes within his reach, buried them in his body and bore them to the earth, while over him his compatriots rushed into the opening and inspired by Winkelreid's sacrifice, defeated the Austrians with terrible slaughter. A poet put the exploit into well remembered lines. Excerpt

"Make way for liberty," he cried.
"Make way for liberty," and died.

July 6, 1535—Sir Thomas More, 47, greatest man-of-letters and statesman of his time, was hanged by order of Henry VIII for refusing to renounce his Roman Catholic beliefs. He died jesting. As he was led to the gallows, the scaffold shook a little and he said to the executioners: "Give me a hand going up, I will shift for myself coming down."

His Utopia, visualizing a perfect state, which he published at 28, still is read for its political ideas.

July 6, 1785—The Spanish dolar see below) became the U. S. dollar as congress adopted the decimal system of currency, with a silver coin weighing 416 grains as the unit of value.

The dollar took a cut a long time before Roosevelt, any Roosevelt, went to the White House, for weight of the coin was reduced to 412½ grains in the early days of the republic.

July 6, 1846—California became U. S. territory by the bold action of Capt. John Drake Sloat, 66. He landed a detachment from the Pacific squadron he commanded, occupied Monterey, seized California from Mexican authorities and declared it annexed to the U. S., much in the same manner that Japan took Manchuria from the Chinese.

Scientists Discover Ancient Inscriptions

(International News Service)

SUVA, Fiji Islands, July 6.—At the gateway of the Goro Sea stands the Yasawa group of volcanic islands, the western-most outpost of the Fiji Islands, and on the lavaland promontory of the largest of the group is the artistically carved heroic-sized figure of a woman kissing her child—the work of Chinese seafarers in the dawn of record history.

This startling discovery, made by Arthur Vogan, famed archaeologist of Sydney University, Australia, followed closely on the heels of the discovery yesterday of a cathedral-like cavern on the same island, on the walls of which were Chinese inscriptions dating back to 2600 B. C. according to Dr. A. J. Fox, expert in oriental languages, the script was of the Shan dynasty of ancient China, that reigned in dim ages antedating even the Biblical recording of the flood.

Photographs Made.

No excavations have been attempted as yet. Only photographs and casts have been made of the extraordinary findings. Dr. Fox has deciphered one script "Hsia" to mean "five." This numeral, Dr. Fox thinks, refers to the number of Chinese seafarers who were wrecked on the shores of the Fiji Islands and who may have been the forerunners of the Polynesian people. When the Fiji Islands were discovered by Tasman in 1643, the natives were wild savages, hunting each other down and eating their enemies.

Many of the mystic carvings on the walls of the enormous cavern have not yet been deciphered. The figure of the woman was carved on the lava rocks outside the great cave on a rocky point jutting into the sea. The nearly 5,000 year old figure, in the opinion of Vogan and Dr. Fox, shows every evidence of extraordinary artistic skull.

The discoverers are fairly certain that the strange writings on the cavern walls tell the story of a shipwreck and also that they indicate the burial in the cavern of something of great value.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

NOT AT ALL "UPISH."

A Canadian business man, over on the other side, found that Englishmen, according to his notions, were rather difficult to thaw out. To one of them he said "You British are a different crowd to deal with: you're so reserved."

The Englishman was surprised. "Oh, come," he said. "I think that's not right. Why, when I was in the 'Eight' at Cambridge, I knew practically all the men in the crew, except, perhaps, one or two, and they were right up in the bows."

In Roman legend, Cacus was a monstrous being (son of Vulcan, by some accounts) who dwelt in a cave on the Alventine hill, before the foundation of Rome.

PROCESSING TAXES AND BENEFIT CHECKS

GOVERNMENT checks are now going out in an ever-increasing stream to farmers who have reduced their crops in exchange for a government fee.

The money, of course, is being raised by the famous processing tax, and some of the figures on the collection of the tax and the payment of money up to April 30, recently released, are interesting in the extreme, showing that the states which pay out the most in processing taxes usually get the least back in the way of benefits to the farmers.

Already complaints are beginning to be heard in some of these states and it is not difficult to foretell now just what the campaign of the candidates opposed to the AAA will consist of this year, in certain sections of the country.

Take New England, for example. From Connecticut, up to April 30, had been collected the sum of $1,680,705.38 while the rental and benefit to farmers in that state was but $196,818.94. The situation in Massachusetts was even less balanced. From the Bay State processing taxes of over $17,000,000 were collected yet the commonwealth's farmers got back but a little over $96,000. Rhode Island and Maine make an even sorrier showing. Processing taxes collected in Maine were a little over $1,780,000 and in Rhode Island over $2,879,000. Yet according to the figures, the rural inhabitants of neither of these states had gotten back a single penny in the way of benefits. Now Maine will vote early in September and it will be interesting to see what, if any, effect the farm benefit program will have on the election results.

It will be especially interesting in view of the fact that a number of Southern states have done especially well, in the matter of benefits. For example, Arkansas has collected $509,000 in taxes and the farmers have gotten back nearly $11,000,000 in benefits. Louisiana has collected a little more than $1,273,000,000 and been paid over $5,000,000 in benefits. Mississippi has collected $686,950.99 in processing taxes, and received back farm benefits of moret han ten millions. The greatest beneficiary has been the state of Texas with taxes collected in the sum of $8,176,941.67 and benefits received in the sum of $47,044,240.10.

New York has the greatest disparity on the wrong side of the ledger with total processing taxes collected in the sum of $31,847,946.10 and benefits in the sum of $55,000! Ohio, itself a big farm state, is a loser in the ratio of about 6 to 1, Illinois about 20 to 1, and Indiana three to one. Pennsylvania is also among the leading heavy losers.

No wonder, therefore, there have been some "mild" complaints from some of the states. The answer of those supporting the AAA plan is that the money benefits all the country, that what is spent in Akansas and Mississippi eventually is spread over the entire country. The answer is not entirely convincing due to the fact that the act was designed to benefit the farmers of the various states and that some of them seem to be getting most of the cash, and others little in proportion to the tax paid. Of course, later figures may change the proportions somewhat but if they do not, it is not difficult to see what one of the big political issues will be in many states this fall.

MADAME CURIE'S GIFT TO HUMANITY

In the death of Madame Marie Curie the world loses one who has been called the foremost woman of science of all time.

With her husband, the late Pierre Curie, a young Paris professor, she gave mankind the mysterious substance called radium. Twice awarded the Nobel Prize in chemistry, she was honored by learned societies everywhere. Though it is believed that paradoxically she was a victim of the rays she had discovered, the curative value of the product of her research can not be computed. Medical men say that radium saved the lives of at least 50,000 men during the World War.

The fact that Madame Curie refused to commercialize her great discovery helps to give an insight into her admirable character. During the course of her two visits to this country she won the love and affection of all who came into contact with her. Modest and shrinking from the honors that were heaped upon her, she yet possessed the rare gifts which make public homage inevitable. She was happiest when in her laboratory, explaining the secrets of nature. This little woman with a scientific mind lived only to do good to others. She will be sincerely mourned everywhere.

WORDS AND WORDS

Is there any authority for "after-effects," as in the phrase "the after-effects of measles," and if so what and why? An effect must follow its cause; it can not precede it. If the effect must come after the cause, why call it an after-effect? Of if that is good English, why not speak of a before-cause?

Then there is the commonly used expression "wearing apparel." What is apparel for, if not to be worn? Is there any other kind of apparel? The dictionaries say apparel is clothing. One doesn't buy clothing to eat, or to hang on the wall. Shakespeare did not say: "The wearing apparel oft proclaims the man." He said "apparel," net.

We are also moved to grief by the word "eyesight." To be sure there is foresight and more frequently hindsight. But sight implies the use of the eyes. People don't talk of earhearing or nosesmelling.

We suspect that all these expressions, and many more in common use that are equally tautologic, were invented by type-founders.

Maybe Hitler will give Wilhelm a job as his assistant.

It takes two fools to make riches important—one to show off and one to envy him.

Anyhow, we learned that the word "easy" described the customer instead of the payments.

SAVE YOUR PITY!

"POOR, OLD MAN!" I heard somebody whisper.

And I looked to see "the poor, old man" they pity so.

Poor, old man, indeed. I know that poor, old man better than the pitier knows him and I find no pity in my heart for him. . . . Neither would you if you know what his life has been, what it is.

Yes, he is old. I grant you that. Very old, indeed. And the walks with a stick and he is not strong and he may have but a few months to live upon this earth and breathe this air and feel the dews of evening and the glorious morning sun. . . . But look into his heart and you will find a world of richness there. He is weak in body, to be sure, but he is strong in spirit. His hands tremble. Any one may see that; but no one can look within and see how his heart is steady and unafraid.

The years have nourished this man and he feeds upon them. He has been brave, he has been unselfish, he has let himself adventure far and deep. Been foolish many a time, been widely reckless, reaped failure out of audacity, paid his debts manfully. Tears have coursed down those leathery old cheeks, but lightning has flashed from those old eyes. He made many friends in his life-time, and all the old ones have been gone these many years. He grieved for them. He sighed for the instability of all things mortal, but did not weaken beneath the bludgeons of fate and circumstances. Stubborn, enduring, he went his way.

You pity him? I do not. I have heard him say that much as he loves life, he likes to think of how, when he is unbodied, the part of him that dies will make a rich mulch somewhere in the earth and he will serve nature then as he has always served her in this life.

So save your pity for that old man. He has no need of it. . . . If he knew you pitied him he would be furious. He would pity you for your blind foolishness, straighten his shoulders and pour his scorn upon you, ask you to withhold your pity from every man until it is asked for. . . . But you pity him because he is BLIND, you say? You pity him because you put yourself in his place and try to imagine how you would feel if YOU were blind? . . . O save your foolish pity, man! This old, blind man has clearer eyes than you.

BE THE SORT OF MAN YOUR CADDIE THINKS YOU ARE.

You golfers—how do you treat the lads who caddie for you?

Do you complain about the way they do their work, or do you suggest in a kind manner the sort of service you would like?

Aside from what they do for you, have you any interest in them?

Do you encourage your caddie to make a confident of you?

Small to you, their troubles might be big matters to them.

You might be able to give advice or instruction of value to them.

If you get a bright, willing fellow to carry your bag, why not consider him a candidate for some other job you might give him?

Most of these lads would like jobs, especially in the Winter, and many of them would welcome a steady job even in Summer.

You have more influence on these boys than you think.

Would your caddies be wise to pattern themselves after you?

Should your outbursts of temper—perhaps your cussing—cause them to think that that sort of a disposition belongs to the higher class you are supposed to represent?

Be a real fellow with your caddie.

He not only would appreciate it, but you would make a lasting favorable impression.

LULLABY.

Land of laughter and delight,
Keep our baby through the night.
Let no weeping
Where the silver moonbeams play
Round her streaming
Let her dreaming
Lovely be until the day.

Land of slumber, wondrous fair,
Take our baby in your care.
Free from sorrow
Till tomorrow
Let her dream the night away.
Vigil keeping
O'er her sleeping,
Guard her safely till the day.

Land of silver horns and drums
Now for her the sandman comes.
Gently dozing,
Eyes are closing;
Softly now she steals away.
Stars are peeping
O'er her sleeping.
Let her dreams be sweet, we pray.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The United States still has the doubtful distinction of having the largest number of unemployed men in the world—more than 10 million, the American Federation of Labor estimates. The number probably will increase during the summer.

Thus the continued insistence of General Hugh Johnson for "a spread in jobs." In many cases, hower, there isn't the business to supply the jobs.

Millions of citizens of Germany knew little or nothing concerning the momentous events there even a day afterwards, although every newspaper reader in America had columns on it.

And the columns that the American papers had were correct. American correspondents, because they have a free press, are such a power on world opinion, that the Hitler government had to permit them to send their stories. But suppose you were reading a German newspaper?

Foreign newspapers are at a premium in Germany and Austria. Yet what occurs when a citizen is caught reading one? That, too, is worth thinking about.

Great Days—July 6, 1386—Arnold Winkelreid did the deed which made him a classic example of courageous patriot for six centuries.

He was one of 1,300 Swiss protecting his country against invasion by a large army of Austrians. In the battle of Sempach, the Swiss had failed to penetrate the line of the enemy when Winkelreid grasped all the Austrian pikes within his reach, buried them in his body and bore them to the earth, while over him his compatriots rushed into the opening and inspired by Winkelreid's sacrifice, defeated the Austrians with terrible slaughter. Scientists Discover Ancient Inscriptions

(International News Service)

SUVA, Fiji Islands, July 6.—At the gateway of the Goro Sea stands the Yasawa group of volcanic islands, the western-most outpost of the Fiji Islands, and on the lavaland promontory of the largest of the group is the aristically carved heroic-sized figure of a woman kissing her child—the work of Chinese seafarers in the dawn of record history.

This startling discovery, made by Arthur Vogan, famed archaeologist of Sydney University, Australia, followed closely on the heels of the discovery yesterday of a cathedral-like cavern on the same island, on the walls of which were Chinese inscriptions dating back to 2600 B. C. according to Dr. A. J. Fox, expert in oriental languages, the script was of the Shan dynasty of ancient China, that reigned in dim ages antedating even the Bibilical recording of the flood.

Photographs Made.

No excavations have been attempted as yet. Only photographs and casts have been made of the extraordinary findings. Dr. Fox has deciphered one script "Hsia" to mean "five." This numeral, Dr. Fox thinks, refers to the number of Chinese seafarers who were wrecked on the shores of the Fiji Islands and who may have been the forerunners of the Polynesian people. When the Fiji Islands were discovered by Tasman in 1643, the natives were wild savages, hunting each other down and eating their enemies.

Many of the mystic carvings on the walls of the enormous cavern have not yet been deciphered. The figure of the woman was carved on the lava rocks outside the great cave on a rocky point jutting into the sea. The nearly 5,000 year old figure, in the opinion of Vogan and Dr. Fox, shows every evidence of extraordinary artistic skull.

The discoverers are fairly certain that the strange writings on the cavern walls tell the story of a shipwreck and also that they indicate the burial in the cavern of something of great value.

John Latshaw Owes Life To Presence Of Mind In Keeping Mouth Closed

John Latshaw of Hillsville, admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital Tuesday, as the result of terrible burns, is reported to be getting along fairly well. Latshaw is employed by the Crew-Levick Oil Company. He was doing some work about the wells near Hillsville when a grass fire was started. Latshaw was alone and during his fight to extinguish the grass fire a plug was knocked from an oil pipe and he was sprayed with oil, which instantly took fire.

Blazing like a torch Latshaw had the presence of mind to keep his mouth closed while he tore off his burning clothing. His legs from his hips down and his arms were terribly burned. Despite his condition and with only a few shreds of his underclothing hanging to him, he got into his truck and drove it two miles to his home, falling exhausted when it was reached. He was immediately rushed to the hospital. Due to the fact that his chest and face were not badly burned and that he did not inhale any flame, it is believed that he will recover.

First of All—Although the dollar (see above) takes its name from the Spanish dolar which was widely circulated in the Colonies, the first "dollars" were Bohemian. The name stems back to 15th century silver coins which were known as Joachimsthaler. This was abbreviated in time to sthaler, and in turn became the Prussian daler which circulated throughout Europe and was taken up by the Spanish.

And think how awful the war debt would be if we had charged Europe $10 for a dime's worth instead of $5.

Veteran Circus Elephant Brainier Than Smartest Horse, Declares Trainer

"Casper," One of the Fifty Elephants with the Big Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus.

"Elephants are just folks," in the opinion of Bill Emery, in charge of the assemblage of pachyderms with Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus.

Mr. Emery may well speak with authority for he has spent a lifetime in the care and training of the big animals.

During the past winter, Emery divided the elephants into six squads, taught them many new tricks and then taught his corps of assistants how to put the big-eared fellows through their paces.

There are fifty elephants with the great circus this season, but not all of them appear in the performances. Six are working elephants. Of these, one of the most interesting is "Casper" who stands at one end of the long line of "bulls" in the menagerie tent.

After many years of performing, Casper has been relegated to the working class, while younger elephants have taken his place in the sawdust rings.

Mr. Emery, Casper's trainer, declares that this elephant has an unusually large share of real intelligence. He's a big help in moving the show.

"Casper knows just what's doing when the show gets ready for its annual tour in the Spring," declares Emery. "When I begin to move the wagons about, he follows me like a dog, waiting for orders. He has more brains than the smartest horse. In fact all of our elephants exercise thought and judgment in their daily routine and they've yet to fail me in an emergency.

"People don't pay enough attention to elephants when they visit the circus. Look 'em over carefully when the big show comes to New Castle, Friday, July 13.

Performances will be given at 2 and 8 P. M., the doors opening an hour earlier. A stupendous program of new and amazing international features is presented this season by the great combined circus.

Ivorites To Have Annual Convention

Annual Meeting Of National Organization To Be Held Next Month

(By WILLIAM A. JOHNS)
Brython

Arrangements have been completed for the annual convention of the True Ivorites of America, which take place at Rome, N. Y., next month, according to information received here by officers of the local lodge.

Sessions will take place in the Elks Club, a short distance from the railroad station, delegates will attend from Martha and Star of Wales lodges here. The convention opens August 14.

Griffith Thomas will occupy the pulpit of the Emmanuel Baptist church on next Sunday evening, and a larger audience is expected to attend the services.

Mrs. William Phillips, of East Reynolds street, is still improving in health and is now able to be about the house.

Llewellyn Thomas of South Mercer street, is visiting his son, David J. Thomas and family, of Pittsburgh. He also expects to visit Joseph Williams, and family, who were former local residents.

POOLING WOOL CLIP

MERCER, July 6.—The pooling of the clip of the Mercer County Wool Growers' association was started this morning and deliveries arrived shortly after 6 o'clock. It is anticipated that the pool will equal that of last year when 80,000 pounds were delivered at the Mercer warehouse. The grading is in charge of W. B. Connell, sheep specialist of the State college, who has charge of the grading of the Mercer pool ever since it was started. The pool has been purchased by the Patterson Brothers of Boston, one of the largest wool purchasing firms in the country.

Victim Of Oil Fire Recovering

John Latshaw Owes Life To Presence Of Mind In Keeping Mouth Closed

John Latshaw of Hillsville, admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital Tuesday, as the result of terrible burns, is reported to be getting along fairly well. Latshaw is employed by the Crew-Levick Oil Company. He was doing some work about the wells near Hillsville when a grass fire was started. Latshaw was alone and during his fight to extinguish the grass fire a plug was knocked from an oil pipe and he was sprayed with oil, which instantly took fire.

Blazing like a torch Latshaw had the presence of mind to keep his mouth closed while he tore off his burning clothing. His legs from his hips down and his arms were terribly burned. Despite his condition and with only a few shreds of his underclothing hanging to him, he got into his truck and drove it two miles to his home, falling exhausted when it was reached. He was immediately rushed to the hospital. Due to the fact that his chest and face were not badly burned and that he did not inhale any flame, it is believed that he will recover.

Lee Tracy Lets Out New Blast

Will Probably Be Off Guest Lists At Hollywood Parties

By HARRISON CARROLL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

HOLYWOOD, July 6.—Out of a clear sky, Lee Tracy let loose a verbal blast today that will probably cause cinema hostesses to scratch his name off their invitation lists for good.

The slender actor, who plays wise-cracking, debunking roles on the screen, has his dander up about Hollywood's famous parties.

"You can say for me," he declared in his Paramount dressingroom, "That a Hollywood party is a gathering where people with no ability to enjoy life meet in a pathetic attempt to have a good time.

"I can count on the fingers of one hand the number of parties I've been to since I came to the coast—and I consider those evenings wasted."

Take it from this fast-talking critic of cinema social life, any party with more than six people who are congenial and who know each other well is the perfect recipe for a dull evening. As to the theory that you have to be a good mixer to get along in Hollywood, Lee snaps:

"Maybe I'd have been a lot better off if I had; but then, again, maybe I wouldn't. At any rate, if I have to be successful that way, you can count me out."

And, incidentally, you don't even see Lee around the night-clubs since his mother came out to visit him.

League For Social Justice May Take Up Professor's Case

Ousted Pitt Professor Blames "Business Men Trustees" For Move

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Ousted he claimed, by "businessmen-trustees" and "persons linked with Mellon-Grundy machine", Dr. Ralph E. Turner, deposed associate professor of history at University of Pittsburgh, today was rapidly becoming the center of a storm of resentment.

Dismissal of the professor was expected to be discussed at a monthly meeting tonight of the Pennsylvania League for Social Justice. This group is closely allied with the Security League through its membership and was expected to lodge a formal protest to the university and to "start the ball rolling" for other liberal and civic groups in the city.

Meanwhile Dr. Turner was seeking "specific cause" for his dismissal. He had been told by Dr. John W. Oliver, head of the history department, that it was his "understanding" that an "accumulation of several complaints extending over some years had caused it."

Dr. Turner said if such is the case he is at a loss to understand why his contract was renewed. Under the contract Dr. Turner must be paid a year's salary despite his dismissal.

Woman Who Shook Lincoln's Hand Says It Was Big

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—Abraham Lincoln's hands—large and thin and toil worn—remain vividly outlined in the memory of Mrs. Mary Calvery of Camden, N. J.

Seventy-four years ago, the 98-year-old woman was one of a throng that shook the then newly elected president's hand at a reception in Independence Hall here.

"I can still see those hands—so huge and thin—the hands of a poor man," said Mrs. Calvery, a second cousin of General Ulysses S. Grant. She was born in Bucks county, Pa., and received her early education in a log schoolhouse.

This Makes Jobs For At Least Ten

(International News Service)

PHILADELJHIA, July 6. — The state employment office is endeavoring to place in positions with private industry thousands of unemployed on the lists of the organization.

Confident that a definite upward trend in business will enable the firms doing increased business to re-employ many of the 250,000 on the rolls of the state employment office here, Franklin G. Connor, supervisor for this area, outlined a new policy.

Mother's Message Came To Dead Man

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., July 6.—Death stepped between Michael Subsaro, Pittsburgh, and the job his mother's wire to him at a CCC camp near here, said was awaiting him at a steel mill.

Camp officers were attempting to telephone the mother to inform her of Michael's drowning when the telegram was received at the camp. It read:

Four Injured In Strike Riot In New Jersey

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

RIDGETON, N. J., July 6.—In a fierce fight between striking farm workers and men assigned to protect the Seabrook farms, four of the guards were injured today.

The riot was quelled by details of state police who hurled tear gas bombs into the ranks of 200 striking farmers, dispersing the mob.

The guards were being mauled by the strikers in the first riotous outbreak since the walkout began some time ago. They were rescued by the state police rushed to the Seabrook farms, three miles south of here, from barracks at Woodstown, Port Norris and Hammonton.

The injured victims were Jack Saunders, Sam Gould, Jack Stevenson and Morris Peck.

By HARRISON CARROLL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

HOLYWOOD, July 6.—Out of a clear sky, Lee Tracy let loose a verbal blast today that will probably cause cinema hostesses to scratch his name off their invitation lists for good.

The slender actor, who plays wise-cracking, debunking roles on the screen, has his dander up about Hollywood's famous parties.

"You can say for me," he declared in his Paramount dressingroom, "That a Hollywood party is a gathering where people with no ability to enjoy life meet in a pathetic attempt to have a good time.

"I can count on the fingers of one hand the number of parties I've been to since I came to the coast—and I consider those evenings wasted."

Take it from this fast-talking critic of cinema social life, any party with more than six people who are congenial and who know each other well is the perfect recipe for a dull evening. As to the theory that you have to be a good mixer to get along in Hollywood, Lee snaps:

"Maybe I'd have been a lot better off if I had; but then, again, maybe I wouldn't. At any rate, if I have to be successful that way, you can count me out."

And, incidentally, you don't even see Lee around the night-clubs since his mother came out to visit him.

Ousted Pitt Professor Blames "Business Men Trustees" For Move

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Ousted he claimed, by "businessmen-trustees" and "persons linked with Mellon-Grundy machine", Dr. Ralph E. Turner, deposed associate professor of history at University of Pittsburgh, today was rapidly becoming the center of a storm of resentment.

Dismissal of the professor was expected to be discussed at a monthly meeting tonight of the Pennsylvania League for Social Justice. This group is closely allied with the Security League through its membership and was expected to lodge a formal protest to the university and to "start the ball rolling" for other liberal and civic groups in the city.

Wool Producers Get Fair Price By Co-operation

(International News Service)

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., July 6.—Approximately 4617 pounds of wool shorn from sheep on the farms of bucks and Montgomery counties this spring and representing a value of $41,250 were shipped recently by rail from Doylestown ot Boston, Mass.

The shipment was the first of its kind made from Doylestown in many years, according to County Agent William F. Greenawalt, through whose efforts the Bucks County Co-operative Wool Growers' association was formed this spring.

Tigers Stage Ladies Night

Despite inclement weather, the Tigers Club annual ladies' night, held at Anthony's camp, along the Neshannock creek Thursday night, proved a huge success.

The 50 or more persons present enjoyed swimming, volley ball and bocce. During the course of the evening delicious refreshments were served. The committee in charge: T. C. Richards, chairman; Joseph Bordonaro, James Scarazzo, Al Richards, P. J. Richards, John Ross, Charles Scaglione, and Adolph DeGennaro.

Three Survivors Out Of 900 Men

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Three Civil War veterans, Andrew Moss, 96, of Ingham, John Renton, 89⅛ of Wilkinsburg and William Griffin, 91, of New York, are the lone survivors of the old 102nd regiment of 900 men who marched away to the Civil War.

Bue when the 102nd held its fifty-ninth reunion here recently, the regiment was represented only by Andy and John. Bill was injured in an automobile accident several months ago and could not attend.

FIELD DAY PLANNED

MERCER, July 6.—E. S. Ingraham of Mercer, a director of the Pennsylvania Jersey Cattle club, announces the program of the field day of the club that will be held for western Pennsylvania Jersey owners on July 6. The event is held at the J. S. Campbell farm near Butler.

L. L. Rummell, editor of the "Ohio Farmer" and O. G. Shaeffer of "Successful Farming" are carded as the speakers of the afternoon. Ingraham is in charge of the picnic. The Mercer sanitarium, of which he is manager, is the owner of a prize herd of jerseys in the state.

Famous Screen Star Is Waging Desperate Battle Against Death On Coast

(International News Service)

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 6.—"Unchanged—resting quietly" was the word that went out again today from the palatial "cottage" on the C. K. Billings estate where Marie Dressler, the grand old trouper, is waging her most desperate battle.

Although physicians conceded that the beloved 62-year-old actress may live for days, even weeks, there is no hope that she will ever regain her health, or return to the screen on which she climaxed a successful stage career by winning new hosts of admirers.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. July 5, eleven arrests on charges as follows: drunkenness 6, drunkenness and disorderly conduct 1, violating parking law 1, suspicion 2, speeding 1.

Disbursements exceeded receipts at Cascade Park during June. The approximate loss was $7 as the $400 liability insurance paid by the city and included in June disbursements should be diveded over a three months period. Were this not spread over a three months period it would appear as though the city disbursements exceeded receipts approximately by $140. The salaries paid at the park approximately $1100. The city derives its money from concessions and under the terms by which the city acquired the park must expend $7,500, annually on the care and maintenance of the park. The concessionaires pay to the city as follows: dance pavilion, $1,200, a season and 20 percent in excess of a gross of $6,000; Ye Old Mill, 15 percent; Merry-go-Round, 15 percent; Gorge ride, 10 percent; Peanut stand, 12½ percent; Restaurant, 10 percent; Dodg'em, 15 percent, Novelty stand 12½ percent. The city keeps all of the money taken in as parking fees. Less than $500, was collected in June.

Should one glance through recent records at the police department he will discover that few arrests have been made of speeders, not because the motorcycle patrolman wouldn't like to bag some of the speeders but the machine he rides, according to reports is not safe to operate at a rate of speed necessary to apprehend drivers who burn up the streets.

Frank Nugent, superintendent of the city disposal plant has returned from a convention of sewage disposal plant superintendents which was held at Harrisburg. Treatment of sewage was one of the principal topics discussed.

So far no effort has been made to label some of the city owned automobiles. Had it been labelled many persons in different cities recently would have had a chance to see the car and know it was from New Castle. The machine which was purchased for the streets department has been used to carry officials to various cities where they went on inspection tours. The car according to those who have ridden in it has been giving complete satisfaction.

Should your home be robbed and someone "cop" a piece of jewelry call the police. If it is pawned here the article will probably be recovered forthwith. Some time ago the police ordered pawnshop proprietors to keep a record of purchases. Whenever any jewelry, or in fact, any article that can be pawned, is traded in for money, the records are open to police. This is how the police recovered a young man's watch a few days ago.

GIGOLOS ON RIVIERA FIND JOBS SCARCE

(International News Service)

NICE—"Dancing boys" along the Riviera are finding it difficult to find work this season.

There are hundreds of these slick-haired gentry along the French and Italian Riviera, and the number of applicants for the few vacant jobs is so great that only those experienced with "first-class references" have a chance to compete.

These "dancing boys", known in Europe as gigolos, are employed to cater to feminine patronage in the Riviera night clubs and gay resorts.

GULF'S ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION: "WHICH GASOLINE IS BEST?"

Is any one gasoline consistently better than others—or are all gasolines alike? In answer, Gulf tested 33 gasolines on well-known hills. Read the results, then decide for yourself this question—"Which gasoline is best?"

"ALL gasolines are alike," some people say. But the fact is—there's a big difference! Gulf has proved it!

Yes, on 15 tough, mountain grades from Massachusetts to Georgia, tests were made of various gasolines—33 gasolines in all—including the well-known brands sold in each test area.

Each gasoline was tested to see which could pull a car and heavy load farthest up hill in "high" before the motor stalled.

Now Gulf presents the results of these tests. The plain results in black and white—certified by a Notary Public. Look at the chart below—then decide for yourself which gasoline will coax the most power from your motor.

NO WALK FOR THIS CAMEL—but a "walk-over" for Gulf! This picture of test at the Palisades, in New Jersey, shows how tests were made. In this test 9 gasolines competed to see which could take this Dodge coupe and 4,300-lb. load farthest up the grade. Gulf won.

"X" MARKS THE SPOT—where one gasoline gave up the fight in the Palisades test. Eight gasolines watched Gulf beat them!

GO 'LONG MULE!—another power test to find out which gasoline could haul this load farthest up Chimney Rock Hill, N. C. Eight gasolines tried it. And Gulf beat them all!

The NEW GULF wins more power tests than 32 other gasolines combined!

HOW 33 GASOLINES RANKED (IN ALL TESTS TO DATE)

"All gasolines tested, except a few "third grade" brands, sold for approximately the same price as That Good Gulf. Each brand is denoted by a letter.

GIGOLOS ON RIVIERA FIND JOBS SCARCE

(International News Service)

NICE—"Dancing boys" along the Riviera are finding it difficult to find work this season.

There are hundreds of these slick-haired gentry along the French and Italian Riviera, and the number of applicants for the few vacant jobs is so great that only those experienced with "first-class references" have a chance to compete.

These "dancing boys", known in Europe as gigolos, are employed to cater to feminine patronage in the Riviera night clubs and gay resorts.

GULF'S ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION: "WHICH GASOLINE IS BEST?"

Is any one gasoline consistently better than others—or are all gasolines alike? In answer, Gulf tested 33 gasolines on well-known hills. Read the results, then decide for yourself this question—"Which gasoline is best?"

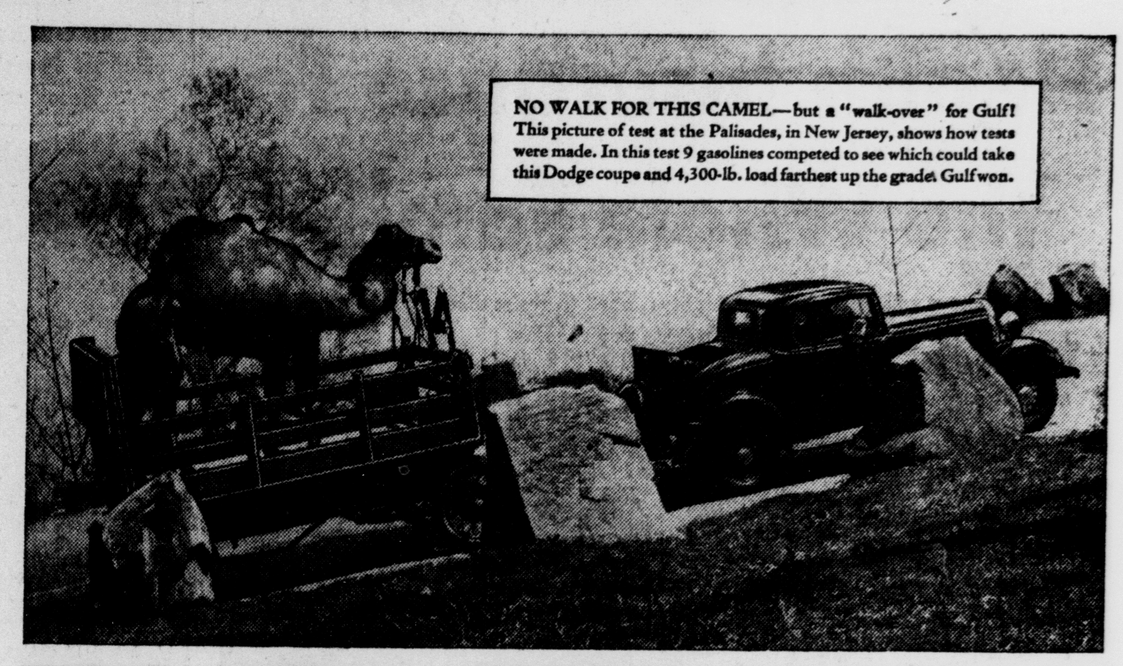

"ALL gasolines are alike," some people say. But the fact is—there's a big difference! Gulf has proved it!

Yes, on 15 tough, mountain grades from Massachusetts to Georgia, tests were made of various gasolines—33 gasolines in all—including the well-known brands sold in each test area.

Each gasoline was tested to see which could pull a car and heavy load farthest up hill in "high" before the motor stalled.

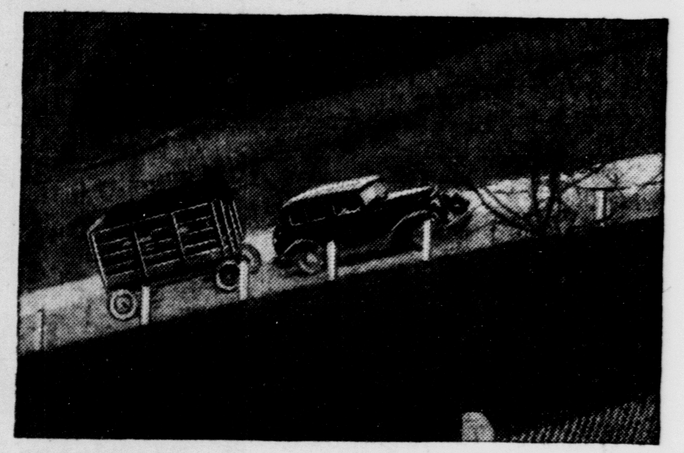

Now Gulf presents the results of these tests. The plain results in black and white—certified by a Notary Public. Look at the chart below—then decide for yourself which gasoline will coax the most power from your motor.

NO WALK FOR THIS CAMEL—but a "walk-over" for Gulf! This picture of test at the Palisades, in New Jersey, shows how tests were made. In this test 9 gasolines competed to see which could take this Dodge coupe and 4,300-lb. load farthest up the grade. Gulf won.

"X" MARKS THE SPOT—where one gasoline gave up the fight in the Palisades test. Eight gasolines watched Gulf beat them!

GO 'LONG MULE!—another power test to find out which gasoline could haul this load farthest up Chimney Rock Hill, N. C. Eight gasolines tried it. And Gulf beat them all!

The NEW GULF wins more power tests than 32 other gasolines combined!

HOW 33 GASOLINES RANKED (IN ALL TESTS TO DATE)

"All gasolines tested, except a few "third grade" brands, sold for approximately the same price as That Good Gulf. Each brand is denoted by a letter.

EACH OF THE COMPETING GASOLINES is denoted by a letter—A to Z6. Note that in all these tests Gulf never ranked lower than 3rd place. Other high ranking gasolines dropped sometimes as low as 7th place.

Here's Health Insurance for the Whole Family!

Many doctors will tell you that a mighty good way to protect the health of your family is to give them Shredded Wheat, milk, and fruit at least one meal every day.

Shredded Wheat is so nourishing that one single Shredded Wheat Biscuit contains as much nourishment as a whole bowl of home-cooked cereal.

These hot days, it's important to remember that Shredded Wheat is easily digested. It doesn't slow you up. Shredded Wheat is whole wheat—one of Nature's best foods—nothing added, nothing taken away. It contains the carbohydrates you need for energy, proteins to build tissue, the vitamins you need to resist disease, and bran to keep you regular.

Pitt Professor Is Given Dismissal

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Although his contract for the 1934-35 school year was renewed this spring, Dr. Ralph E. Turner, associate professor of history at the University of Pittsburgh, has been "dismissed," it became known Thursday.

The dismissal, made known to Turner through a letter from Dr. John W. Oliver, head of the university's history department, became effective on June 30.

Reasons for the action were described as vague by Turner, who sought a conference with Chancellor John C. Bowman to demand specific cause for his dismissal.

Youthful Kidnapers Face Death Sentence

(International News Service)

BONIFAY, Fla., July 6—Florida's "Lindbergh Law" decreed death for two youthful kidnapers in the first instance in which the abduction law has been invoked in this state.

A Holmes county farm jury found Millard Keith, 18 and Bernard Retherford 21, guilty of kidnaping a 77 year old woman Mrs. J. L. Phelps, in a ransom plot.

New Castle Girl Honored In India

Recipient Of Kaisar-I-Hind Medal For Public Service To India

Miss Elizabeth Hay, Of First Baptist Church, Wins Recognition

MISS ELIZABETH HAY

Signal honor has been bestowed on Miss Elizabeth Hay of New Castle, a member of the First Baptist church, who has been engaged in missionary work in India since 1914. Miss Hay was recently awarded the Kaisar-I-Hind medal in recognition of public service rendered to India.

She was graduated from New Castle high school in the class of 1905, and went to India in 1914, at the time that seas were most dangerous due to the activities of the German raider "Emden". On arriving in India, she became connected with the girls' normal school at Newgong, Assam, India; and since 1918 has been principal of the school, which now boasts an enrollment of 345.

Miss Hay has not confined her interests to the school alone, but has taken an active interest in all public activities, and has done much to help break down the purdah system in her town.

In addition, the bestowal of the medal carries with it a degree. In India, where degrees are more honored than in America, Miss Hay will be known as Miss Elizabeth Hay, A. B., K. I. H.

Miss Hay was in the United States some years ago on a vacation, returning to resume her duties in 1921.

High Load On Van Wedges Tight As It Scrapes Bridge

Passing Transport Forced To Detour Around Liberty Street Span

A Michigan transport van, loaded with new passenger cars and light trucks, found passage under the B. & O.-P. & L. E. railroad bridge on Liberty street impossible when its driver attempted to pass beneath yesterday afternoon.

Taking precautions as he neared the span, the driver prevented a more damaging overhead crash when he halted the slowly moving freight carrier as it wedged against a crossbeam.

MAHONING SCOUTS IN MEETING LAST NIGHT

HAVE GOOD CATCH

William Wilson and V. C. Minteer had an admirable catch of bass from the Allegheny river, near Henry's Bend, on Saturday. Both fishermen caught the limit allowed by the state laws. Some of the fish measured 16 and 17 inches. They report that they were forced to throw many back that were not of the legal size.

PICNIC

A delightful scenic spot at Camp Perry was the location of a picnic held on the Fourth by several local families including Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williamson and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. White and family, and Mrs. V. C. Minteer and daughters. Swimming occupied the attention of the group for the better part of the afternoon.

ENJOY CELEBRATION AT PARK

New Wilmington's younger set was out almost en masse to enjoy the holiday evening at Cascade Park on Wednesday. Many journied to the pleasure spot to see the fireworks, while many were in favor of the dance hall.

SANE FOURTH

New Wilmington seems to have broken her jinx in the matter of injuries on the Fourth. In past years, many accidents have featured the frivolities of the day, but this year the writer could ascertain of no injuries of any moment. The sky was filled with multi-colored lights throughout the evening, while the day was replete with the usual noise from salutes and firecrackers, with no corresponding injuries.

TO PLAY WITH AUSTIN

Thomas Hutchison, brother of Walter Hutchison, coach at Austin high school, will play with the Auston team in a championship playoff title to be played next week at Austin. Hutchison is the shortstop on the local A. A. nine.

SPORTSMEN TO PICNIC

Shenango Valley sportsmen with their family, will revel at a natural grove on the Bedford-Pulaski highway on July 17. Plans are nearing completion, according to C. B. White, secretary of the assoviation, and a large crowd is anticipated. The affair will be a supper picnic. Dancing will feature the evening.

WRIST SHATTERED

Hugh Chapin, outfielder on the New Wilmington A. A. nine, is suffering from a shattered wrist caused by a pitched ball in the morning game with New Bedford on Wednesday. Medical attention was secured immediately and the arm was wrapped in splints and is healing very nicely.

FISH ON ALLEGHENY

Charles Byler, Howard Cummings, W. H. Thompson, Harold Elliott, and George Cummings were happy fishermen on the Fourth when they returned from a fishing trip to the Allegheny river with a beautiful catch of bass. Some of the black beauties measured nearly twenty inches and tipped the scales at better than two pounds.

NEW WIMINGTON NOTES

Nelson Greer was a New Castle caller on Wednesday evening.

Charles Simpson of Pulaski, Pa., was a visitor in town on Wednesday.

GEORGE JUNIOR REUNION

GROVE CITY, July 6.—One of the most successful reunions of former citizens of the George Junior Republic here was held at the institution July 4 when 300 guests attended. Many of the guests had not been to the Republic for 15 years. The program included a basket picnic, a speaking program and sports.

On Court House Hill

Justice of the Peace H. M. Reynolds of Union township, who was at the court house yesterday, said that he made his first trip to Pymatuning dam on the Fourth of July. He found the big pond slowly filling up but says it will be a long time before it is up to the anticipated level.

Collections of county taxes by County Treasurer William O. Pitts on last Tuesday amounted to $2,371.18, compared to $3,494.14 on Monday. It was distributed as follows: county, $1,436.06; state, $217.09 and poor, $718.

County commissioners will make another recommendation for a site for a new court house, according to Commissioner P. O. Elder. He did not intimate what site is likely to be chosen this time, but is determined to keep on recommending, despite the fact that three sites have been turned down by the judges. County Commissioner Elmer Conners is on his vacation this week and the matter will hardly be taken up until he returns.

County sealer of weights and measures, L. W. Houk, made a drive on package goods during the month of June, according to his report which has been forwarded to the state department. He examined and weighed 1,455 packages, to find out if they came up to the weights quoted on the covers. He found 17 incorrectly marked. Ninety computing scales were examined. Five were found incorrect and twenty-six were adjusted. Of 44 counter scales examined, 4 needed adjustment. Five out of fourteen spring balances needed adjustment and one platform scale out of 21. Two wagon scales were found to be correct. Out of 198 avoirdupois weights only one was incorrect. Personal weighers on which people weigh themselves were found to vary. Out of twelve examined three were incorrect and two needed adjustment.

In an opinion handed down today by Judge R. L. Hildebrand in the case of John W. and Edna Cameron against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the court refused to strike off a compulsory non-suit which was granted when the case was up for trial.

The case is one in which Mrs. Cameron was a guest in the car of Edward Bowers whom she had asked to take her home from a friend's home on the east side. It was dark and somewhat hazy. When they arrived at the Pennsylvania double tracks on Cherry street, seventh ward, the car was stopped, and they looked both ways before driving over. A short distance further on their car crashed into a freight train which was standing across the street on a spur, or siding. It was claimed that their car was going about twenty miles per hour.

The non-suit was granted for the reason that no negligence was shown on the part of the defendant. The court holds that the railroad company had a right to use their tracks across the street, and Bowers had a right to drive his car on the street. It was incumbent on both to use the care that would ordinarily be used by a prudent person.

The court's opinion will end the case unless an appeal is taken.

Nobody is big enough to disregard the law and the people except a millionaire and an ambulance driver.

A short distance further on their car crashed into a freight train which was standing across the street on a spur, or siding. It was claimed that their car was going about twenty miles per hour.

The non-suit was granted for the reason that no negligence was shown on the part of the defendant. The court holds that the railroad company had a right to use their tracks across the street, and Bowers had a right to drive his car on the street. It was incumbent on both to use the care that would ordinarily be used by a prudent person.

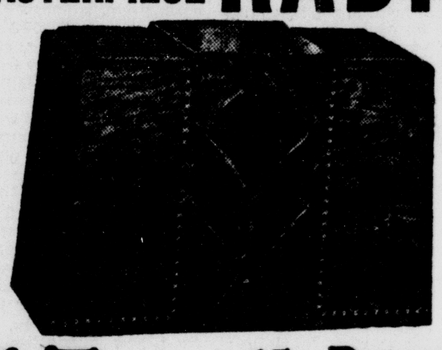

The court's opinion will end the case unless an appeal is taken.

Father Refuses To Let Doctors Operate On Son

Chicago Youth Faces Remainder Of Life Hopeless Cripple With Fractured Knee

MUNICIPAL JUDGE PONDERING CASE

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—Shall John Hoffman, 16, go through life a cripple because his father's religion forbids the "cure of man by man"?

Demand Treatment.

The Society to Protect Children From Cruelty demands that the youth be taken away from his father and placed in a hospital for treatment.

And the center of the controversy, John, awaits mutely, stoically, the judge's decision which is to be rendered next Thursday.

John will not complain if the judge decrees there is no law which can force a father to send his child to doctors.

Although obviously tortured and wracked by the ever-intensifying pain of a fractured knee, John did not complain as he sat in court, his crutches beside him, listening to his father explain that he is a member of a church called the Tabernacle of Faith. Compelled by the anti-child cruelty organization to come into court, the elder Hoffman solemnly declared:

"I cannot allow him to be touched by surgeons. It would be against my religious belief. I could not have men interfere in the acts of God."

Knee Fractured.

John's left knee was fractured two years ago and his leg has been bent outward in a V-shape by the spreading effects of the injury. Repeatedly his father has refused to permit medical examination, although some doctors have said a minor operation might heal the lad and rescue him from a life of physical agony.

After gently, but vainly, pleading with Hoffman to permit his son to undergo medical treatment, Judge Rosen finally arrived at a compromise with the father under which he agreed to let the youth be examined at the Orthopaedic hospital. The judge agreed to send the boy home immediately after the examination. The agreement was carried out and the report of the examination was presented to the judge to aid him in reaching a decision.

Reads From Bible.

While debating with the judge, Hoffman took a Bible from his pocket and read passages to uphold his argument that his son's affliction was God-sent and that only God can take it away.

"Man has no right to attempt to change that which has been ordered by God," he declared.

Relief Agencies Must Economize

Considerable Drop In Contributions Shown By The Latest Report

By PAUL L. McCONOMY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA, July 6— The gaunt wolf—hunger—known at one time or another to the majority of Philadelphia's needy, may again howl outside the homes of the city's welfare constituents, a survey of the financial status of the 116 relief agencies affiliated with the welfare federation here indicates.

The annual report of the welfare organization reveals that there has been a considerable decrease in contributions to the agencies included in the federation during the past several years—in which time demands for aid for destitute persons have increased tremendously.

The report points out that the federation and its agencies carried on during 1933 under greater stress than in 1932. Since the first day of this year, the burden has apparently become still heavier.

Maintenance grants to the agencies last year, exclusive of funds allocated for supplementary unemployment relief, were smaller by $520,520 or 15 per cent, than similar grants in 1932. Grants for this year so far are smaller by $232,221 or seven per cent less than the 1933 grants.

Grants in 1933, representing the period from December 1, 1932 to November 30, 1933, totaled $3,372,479. The seven per cent drop brought the grants for 1934 down to $3,140,249. Collection costs, the federation announced, have been kept down to 95-100ths or 1 per cent on the amount allocated to the organization for collection by the United campaign.

Titles of persons should be capitalized when they are used in connection with proper names.

Sure, Make It Homelike For Women In Jails

Supply 'Em With Baths And Recreation Facilities For A Good Time

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—Pennsylvania jails fail to come up to the mark in providing proper medical, vocational and recreational facilities for women inmates, the prison journal publication of the Pennsylvania prison society declares.

The journal's position is the result of a report on a survey of the women inmates of 67 county jails, the Philadelphia house of correction and the Allegheny county workhouse, who were serving terms of a year or more.

Statistically, there were 14,000 women in the county jails last year, although the yearly average of such prisoners serving a year or more is approximately 400.

In five prisons having 25 or more cells, there were 255 of this class of prisoners. In 17 jails with from five to twenty-five cells, there were 86 women, while there were 35 in prisons having from two to five cells, the report stated, in criticizing overcrowded conditions.

Four prisons were found to have no bathing facilities, while 43 of the penal institutions provided no exercise at all.

Attempts to secure data as to the medical care of the feminine inmates, met with an apparent lack of success, the report stated. Answers on this problem were received from only 12 prisons.

Mrs. Edith Allen Dewitt Will Show Democrats How To Adopt New Styles

(International News Service)

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 6.—One of the busiest women in Pennsylvania these days is Mrs. Edith Allen Dewitt, of this city, the new vice-chairman of the Democratic state committee.

Elected to the position at the reorganization of the state committee in Harrisburg several weeks ago, Mrs. Dewitt at once resigned her position as head of the fashion department in a local store and prepared to devote her full time to politics this summer and fall.

She now is in charge of all Democratic women's activities throughout Pennsylvania and her days and evenings are filled with speaking engagements and conferences at scattered points in the state. Democratic leaders have charged her with the task of bringing all Pennsylvania women to the support of the New Deal.

"The new vice-chairman's experience in politics extends over a period of nearly 20 years. Ten years ago she held the same state committee position she now occupies.

"I have probably backed as many losing candidates as anyone in the state," she said, "but this year it will be different."

Trade Relations Likely To Grow

Bonds Of International Friendship Between This Country And Mexico

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 6— The bonds of International friendship between this country and Mexico have been so strengthened that our trade with the Latin-American nation should increase extensively, Dr. Jacob Billikopf, former chairman of the regional labor board here and executive director of the federation of Jewish charities, believes. Future reduction of American tariffs will expand the trade, he added:

Dr. Billikoph, who returned recently from a month's tour of Mexico, expressed the opinion that the average Mexican now feels friendlier toward the United States and that the feelings of amilty is growing daily.

The repeal of the Platt amendment affecting Cuba; has likewise revised Cuban-American friendship, Dr. Billikoph believes.

"Mexico has not suffered from the depression as this country has" he stated.

Jack Curley Is Operated Upon

Friends and those interested will be welcomed at this time.

Services announcing the coming of the new month, "Ab" this Friday, will also be held.

De Lawrence Elected To Legislative Post

At the regular meeting of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen No. 955, held Thursday evening, July 5, James V. De Lawrence was elected legislative representative for the coming two years. Two candidates were offered for the post, Mr. De Lawrence and William E. Erk, who has been the representative for several terms. In the balloting Mr. De Lawrence was returned a winner.

In his work as legislative representative it will be Mr. De Lawrence's duty to represent the local trainmen in all matters pertaining to legislation, and will require that part of his time be spent in Harrisburg, particularly during the session of the general assembly.

Fred Perry Is Tennis Champ

Perry Is First Englishman To Win All-English Title In 25 Years

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Sports Writer

WIMBLEDON, England, July 6.—Fred Perry of England today won the all-England tennis championship by eliminating the defending champion, Jack Crawford, of Australia, in straight sets, 6-3, 6-0, 7-5.

Perry is the first Englishmen to win the English title in 25 years. As he left the court the crowd rose in a thunderous ovation to him.

Cup That Cheers Not Deep Enough

(International News Service)

UNIONTOWN, Pa., July 6.—Fayette county's reported "short measure racket" in the dispensing of spiritous beverages has drawn the fire of sealer of weights and measures Malcolm Ferguson.

Thick-bottomed whiskey glasses and other such drink-cutting devices will be included in the crusade against 300 drink parlors.

Bar equipment will get Ferguson's closest scrutiny. Any short measure will result in prosecution, he said.

Last Year Good One For Trappers

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 6.—Pennsylvania's trappers earned a total of $583,827.70 from their raw furs taken during the 1932-33 season, the game commission estimated. The commission said prices generally were slightly higher over the previous year and from all indications will still continue to soar next year.

HOLD-UP VICTIM LEAVES HOSPITAL

HAS ANCIENT DEED

GROVE CITY, July 6.—A deed 127 years old is the cherished possession of William H. Northcote of near this city. It was drawn August 7, 1807, when Nathaniel Chapman of Clearmont county, Ohio, transferred 200 acres of land along the Little Sandy creek, Venango county, to Samuel Chapman of Greene county, Pa. The consideration was $160. The land was one-half of a survey settled by John Applegate.

A notation on the old deed showed a transfer to John J. Kilgore, in 1818. Mr. Northcoote secured the old deed from members of the Kilgore family.

ARIZONA HAS DOUBLE LETHAL GAS EXECUTION

Brothers Pay Death Penalty

First Lethal Gas Executions Take Place In Arizona This Morning

ROBBERY-MURDER CAUSE OF PENALTY

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

ARIZONA STATE PENITENTIARY, FLORENCE, Ariz., July 6.—In the first double lethal gas execution in the history of criminology, Manuel Herandez, 17, and his brother, Fred, 19, died within the space of a minute here today in expiation for the murder and $35 robbery of Charles Washburn, 65-year-old California gold prospector.

The Mexican youths were executed just as the sun rose over the bleak Arizona desert. A last minute confession by Manuel, in which he shouldered the full blame for the crime, failed to save his brother.

First Gas Execution

The execution also marked the first time that the Arizona lethal gas chamber, substituted at the last election for the gallows, had been put to use.

Despite the straps that bound their arms and chest to a double wooden chair, the boys managed to stretch until their fingers touched as they faced together.

The sack of 15 cyanide pellets was dropped into the bucket of sulphuric acid at 5:09 a. m., P. S. T. Although death seemed to the witnesses to come swiftly, Manuel was not declared officially dead until 5:11 a. m., and Fred, who struggled violently, at 5:12 a. m.

They had entered the death chamber at exactly 5 o'clock, both appearing resigned to their fate.

Both Blindfolded

After they were seated, the Rev. Fr. Patrick Murphy kneeled before them and led a prayer in the native Mexican tongue.

Manuel was strapped first. He asked not to be blindfolded, and talked incessantly with Fred, who broke down and cried to have his eyes covered. Blindfolds were placed over the eyes of both youths.

By the time the cyanide pellets were released, the two managed to be holding hands. Manuel died with his head slumped forward on his chest, but Fred's curly, black head was thrown back on the chair.

There was a momentary panic in the small witness chamber where 43 spectators watched the execution through glass windows when the odor of cyanide drifted out from the death chamber.

"Open those doors—it's unsafe in here—get out!" cried out a voice, and the steel doors leading to the stairway were opened and more than half the spectators fell or were pushed down the stairs.

Margiotti Cool On Proposition

(International News Service)

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., July 6.—Charles J. Margiotti, Punxsutawney and Pittsburgh attorney, voiced little enthusiasm here today over the reported move on the part of an "All-American" party to get him to run for governor on its ticket in the fall election.

Re-emption papers were taken out at Harrisburg by the party which proposes to name candidates for state wide offices and for U. S. senator in the general election.

"I have made no alliances nor affiliations of any kind, directly or indirectly, nor have I authorized anyone to do so for me," Margiotti said. "I will make a clear statement of my attitude when the proper time comes."

Florist Suicides At Philadelphia

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 6—Recent loss of his position and the haunting fear of an incurable disease, Thursday caused Jacob Ehret, 65, a florist, to commit suicide by firing a rifle bullet into his head, police reported.

Ehret was discovered shortly afterward by his daughter-in-law Mrs. Margaret Ehret, who found him sprawled on the floor, the rifle clutched tightly in his hand.

VICTIM OF VICIOUS DOG IS IMPROVING

Mrs. Florence Trognitz, who was severely bitten about the arms by a police dog at the home of Ivor Richards, of Laurel Boulevard, on Tuesday evening, is somewhat improved today it was stated at the Jameson Memorial hospital. Mrs. Trognitz had a fairly good night the report stated.

Today

Bootleg Fireworks.
Von Papen Stays And Goes.
And Up Speaks Mr. Borah.
Man? Yes. Clothes? No.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

JULY FOURTH has come and gone, and big New York, with ten millions in the city and on the fringes, counts the cost.

"Bootleg" fireworks cost injuries to 2,400, most of them children. This was almost double the casualty list of last year. But there were no falalities from explosives. Two were drowned, which was below the usual holiday figure. And there was but one fatality in the small list of automobile accidents.

More might come later with thousands of cars driving home at night from every direction. Amazing when you look at the hundreds of miles of roads covered with cars, that there are not thousands of deadly accidents. Their absence is a great tribute to engineering skill, perfect mechanism, reliable brakes, and, on the whole, considerable caution and sobriety among citizens.

GERMAN NEWS is mild also. Nobody shot since Wednesday. Chancellor Hitler returns by airplane from his visit to President von Hindenburg, and it is announced that Papen, only Wednesday interviewed by Universal Service, trembling in his house surrounded by guards will 'remain in the cabinet."

That is a concession to President von Hindenburg, who admires von Papen, values his friendship. It is a concession also to the outraged feelings of German Catholics, their leader dead and their priests referred to by the Governor of Upper Silesia as "sensitive old men," warned that "their place is in the church, not in politics," and told that if they criticized "the leader," Hitler, they would be shot. Von Papen is a Catholic.

THE NEWS that von Papen will remain in the cabinet is followed by the news that he will now take a prolonged vacation, which his health calls for. That is considered a "face-saving" concession to Hitler. The recent Nazi explosion dated from van Papen's criticism of the Hitler regime.

On the surface, Germany is quiet at the moment. What lies beneath the surface remains to be seen.

HERE IN THE United States we have in the able, burly and plain-spoken Senator Borah a von Papen of our own, rising to talk about the "new era," as von Papen did about new Hitler-Germany.

The new democracy, born of the fires of depression, and full of pep, has said "Now we'll sing a new song." Senator Borah remarks:

"Not without interruption from me."

The direct Senator from Idaho, only man in the Senate, with three exceptions, possessing power, personality and energy, speaking on the Fourth of July, the nation's birthday, and does NOT throw his cap in the air and give three cheers for everything new. In fact, he calls democracy's new era "that meddlesome, irritating, confus, destructive thing called bureaucracy."

He also refers to the new era as a "form of government that steals away man's rights and taxes him to death."

SENATOR BORAH appears not to have heard that the Republican party is dead, buried, and expected to stay buried. He individually, at least, comes to life again. He might read what happened among certain Indians of South America when a religious organization, with the best of intentions, decided to take complete charge of them, regulating everything in their lives, from birth to death, and scheduling every hour of each day. Those Indians saved the well-meaning religious gentlemen considerable trouble, refusing to have children, and they died out.

"HARK! FROM the tomb of a doleful sound," of another kind. As Republicanism speaks out through Senator Borah for the first time since the big depression, so the Ku Klux Klan, for the first time in five years, asserts itself as Bridgeton, N. J., "Rally round" to protect the farmer.

In this case, the Ku Klux enemy is not the Catholic, the Jew, or the colored brother, but the white-faced Communist, of dark, dangerous Russia Bolshevist tendencies who has been worrying New Jersey truck farmers, preaching sedition to hoi polloi on kneeling to pick tomatoes, or bending low over long, tangled rows of green pea vines.

The Klu Klux suspect that Communism would like to divide up tomatoes and pea vines, farms and other things, also that they might resort to violence. The klan, if necessary, will head that off by showing "Red Russians" what violence really is.

THE SHOOTING of fifty or more men, and the success or failure of Hitler to keep his hold on power, according to those who believe with Pope and the ancient Greeks that the proper study of mankind is man, are less important than one feature of the German killings.

You find tucked away in an obscure corner of the news that members of Hitler's Storm Troops, lined up to be shot, were compelled first to take off their uniforms. They were shot presumably, in shirt and underwear, which must have been humiliating, because it was unthinkable that "good" German soldiers engaged in shooting "bad" German soldiers should shoot at the glorious Nazi uniform.

To put a volley of bullets into a thing made in the image of its Creator means little but to put bullets through a swastika emblem embroidered on a Nazi uniform would be too iconoclastic.

If Carlyle were here he would add paragraphs about that to his book on clothes and their power, "Sartor Resartus," a book that any young man should read, by the way, if he has not already done so.

Stewart Invites His Readers To Submit Their Own Replies To President's Questionnaire

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Certain questions asked by President Roosevelt, in the course of his last radio broadcast, before his departure on his Caribbean-Hawaiian cruise, have been seized on with avidity by Chairman Daniel O. Hastings of the Republican congressional committee, for use by G. O. P. candidates as ammunition against their Democratic rivals, between now and election day next November.

Recognition of President Roosevelt's oft-demonstrated cleverness as a politician makes one hesitate to surmise with any great degree of confidence, that he expressed himself injudiciously in his latest radio talk.

Maybe he had duly considered all he said, and maybe none of it will turn out to have the boomerang effect that Senator Hastings thinks it will.

Nevertheless it is rather difficult to believe that some of the queries he put will not be answered by a substantial number of voters in a fashion the party in power will have trouble in interpreting as flattering to its record.

• • •

The presidential questionnaire in part was as follows:

(1.) Are you better off than you were last year?

(2.) Are your debts less burdensome?

3.) Is your bank account more secure?

(4.) Are your working conditions better?

(5.) Is your faith in your own individual future more firmly grounded?

• • •

My personal answer to interrogation No. 1 is, "No; I'm worse off. My income hasn't increased, but the cost of living has risen somewhat. In effect, I have suffered a reduction, therefore."

I can understand that an individual who was out of a job, and who now has one, will reply that he is better off.

But, after all, those who have had jobs, even through the depression, are in a majority, and practically without exception, they are worse off, for there have been almost no pay increases, and last year's pay does not go quite as far today as in 1933.

My answer to interrogation No. 2 is, "I haven't any debts except current bills, and they are more, not less burdensome, because a trifle larger."

I can't imagine anyone's debts as being more than temporarily less burdensome unless they are scaled down, by inflation or some other means, and, if so, the relief will be at the creditor's expense.

My answer to interrogation No. 3 is that I happened to have my wee account in a solvent bank, where it's as secure now as it was previously; no more so. But it's smaller, having been depleted by living's rising cost, with no income increase. My guess would be that folk with money in still closed-up banks would say that their accounts are decidedly too securely frozen to suit them.

My answer to interrogation No. 4 is that my working conditions are precisely what they were before. I don't complain of them, but they're unaltered. I'm aware that, in many industries, there have been reductions in working hours, but pay reductions have accompanied them in most cases.

My answer to interrogation No. 5 is that my individual future seems to me exceedingly dubious—dependent on luck and chance; not on any contingencies that I can estimate the trend of.

• • •

Finally President Roosevelt asked the question:

"Have you as an individual paid too high a price for these gains?"

Senator Hastings' response to this interrogation is that we haven't paid the price yet.

Mine is that I'd like to see the gains before answering.

To date, whether or not others have seen them, I haven't, so far as I personally am concerned.

Ordinarily I don't solicit correspondence, not having the secretarial equipment to handle it, but I really would like to know what readers think of the conclusion implied in President Roosevelt's sixth query—that "yes" ought to be the answer to each of his five preceding queries. From such responses as I get I propose to concoct another, composite story, embodying not my views, but those of my kindly contributors. But I do wish they'd mentoin whether or not they're on the government's payroll. They shouldn't take it for granted that I'm partisanly biased, either; there isn't a voter in America who was more enthusiastically in favor of a change from Hooverism than I was.

Army Polo Star To Be Dismissed

Records Of Court Martial Are Being Forwarded To Washington Today

(International News Service)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. July 6—The record in the court martial of Capt. H. L. Coulter, widely known polo star, and the verdict dismissing him from the army for conduct unbecoming a gentleman and an officer was to be forwarded to Washington authorities today.

Four of the six counts on which Capt. Coulter was tried charged him with being intimate with Mrs. Alice T. Morgan, wealthy San Antonio divorcee.

The case came to an abrupt end yesterday and the verdict was announced, contrary to the usual custom in such trials. The hearings were held secretly with the public and newspapermen barred.

Capt. Coulter, his wife and Mrs. Morgan all declined to make statements. Both women testified for the defense and appeared together at the hearing.

Woman Orders RWD Workers Off Property

Work on the west end of the Oak Park Road was stopped abruptly on Thursday afternoon when RWD workers claim that Mrs. Jennie Delmey came out with a gun and ordered them off. The men compromised and left.

The road goes through a piece of Mrs. Delmey's praperty it is said but viewers cannot be appointed to assess damages until after the road is completed.

Counter Suit Ordered Filed

Longcope Divorce Fight Steams Up On California Front Today

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6.—The Longcope divorce fight, operating on two fronts, began to get up steam today with a counter-attack by J. Walter Longcope and new charges by his wife, the former Mrs. Jesse Livermore.

Over the long distance telephone from New York Longcope, who used to be a prohibition agent in the days before repeal, instructed his California attorney to file counter suit for divorce in the Santa Barbara court.

In the same court his wife, to support her own suit and her naming of Miss Lassie Honeyman, New York society girl, claimed that her husband had forced the action by telling her he was engaged to Miss Honeyman.

Mrs. Longcope also had a lot to say about "boisterous" parties in her Santa Barbara home.

In instructing his attorney, J. C. Davis, to file the counter-suit, Longcope told him to use affidavits on file in his, Davis' office. The affidavits, Longcope said, were made recently by residents of Santa Barbara.

Police Fines Total $993.00

Police Of City Make 303 Arrests During June Month

Fines and forfeits levied and collected during June totalled $993, according to Mayor Mayne's report delivered when city council met in city hall today. Other fees collected by the department of public affairs raised the amount to $1,067.15.

Three hundred and three arrests were made of which 111 were for violating the parking ordinance. Thirteen violated traffic regulations and one arrest was made for speeding.

Seventy persons were jailed on a charge of drunkenness; 11 others on the double charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Six houses alleged to have been "disorderly" were raided and 32 visitors arrested during the month and 22 persons listed as "suspicious characters" and six street fighters were also taken into tow.

The mayor in police court collected 167 fines and only 15 were sent to jail to be boarded at the expense of the city. One hundred and eight were discharged and disposition of the others was made in various ways.

Shaken Up In East Brook Crash

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams of Plain Grove and Audrey Walton, East Brook, were shaken up in an auto accident near the McKee & Warnock garage, East Brook, about 10 a. m. today. Walton was operating a truck into the garage and did not see the car containing Mr. and Mrs. Adams which was going toward New Castle, and a collision occurred.

FUNERAL SERVICE

GROVE CITY, July 6.—Funeral services for Matthew C. Montgomery, 85-year-old Worth township farmer who lay in his barn all thru the night of June 26 after a 12-foot fall had fractured his hip, were held today from the Centertown M. E. church. The aged man died at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the city hospital here, where he had a patient since the accident.

For many years Mr. Montgomery lived alone on his farm where he was born, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Montgomery, pioneer Mercer county settlers. He made a fight for life that amazed physicians and for a time it was thought he might recover. Until the accident, he had attended to his farm duties without assistance.

BIG CONVENTION COMING

GROVE CITY, July 6.—The bringing to Grove City next June of the largest missionary body of women in America in the General Missionary society of the United Presbyterian Church of America will be a spectacular event held in the First U. P. church.

The society comes on the invitation of local delegates that attended the Steubenville convention of 1934 just held.

Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Certain questions asked by President Roosevelt, in the course of his last radio broadcast, before his departure on his Caribbean-Hawaiian cruise, have been seized on with avidity by Chairman Daniel O. Hastings of the Republican congressional committee, for use by G. O. P. candidates as ammunition against their Democratic rivals, between now and election day next November.

Recognition of President Roosevelt's oft-demonstrated cleverness as a politician makes one hesitate to surmise with any great degree of confidence, that he expressed himself injudiciously in his latest radio talk.

Maybe he had duly considered all he said, and maybe none of it will turn out to have the boomerang effect that Senator Hastings thinks it will.

Nevertheless it is rather difficult to believe that some of the queries he put will not be answered by a substantial number of voters in a fashion the party in power will have trouble in interpreting as flattering to its record.

* * *

The presidential questionnaire in part was as follows:

(1.) Are you better off than you were last year?

(2.) Are your debts less burdensome?

3.) Is your bank account more secure?

(4.) Are your working conditions better?

(5.) Is your faith in your own individual future more firmly grounded?

* * *

My personal answer to interrogation No. 1 is, "No; I'm worse off. My income hasn't increased, but the cost of living has risen somewhat. In effect, I have suffered a reduction, therefore."

I can understand that an individual who was out of a job, and who now has one, will reply that he is better off.

My answer to interrogation No. 5 is that my individual future seems to me exceedingly dubious—dependent on luck and chance; not on any contingencies that I can estimate the trend of.

Finally President Roosevelt asked the question:

"Have you as an individual paid too high a price for these gains?"

Senator Hastings' response to this interrogation is that we haven't paid the price yet.

From such responses as I get I propose to concoct another, composite story, embodying not my views, but those of my kindly contributors. But I do wish they'd mentoin whether or not they're on the government's payroll. They shouldn't take it for granted that I'm partisanly biased, either; there isn't a voter in America who was more enthusiastically in favor of a change from Hooverism than I was.

Army Polo Star To Be Dismissed

Records Of Court Martial Are Being Forwarded To Washington Today

(International News Service)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. July 6—The record in the court martial of Capt. H. L. Coulter, widely known polo star, and the verdict dismissing him from the army for conduct unbecoming a gentleman and an officer was to be forwarded to Washington authorities today.

Four of the six counts on which Capt. Coulter was tried charged him with being intimate with Mrs. Alice T. Morgan, wealthy San Antonio divorcee.

The case came to an abrupt end yesterday and the verdict was announced, contrary to the usual custom in such trials. The hearings were held secretly with the public and newspapermen barred.

Capt. Coulter, his wife and Mrs. Morgan all declined to make statements. Both women testified for the defense and appeared together at the hearing.

Woman Orders RWD Workers Off Property

Work on the west end of the Oak Park Road was stopped abruptly on Thursday afternoon when RWD workers claim that Mrs. Jennie Delmey came out with a gun and ordered them off. The men compromised and left.

The road goes through a piece of Mrs. Delmey's praperty it is said but viewers cannot be appointed to assess damages until after the road is completed.

Counter Suit Ordered Filed

Longcope Divorce Fight Steams Up On California Front Today

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6.—The Longcope divorce fight, operating on two fronts, began to get up steam today with a counter-attack by J. Walter Longcope and new charges by his wife, the former Mrs. Jesse Livermore.

Over the long distance telephone from New York Longcope, who used to be a prohibition agent in the days before repeal, instructed his California attorney to file counter suit for divorce in the Santa Barbara court.

In the same court his wife, to support her own suit and her naming of Miss Lassie Honeyman, New York society girl, claimed that her husband had forced the action by telling her he was engaged to Miss Honeyman.

Mrs. Longcope also had a lot to say about "boisterous" parties in her Santa Barbara home.

In instructing his attorney, J. C. Davis, to file the counter-suit, Longcope told him to use affidavits on file in his, Davis' office. The affidavits, Longcope said, were made recently by residents of Santa Barbara.

Police Fines Total $993.00

Police Of City Make 303 Arrests During June Month

Fines and forfeits levied and collected during June totalled $993, according to Mayor Mayne's report delivered when city council met in city hall today. Other fees collected by the department of public affairs raised the amount to $1,067.15.

Three hundred and three arrests were made of which 111 were for violating the parking ordinance. Thirteen violated traffic regulations and one arrest was made for speeding.

Seventy persons were jailed on a charge of drunkenness, 11 others on the double charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Six houses alleged to have been "disorderly" were raided and 32 visitors arrested during the month and 22 persons listed as "suspicious characters" and six street fighters were also taken into tow.

The mayor in police court collected 167 fines and only 15 were sent to jail to be boarded at the expense of the city. One hundred and eight were discharged and disposition of the others was made in various ways.

Shaken Up In East Brook Crash

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams of Plain Grove and Audrey Walton, East Brook, were shaken up in an auto accident near the McKee & Warnock garage, East Brook, about 10 a. m. today. Walton was operating a truck into the garage and did not see the car containing Mr. and Mrs. Adams which was going toward New Castle, and a collision occurred.

FUNERAL SERVICE

GROVE CITY, July 6.—Funeral services for Matthew C. Montgomery, 85-year-old Worth township farmer who lay in his barn all thru the night of June 26 after a 12-foot fall had fractured his hip, were held today from the Centertown M. E. church. The aged man died at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the city hospital here, where he had a patient since the accident.

For many years Mr. Montgomery lived alone on his farm where he was born, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Montgomery, pioneer Mercer county settlers. He made a fight for life that amazed physicians and for a time it was thought he might recover. Until the accident, he had attended to his farm duties without assistance.

BIG CONVENTION COMING

GROVE CITY, July 6.—The bringing to Grove City next June of the largest missionary body of women in America in the General Missionary society of the United Presbyterian Church of America will be a spectacular event held in the First U. P. church.

The society comes on the invitation of local delegates that attended the Steubenville convention of 1934 just held.

Stock Control Board Sets Up New Safeguards

Seek To Prevent Any Possible Infringement On Rules And Regulations

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—President Roosevelt's new exchange regulatory commission today laid down safeguards against any possible infringement of the commission's own rules and regulations by those in its employ.

No employe of the commission, it was announced, "shall participate directly or indirectly" in stock market speculation. To effect compliance with this order, employes will be forbidden from purchasing stocks or margin. In addition, every employe must report every transaction in which he engages, within 48 hours after consummation of the transaction.

Chairman Joseph P. Kennedy explained that there was no desire or intention to restrict commission employes in legitimate investments, and that investments of this character may be freely made. However, these investments come within the scope of the 48-hour reporting period.

Kennedy was to leave today for Cape Code to spend the week-end with his family and to study a mass of data already submitted to him. Ferdinand Pecora, a member of the commission, was expected to arrive here Monday with his family and take up his residence in Washington.

Declares Mencken Is All Wrong In Education Attack

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Henry H. L. Mencken, the "bad boy" of Baltimore, doesn't know what he's talking about when he attacks American educational methods, according to one speaker before the National Education Association in convention here.

"Mencken either distorts the facts or is misinformed when he attacks the National Education Association and the American public school system, insisting the child loses his self-respect in the schoolroom . . .", declared Lambert Greenawalt, director of curriculum, York, Penn.

Theatre Mashers Are Given Fines

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Theatre "mashers" with tendencies for making passes at unescorted women patrons today ran afoul of a "double-team" opposition from the law.

Five men who admitted they took "undue liberties" with two women in a downtown theatre were fined $10 each in morals court.

The ungrateful objects of their attentions, the mashers learned, were policewomen. Detailed to sit in the theatre "in line of duty," the policewomen turned the men over to a city detective stationed in the movie-house lobby.

NO DEBT DEFAULT

(International News Service)

JOHANNESBURG—While Britain has suspended war debt payments to the United States, the Union of South Africa continues to pay the mother country, it was officially stated here. The regular half-yearly interests of $894,250 was handed over on June 1 and an equal sum will be paid Dec. 1.

Liner Mauretania May Be Scrapped

Liner Reaches New York On What May Be Last Westward Trip Today

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6.—As majestic looking as ever, the Cunard Liner Mauretania, gleaming white and nearly as fleet as the day she was launched cruised into New York harbor today on what is expected to be her last westbound passage.

The Mauretania, holder of the North Atlantic record for twenty years until the Bremen came along, has five cruises in the West Indies on her summer schedule.

After that the famous veteran of the seas, now in her 28th year, may be scrapped, if advices from England are correct.

Warns Against Voting Machines

Philadelphia County Commissioners Urged To Take Precautions

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 6.—Secretary of the Commonwealth, Richard J. Beamish, today wrote Philadelphia county commissioners urging them to take precautionary steps in receiving 500 shoup voting machines recently contracted for so they could avoid "the miserable mess" made by Allegheny county in similar circumstances.

Beamish, in his letter to the commissioners, pointed out he gave similar warning to the Allegheny commissioners when they purchased 1,100 Shoup machines some time ago, adding that they had disregarded his advice.

Former Student Held As Forger

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6—Charged with forging a $5 money order, John Komles, 20 former Duquesne University student was brought here from his home at Brookfield, O. today for arraignment before a United States commissioner.

Kombles is accused of having taken a money order sent to a fellow student on Dec. 29, 1933 and forging it.

SPIDER CAUSED DEATH

(International News Service)

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah—The death of William Russell, foreman of a mine at Tooele, Utah, is believed by Utah physicians to have been caused by the bite of a "black widow," most venomous spider on the North American continent. Blood poisoning set in after Russell was bitten. He died in a Salt Lake City hospital ten days later.

Home Owners Given Billion

HOLC Has Distributed Huge Sum In Mortgage Relief In Past Year

MANY LOANS ARE GRANTED IN WEEK

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—In existence slightly more than a year, HOLC has disbursed more than $1,000,000,000 in federal mortgage relief to distressed urban home owners, Chairman John H. Fahey said today.

During the past week 17,510 loans, amounting to $51,911,690, were closed, bringing the total of mortgage refunding and other advances of the corporation to date to $1,027,991,565, distributed among 341,162 individual homes throughout the country. The average loan is $3,013.

More than 99 per cent of these transactions were effected by exchange of the fully guaranteed bonds of the corporation for past-due mortgages, the balance representing cash loans to take up arrears of taxes and for reconditioning.

During the week 22,277 applications for loans were received. To date 1,510,750 applications, amounting to $4,856,269,830, have been filed. A large proportion of these are ineligible, largely because many of the applicants are not in genuine distress, and such applications will be rejected as rapidly as investigation discloses the facts.

School Officials Discuss Budget In Harrisburg

Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green, and Director Roy W. Hazen are in Harrisburg today conferring with State Superintendent J. N. Rule concerning the school budget for 1934-35.

The budget was built here with the idea that a twenty per cent reduction would again obtain in teachers' salaries. This amount has been refused by the state department and an adjustment is being sought today by the two school authorities.

Beer Taxes Set New Record High

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 6—Beer tax receipts last month set a new high record since the legalization of 3.2 per cent brew, 13 months ago, the department of revenue announced today.

Receipts from the $1.24 a barrel beer tax totaled $678,894 an increase of $136,428, or 25 per cent over June, 1933, receipts. The previous high mark was in May 1933, when tax receipts amounted to $625,117.

For the 13 months since the tax became effective, receipts totaled $6,310,887.

SWIMMER DIES OF BROKEN NECK

(International News Service)

BUTLER, Pa., July 6.—His neck fractured from a plunge into shallow water of the Connoquennessing creek on July 4th, Clyde J. Harris, 26, negro of Hazelwood, near Pittsburgh, died in Memorial hospital here today.

Harris was injured when he leaped from a seven foot tree into three feet of water and struck a log.

MARRIED AND KILLED

(International News Service)

MISCOLC, Hungary — A volley, shot at the entrance of the church, according to an old Hungarian custom, caused the death of the bridegroom when he left the building with his bride after the wedding ceremony. The victim, Joseph Hornyak, 26-year-old landowner, was killed by the shot from the gun of the brother of the bride, Joseph Arnoczky. The coroner held Arnoczky not guilty.

GOERING, HITLER'S 'MAILED FIST', SEEN AS REAL RULER

From blood drenched Germany where the Nazi dictatorship sought to purge itself by a wholesale slaughter of party leaders and anti-Nazi monarchists, a new strong man has pushed himself to the fore—General Hermann Goering, Chancellor Hitler's conservative "mailed fist", who supervised the mass executions. Here are several pictures of Goering, top, as Prussian premier saluting Reichswehr troops while dressed in one of his favorite uniforms; left, a wedding guest along with the slain Captain Ernst Roehm (in rear), Nazi staff chief, at the marriage of Karl Ernst, executed Berlin troop leader (in front); right, another view of Goering.

Stock Control Board Sets Up New Safeguards

Seek To Prevent Any Possible Infringement On Rules And Regulations

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—President Roosevelt's new exchange regulatory commission today laid down safeguards against any possible infringement of the commission's own rules and regulations by those in its employ.

No employe of the commission, it was announced, "shall participate directly or indirectly" in stock market speculation. To effect compliance with this order, employes will be forbidden from purchasing stocks or margin. In addition, every employe must report every transaction in which he engages, within 48 hours after consummation of the transaction.

Chairman Joseph P. Kennedy explained that there was no desire or intention to restrict commission employes in legitimate investments, and that investments of this character may be freely made. However, these investments come within the scope of the 48-hour reporting period.

Kennedy was to leave today for Cape Code to spend the week-end with his family and to study a mass of data already submitted to him. Ferdinand Pecora, a member of the commission, was expected to arrive here Monday with his family and take up his residence in Washington.

Declares Mencken Is All Wrong In Education Attack

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Henry H. L. Mencken, the "bad boy" of Baltimore, doesn't know what he's talking about when he attacks American educational methods, according to one speaker before the National Education Association in convention here.

"Mencken either distorts the facts or is misinformed when he attacks the National Education Association and the American public school system, insisting the child loses his self-respect in the schoolroom . . .," declared Lambert Greenawalt, director of curriculum, York, Penn.

Theatre Mashers Are Given Fines

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Theatre "mashers" with tendencies for making passes at unescorted women patrons today ran afoul of a "double-team" opposition from the law.

Five men who admitted they took "undue liberties" with two women in a downtown theatre were fined $10 each in morals court.

The ungrateful objects of their attentions, the mashers learned, were policewomen. Detailed to sit in the theatre "in line of duty," the policewomen turned the men over to a city detective stationed in the movie-house lobby.

NO DEBT DEFAULT

(International News Service)

JOHANNESBURG—While Britain has suspended war debt payments to the United States, the Union of South Africa continues to pay the mother country, it was officially stated here. The regular half-yearly interests of $894,250 was handed over on June 1 and an equal sum will be paid Dec. 1.

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6.—James Austin Wilder, founder and chief scout of the Sea Scout branch of the Boy Scouts, was dead today in Honolulu, according to word received at the national headquarters of the Boy Scouts.

Lieutenant Commander Thomas J. Keane, U. S. N. R., director of the Sea Scout service, will succeed Wilder as head of the organization.

Liner Reaches New York On What May Be Last Westward Trip Today

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6.—As majestic looking as ever, the Cunard Liner Mauretania, gleaming white and nearly as fleet as the day she was launched cruised into New York harbor today on what is expected to be her last westbound passage.

The Mauretania, holder of the North Atlantic record for twenty years until the Bremen came along, has five cruises in the West Indies on her summer schedule.

After that the famous veteran of the seas, now in her 28th year, may be scrapped, if advices from England are correct.

Warns Against Voting Machines

Philadelphia County Commissioners Urged To Take Precautions

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 6.—Secretary of the Commonwealth, Richard J. Beamish, today wrote Philadelphia county commissioners urging them to take precautionary steps in receiving 500 shoup voting machines recently contracted for so they could avoid "the miserable mess" made by Allegheny county in similar circumstances.

Beamish, in his letter to the commissioners, pointed out he gave similar warning to the Allegheny commissioners when they purchased 1,100 Shoup machines some time ago, adding that they had disregarded his advice.

Former Student Held As Forger

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6—Charged with forging a $5 money order, John Komles, 20 former Duquesne University student was brought here from his home at Brookfield, O. today for arraignment before a United States commissioner.

Kombles is accused of having taken a money order sent to a fellow student on Dec. 29, 1933 and forging it.

SPIDER CAUSED DEATH

(International News Service)

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah—The death of William Russell, foreman of a mine at Tooele, Utah, is believed by Utah physicians to have been caused by the bite of a "black widow," most venomous spider on the North American continent. Blood poisoning set in after Russell was bitten. He died in a Salt Lake City hospital ten days later.

Home Owners Given Billion

MANY LOANS ARE GRANTED IN WEEK

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—In existence slightly more than a year, HOLC has disbursed more than $1,000,000,000 in federal mortgage relief to distressed urban home owners, Chairman John H. Fahey said today.

During the past week 17,510 loans, amounting to $51,911,690, were closed, bringing the total of mortgage refunding and other advances of the corporation to date to $1,027,991,565, distributed among 341,162 individual homes throughout the country. The average loan is $3,013.

More than 99 per cent of these transactions were effected by exchange of the fully guaranteed bonds of the corporation for past-due mortgages, the balance representing cash loans to take up arrears of taxes and for reconditioning.

During the week 22,277 applications for loans were received. To date 1,510,750 applications, amounting to $4,856,269,830, have been filed. A large proportion of these are ineligible, largely because many of the applicants are not in genuine distress, and such applications will be rejected as rapidly as investigation discloses the facts.

School Officials Discuss Budget In Harrisburg

Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green, and Director Roy W. Hazen are in Harrisburg today conferring with State Superintendent J. N. Rule concerning the school budget for 1934-35.

The budget was built here with the idea that a twenty per cent reduction would again obtain in teachers' salaries. This amount has been refused by the state department and an adjustment is being sought today by the two school authorities.

Beer Taxes Set New Record High

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 6—Beer tax receipts last month set a new high record since the legalization of 3.2 per cent brew, 13 months ago, the department of revenue announced today.

Receipts from the $1.24 a barrel beer tax totaled $676,894 an increase of $136,428, or 25 per cent over June, 1933, receipts. The previous high mark was in May 1933, when tax receipts amounted to $625,117.

For the 13 months since the tax became effective, receipts totaled $6,310,887.

MARRIED AND KILLED

(International News Service)

MISCOLC, Hungary — A volley, shot at the entrance of the church, according to an old Hungarian custom, caused the death of the bridegroom when he left the building with his bride after the wedding ceremony. The victim, Joseph Hornyak, 26-year-old landowner, was killed by the shot from the gun of the brother of the bride, Joseph Arnoczky. The coroner held Arnoczky not guilty.

GOERING, HITLER'S 'MAILED FIST', SEEN AS REAL RULER

From blood drenched Germany where the Nazi dictatorship sought to purge itself by a wholesale slaughter of party leaders and anti-Nazi monarchists, a new strong man has pushed himself to the fore—General Hermann Goering, Chancellor Hitler's conservative "mailed fist", who supervised the mass executions. Here are several pictures of Goering, top, as Prussian premier saluting Reichswehr troops while dressed in one of his favorite uniforms; left, a wedding guest along with the slain Captain Ernst Roehm (in rear), Nazi staff chief, at the marriage of Karl Ernst, executed Berlin troop leader (in front); right, another view of Goering.

Borah Seeking Special Session

Would Repeal Legislation Permitting Monopolies Under "New Deal"

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Senator William E. Borah (R) of Idaho, the "lone wolf" of politics, is enroute to the west today to arouse the nation for a special session of congress to repeal the legislation permitting monopolies under the "new deal".

Borah also departed for the Hinterland to direct public opinion against what he calls the vast bureaucracy created under the administration.

He hoped to create enough sentiment to force President Roosevelt to call a special session of congress this fall to remedy what the senator terms the "evils" of the recovery program.

Borah terms the monopolistic trend in business as the "worst in American history". He condemns bureaucracy in the present government as invading the liberties of individuals to a point where personal freedom is as much at stake now as it was in 1776.

The senator's recent speech, assailing the "new deal" has won him widespread approval. He received scores of telegrams all commending his stand for less interference with private initiative by the federal government.

His own program is to repeal all features of the recovery program, which reduces personal liberties. He would repeal the section of the NIRA act which suppresses the anti-trust laws, and repeal the AAA law which limits agricultural production. He would reduce the cost of government by eliminating a host of special commissions and boards.

Spurned Suitor Wounds Woman Then Suicides

(International News Service)

READING, Pa., July 6.—Mrs. Bernard Grossberg, 22-year-old mother of a 2-weeks-old infant, today lay at the brink of death, victim of bullets fired according to police by Edwin L. Arnold, her spurned suitor, who shortly afterward shot and killed himself.

Mrs. Grossberg, the wife of a Brooklyn shoe store manager, had come to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas here yesterday.

Arnold stopped at the house and after conversing with her family, shot Mrs. Grossberg four times, and sent a bullet crashing through his head, police said.

The young woman's parents said Arnold had repeatedly threatened that if "I can't have her, no one else will."

Doom California Woman To Hang

LOS ANGELES, July 6.—For the second time in the history of the state of California, a woman, Mrs. Nellie Madison, was sentenced to hang for murder.

Mrs. Madison's calm was unshaken when Superior Judge Charles W. Fricke denied pleas for a new trial or imposition of a lighter penalty, and sentenced her to hang September 24 at San Quentin prison for the fatal shooting of her husband, Eric B. Madison, movie studio employe.

"There were no mitigating circumstances," Judge Fricke stated in imposing sentence.

The first woman sentenced to hang escaped the noose when the penalty was changed to life imprisonment.

June Marked By Excessive Heat

Records Show Temperature Was Five Degrees Above Normal Daily

An excess of temperature and deficiency of rainfall was noted during the month of June, according to the records of B. F. Johnson, U. S. Weather Observer here. The daily excess was 5.1 degrees daily, while there was a deficiency of .88 inches in precipitation.

The average maximum temperature was 86.2 degrees, and the average minimum, 59.7 degrees, the mean for the month being 73.9 degrees.

The highest temperature was 98 degrees which was noted on June 5 and 30, and the lowest was 45 degrees on June 15. The greatest daily range was 40 degrees on June 7.

There was 3.43 inches of rainfall, a great increase over May, but the normal for June is 4.31 inches, the records show. The greatest precipitation in 24 hours was 1.26 inches on June 23. Days with .01 or more inches of precipitation were 8; days clear, 18; days partly cloudy, 11; and days cloudy, but one.

President Drops Darrow's Board

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The White House has made public an executive order by President Roosevelt abolishing the National Recovery Review board, headed by Clarence Darrow. The order was effective July 1.

The president's executive order said that "the board has made three reports to the president in the exercise of its duties and functions and has substantially completed the work for which it was established" and that because "the chairman and two others members of the board have resigned and reports would not be representative of the board as originally constituted."

He called upon the remaining members to take steps to discontinue the board.

Fair Can't Show Nudist Couple

CHICAGO, July 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wallace—they went through a marriage ceremony in the nude last week at a Century of Progress concession—will have no encores at the fair.

Director of Concessions Nat Owings issued an order today restraining the management of the show place where the nudist nuptials were performed with sound and camera effects from hiring the couple for exhibition purposes. In reply to a request for such permission, the official stated:

"Under no circumstances, with or without covering, will you permit that couple to appear at your show."

Everyone is invited to attend this meeting.

POULTRY DEMONSTATION

The caponizing of poultry will be demonstrated by H. H. Kauffman, from State College at a meeting on the farm of William Gardner, near Plain Grove, on Wednesday July 11 at 1 o'clock.

Other poultry problems will also be discussed at this time. Poultrymen are invited to attend the demonstration.

WOOL POOL REGULATIONS

Lawrence County Wool growers who are selling their wool through the County Wool Growers Association will pool and ship this year's clip Tuesday and Wednesday, July 10th and 11th.

Wool growers from Beaver County and North Beaver Township will deliver their wools Tuesday at the Association Warehause on Moravia St. New Castle. All other sections of the County will deliver their wools on Wednesday.

The association will load wool in Butler on Monday, July 9th for Butler County growers.

The wools have been sold to Horkheimer Bros. of Wheeling, W. Va., and will be shipped out immediately.

REWORK OLD BERRY BED FOR NEXT YEAR'S CROP

Many of the newly set strawberry beds do not possess satisfactory stands of plants as a result of unfavorable weather conditions.

Where growers are faced with this problem the most practical solution will be found in reworking the planting that has just produced its first crop of berries. This task can be accomplished in several ways. The following method is suggested as the most economical in preparing for a good crop next year.

As soon as the present crop is harvested the tops should be mowed and removed from the patch. Then a 4-10-4 fertilizer should be broadcast at the rate of 350 to 400 pounds an acre. A spring tooth-harrow or even a smoothering harrow should be used to rip up the rows. In completing this operation 1 or 2 trips in the same direction over each row will be necessary. A large number of plans will be pulled out and the ground worked up between the plants by the harrow. When a sufficient number of plants have been removed by the harrow, the cultivator then can be called into service to harrow the rows down to 10 to 14 inches.

Use of the treatment described should put the planting in condition to produce a crop of strawberries equal to the one set the preceding spring.

FLEA BEETLES ATTACK SEVERE ON MANY CROPS

Flea beetles, more numerous than usual in many gardens and fields are taking toll from the crops upon which they feed.

Pale striped beetles, which are unusually abundant, this year, are attacking potatoes, corn, cabbage and beans. Reports indicate that they are causing serious damage. Common potato flea beetles and several of the larger flea beetles also are abundant.

A field spray using 3 pounds of calcium arsenate in 100 gallons of either bordeaux mixture or water is recommended. In gardens a thoroughly mixed dust comosed of 1 pound of calcium arsenate and 9 pounds of hydrated lime can be used. Flea beetles should be stopped now to prevent second brood injury within the next few weeks.

GIVE TOMATOES PLENTY OF ROOM OR STAKE THEM

It is a common practice for home gardeners to plant tomoto plants too closely. If they are to grow naturally they should be spaced 4 by 4 feet under fertile garden conditions. Cultivate the plants until small fruits are set and the plants begin to spread: then mulch with straw or other material between the rows and the plants in the row. This mulch provides a clean, soft bed for the plants to rest upon and ripen the fruit. It also conserves moisture and eliminates cultivations.

Where the garden area is limited the plants may be placed two feet apart in rows three feet apart and later staked. More tomatoes can be grown on a small area by staking the plants, but more plants are needed with this arrangement.

In staking and pruning tomatoes a stake is driven into the soil about six inches from the plant, and should extend about five feet above ground. The plants are pruned to a single or double stem and tied to the stakes. Pruning begins when the first cluster is in blossom. All small side branches that appear in axils of the leaves are removed in pruning to a single stem. For two leaders or stems the branch immediately below the first blossom cluster is allowed to remain. All later side branches are removed and the leader or leaders tied to the stake. Four or five tryings are necessary.

INSPECTORS CHECK ON SUMMER CAMPS

HARRISBURG, July 6.—The regular camps located in the northeastern section of Pennsylvania, with a summer juvenile population of approximately 20,000, are now being checked by representatives of the State Health Department.

This work involves a check-up on the phiysical condition of the kitchen personnel and the sanitary facilities for cleansing eating and drinking utensils. Water and milk supplies and the sanitary disposal of sewage also are undergoing annual inspection by departmental engineers.

Hundreds of camps located in other sections of the Commonwealth are being surveyed by the department's full-time health officers and members of the restaurant hygiene division.

Convention To Open Tonight

Ball At Cascade Park Is Opening Event In Sons Of Italy Event

MANY DELEGATES EXPECTED TO ATTEND

A ball tonight at 8:30 o'clock, in the beautiful Rainbow Terrace pavilion, Cascade Park, in honor of the Pennsylvania State Grand Council, Sons of Italy, will mark the opening of the three day Sons of Italy convention here. Dr. Warren V. Massaro, general chairman in charge, announced this morning that everything is in readiness for the confab.

Cascade Park pavilion is expected to be crowded with several hundreds out of town guests. A popular orchestra will furnish music for the occasion.

Nick George is chairman in charge of the ball this evening. The remainder of the committee for the event tonight includes; Miss Catherine Miscamari, assistant chairman; Miss Ellen DeMatteo, Miss Dora Greco, Frank Porfilio, Rodger Pezone, John Armando, Mrs. Rose Baptiste, Mrs. Carm Sacco, Mrs. Anthony Ippolito, Mrs. Theresa Bombino, Mrs. Rose Cumo, Fred DiDomenico, Carmen Sfredo.

Early this afternoon officials and delegates from numerous cities arrived here for the convention. The visitors will be stationed at The Castleton, where sessions are scheduled for Saturday and early Monday morning.

CLEAR STORM DEBRIS

GROVE CITY, July 6.—Boro workmen are still busy repairing damage to electric and sewer lines and clearing away debris caused by a "twister" whose force was spent in this place late Tuesday afternoon. Trees were uprooted, blocking five streets completely, and electric linemen have several day's work ahead of them in repairing damage. Many sewers were clogged with debris.

The most unusual incident of the storm occurred when Clayton Walters, 12, was severely cut by glass when he took refuge in the Black garage. A motorcycle standing in front of the garage was blown thru the display windows, showering the boy with glass.

Borah Seeking Special Session

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Senator William E. Borah (R) of Idaho, the "lone wolf" of politics, is enroute to the west today to arouse the nation for a special session of congress to repeal the legislation permitting monopolies under the "new deal".

Borah also departed for the Hinterland to direct public opinion against what he calls the vast bureaucracy created under the administration.

He hoped to create enough sentiment to force President Roosevelt to call a special session of congress this fall to remedy what the senator terms the "evils" of the recovery program.

Borah terms the monopolistic trend in business as the "worst in American history". He condemns bureaucracy in the present government as invading the liberties of individuals to a point where personal freedom is as much at stake now as it was in 1776.

The senator's recent speech, assailing the "new deal" has won him widespread approval. He received scores of telegrams all commending his stand for less interference with private initiative by the federal government.

His own program is to repeal all features of the recovery program, which reduces personal liberties. He would repeal the section of the NIRA act which suppresses the anti-trust laws, and repeal the AAA law which limits agricultural production. He would reduce the cost of government by eliminating a host of special commissions and boards.

Spurned Suitor Wounds Woman Then Suicides

(International News Service)

READING, Pa., July 6.—Mrs. Bernard Grossberg, 22-year-old mother of a 2-weeks-old infant, today lay at the brink of death, victim of bullets fired according to police by Edwin L. Arnold, her spurned suitor, who shortly afterward shot and killed himself.

Mrs. Grossberg, the wife of a Brooklyn shoe store manager, had come to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas here yesterday.

Arnold stopped at the house and after conversing with her family, shot Mrs. Grossberg four times, and sent a bullet crashing through his head, police said.

The young woman's parents said Arnold had repeatedly threatened that if "I can't have her, no one else will."

Doom California Woman To Hang

LOS ANGELES, July 6.—For the second time in the history of the state of California, a woman, Mrs. Nellie Madison, was sentenced to hang for murder.

Mrs. Madison's calm was unshaken when Superior Judge Charles W. Fricke denied pleas for a new trial or imposition of a lighter penalty, and sentenced her to hang September 24 at San Quentin prison for the fatal shooting of her husband, Erie B. Madison, movie studio employe.

"There were no mitigating circumstances," Judge Fricke stated in imposing sentence.

The first woman sentenced to hang escaped the noose when the penalty was changed to life imprisonment.

Records Show Temperature Was Five Degrees Above Normal Daily

An excess of temperature and deficiency of rainfall was noted during the month of June, according to the records of B. F. Johnson, U. S. Weather Observer here. The daily excess was 5.1 degrees daily, while there was a deficiency of .88 inches in precipitation.

The average maximum temperature was 88.2 degrees, and the average minimum, 59.7 degrees, the mean for the month being 73.9 degrees.

The highest temperature was 98 degrees which was noted on June 5 and 30, and the lowest was 45 degrees on June 15. The greatest daily range was 40 degrees on June 7.

There was 3.43 inches of rainfall, a great increase over May, but the normal for June is 4.31 inches, the records show. The greatest precipitation in 24 hours was 1.26 inches on June 23. Days with .01 or more inches of precipitation were 8; days clear, 18; days partly cloudy, 11; and days cloudy, but one.

President Drops Darrow's Board

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The White House has made public an executive order by President Roosevelt abolishing the National Recovery Review board, headed by Clarence Darrow. The order was effective July 1.

The president's executive order said that "the board has made three reports to the president in the exercise of its duties and functions and has substantially completed the work for which it was established" and that because "the chairman and two others members of the board have resigned and reports would not be representative of the board as originally constituted."

He called upon the remaining members to take steps to discontinue the board.

Fair Can't Show Nudist Couple

CHICAGO, July 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wallace—they went through a marriage ceremony in the nude last week at a Century of Progress concession—will have no encores at the fair.

Director of Concessions Nat Owings issued an order today restraining the management of the show place where the nudist nuptials were performed with sound and camera effects from hiring the couple for exhibition purposes. In reply to a request for such permission, the official stated:

"Under no circumstances, with or without covering, will you permit that couple to appear at your show."

Lawrence County Farms And Farmers

By H. R. McCulloch, County Agent

GARDEN DEMONSTRATION MEETING

W. B. Nissley, vegetable gardening specialist from State College will discuss the Home Garden at a meeting on the farm of H. M. Neal and Son near Fayette, Wilmington Township, Monday evening, July 9 at 7 o'clock.

The discussion will include types and varieties of vegetables, cultural practices and insect control.

Everyone is invited to attend this meeting.

POULTRY DEMONSTATION

The caponizing of poultry will be demonstrated by H. H. Kauffman, from State College at a meeting on the farm of William Gardner, near Plain Grove, on Wednesday July 11 at 1 o'clock.

Other poultry problems will also be discussed at this time. Poultrymen are invited to attend the demonstration.

WOOL POOL REGULATIONS

Lawrence County Wool growers who are selling their wool through the County Wool Growers Association will pool and ship this year's clip Tuesday and Wednesday, July 10th and 11th.

Wool growers from Beaver County and North Beaver Township will deliver their wools Tuesday at the Association Warehause on Moravia St. New Castle. All other sections of the County will deliver their wools on Wednesday.

The association will load wool in Butler on Monday, July 9th for Butler County growers.

The wools have been sold to Horkheimer Bros. of Wheeling, W. Va., and will be shipped out immediately.

REWORK OLD BERRY BED FOR NEXT YEAR'S CROP

Many of the newly set strawberry beds do not possess satisfactory stands of plants as a result of unfavorable weather conditions.

Where growers are faced with this problem the most practical solution will be found in reworking the planting that has just produced its first crop of berries. This task can be accomplished in several ways. The following method is suggested as the most economical in preparing for a good crop next year.

As soon as the present crop is harvested the tops should be mowed and removed from the patch. Then a 4-10-4 fertilizer should be broadcast at the rate of 350 to 400 pounds an acre. A spring tooth-harrow or even a smoothering harrow should be used to rip up the rows. In completing this operation 1 or 2 trips in the same direction over each row will be necessary. A large number of plans will be pulled out and the ground worked up between the plants by the harrow. When a sufficient number of plants have been removed by the harrow, the cultivator then can be called into service to harrow the rows down to 10 to 14 inches.

Use of the treatment described should put the planting in condition to produce a crop of strawberries equal to the one set the preceding spring.

FLEA BEETLES ATTACK SEVERE ON MANY CROPS

Flea beetles, more numerous than usual in many gardens and fields are taking toll from the crops upon which they feed.

Pale striped beetles, which are unusually aboundant, this year, are attacking potatoes, corn, cabbage and beans. Reports indicate that they are causing serious damage. Common potato flea beetles and several of the larger flea beetles also are abundant.

A field spray using 3 pounds of calcium arsenate in 100 gallons of either bordeaux mixture or water is recommended. In gardens a thoroughly mixed dust comosed of 1 pound of calcium arsenate and 9 pounds of hydrated lime can be used. Flea beetles should be stopped now to prevent second brood injury within the next few weeks.

GIVE TOMATOES PLENTY OF ROOM OR STAKE THEM

It is a common practice for home gardeners to plant tomoto plants too closely. If they are to grow naturally they should be spaced 4 by 4 feet under fertile garden conditions. Cultivate the plants until small fruits are set and the plants begin to spread: then mulch with straw or other material between the rows and the plants in the row. This mulch provides a clean, soft bed for the plants to rest upon and ripen the fruit. It also conserves moisture and eliminates cultivations.

Where the garden area is limited the plants may be placed two feet apart in rows three feet apart and later staked. More tomatoes can be grown on a small area by staking the plants, but more plants are needed with this arrangement.

In staking and pruning tomatoes a stake is driven into the soil about six inches from the plant, and should extend about five feet above ground. The plants are pruned to a single or double stem and tied to the stakes. Pruning begins when the first cluster is in blossom. All small side branches that appear in axils of the leaves are removed in pruning to a single stem. For two leaders or stems the branch immediately below the first blossom cluster is allowed to remain. All later side branches are removed and the leader or leaders tied to the stake. Four or five tryings are necessary.

INSPECTORS CHECK ON SUMMER CAMPS

HARRISBURG, July 6.—The regular camps located in the northeastern section of Pennsylvania, with a summer juvenile population of approximately 20,000, are now being checked by representatives of the State Health Department.

This work involves a check-up on the phiysical condition of the kitchen personnel and the sanitary facilities for cleansing eating and drinking utensils. Water and milk supplies and the sanitary disposal of sewage also are undergoing annual inspection by departmental engineers.

Hundreds of camps located in other sections of the Commonwealth are being surveyed by the department's full-time health officers and members of the restaurant hygiene division.

Convention To Open Tonight

Ball At Cascade Park Is Opening Event In Sons Of Italy Event

MANY DELEGATES EXPECTED TO ATTEND

A ball tonight at 8:30 o'clock, in the beautiful Rainbow Terrace pavilion, Cascade Park, in honor of the Pennsylvania State Grand Council, Sons of Italy, will mark the opening of the three day Sons of Italy convention here. Dr. Warren V. Massaro, general chairman in charge, announced this morning that everything is in readiness for the confab.

Cascade Park pavilion is expected to be crowded with several hundreds out of town guests. A popular orchestra will furnish music for the occasion.

Nick George is chairman in charge of the ball this evening. The remainder of the committee for the event tonight includes; Miss Catherine Miscamari, assistant chairman; Miss Ellen DeMatteo, Miss Dora Greco, Frank Porfilio, Rodger Pezone, John Armando, Mrs. Rose Baptiste, Mrs. Carm Sacco, Mrs. Anthony Ippolito, Mrs. Theresa Bombino, Mrs. Rose Cumo, Fred DiDomenico, Carmen Sfredo.

Early this afternoon officials and delegates from numerous cities arrived here for the convention. The visitors will be stationed at The Castleton, where sessions are scheduled for Saturday and early Monday morning.

CLEAR STORM DEBRIS

GROVE CITY, July 6.—Boro workmen are still busy repairing damage to electric and sewer lines and clearing away debris caused by a "twister" whose force was spent in this place late Tuesday afternoon. Trees were uprooted, blocking five streets completely, and electric linemen have several day's work ahead of them in repairing damage. Many sewers were clogged with debris.

The most unusual incident of the storm occurred when Clayton Walters, 12, was severely cut by glass when he took refuge in the Black garage. A motorcycle standing in front of the garage was blown thru the display windows, showering the boy with glass.

Slays Second Wife And Son Of First Wife

(International News Service)

CAMDEN, N. J., July 6.—Upon the "unwritten law" did Michael Maggio, 44, wealthy importer of Philadelphia, rely today for exoneration in the slaying of his second wife, Anna, and his son by a previous marriage, Joseph.

Admitting, according to authorities, that he slew the 34-year-old woman and the 21-year-old youth when he surprised them in his summer cottage at Pillings Lake last Friday, Maggio contends the double-killing was fully justified.

Silently forlorn, the food merchant awaiting grand jury action without bail on charges of murder.

The prisoner's lawyer, Carl Kisselman, expressed confidence that his client will never go to trial.

"Maggio and I are satisfied," the attorney said, "that he will be exonerated in the eyes of the public and the court when all the facts are known."

Weirton Steel Company Cuts Down Operations

(International News Service)

WEIRTON, W. V., July 6—Complete suspension of operations in the Clarksburg plant and drastic curtailment of production in its two other plants at Weirton and Steubenville, O., was announced today by the Weirton Steel Company through J. C. Williams, president.

The finishing processes plant at Clarksburg was entirely closed down for an indefinite period, Williams said. One blast furnace has been withdrawn from production at Weirton while open hearth operations have been reduced more than 50 per cent with prospects of a further decrease.

Substantial reductions have been made in all finishings mill operations at both Weirton and Steubenville. Indications are that a further curtailment will be necessary, Williams added.

Sharp declines in demand for finished steel advanced as the reason for the decline.

Legion Teams To Battle Tonight

New Castle American Legion baseball team will play the Bessemer-Mt. Jackson Legion team tonight at 5:30 o'clock at the George Washington Junior high field. This game is a playoff of the deadlocked game earlier in the season.

The winner of the game tonight will go to Butler for a game with the Butler Legion team next Monday night. The New Castle Legion team has won all of the games played this year with the exception of the deadlocked battle that is being played over tonight.

LIGHTNING HITS GARAGE

GROVE CITY, July 6.—During a severe storm which was accompanied by a high wind, the garage of W. W. Kapp, Liberty street, was struck by lightning and set afire, on July 4. The bolt entered the garage over a radio aerial and ignited wallpaper stored there. Mr. Kapp succeeded in extinguishing the blaze before much damage resulted.

Asa Relies On God

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Heb. 13:6—"The Lord is my helper; I will not fear: what shall man do unto me?"

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for July 8 is II Chronicles, chapters 14 to 16, especially 15:1-12, the Golden Text being Hebrew 13:6, "The Lord is my helper; I will not fear: what shall man do unto me?"

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

While the northern or secession kingdom of Israel in its 254 years of history had 19 kings all of whom were wicked idolaters, and the southern kingdom of Judah in its 389 years of history had also 19 kings, yet five of these latter were righteous men who served God in effecting great spiritual reformations during their reigns.

Asa was one of these good kings and reformers. Son of the godless and idolatrous King Abijah, grandson of the foolish and heartless King Rehoboam who split the kingdom into two rival kingdoms, and great-grandson of Absolom, Asa's background was not favorable to godliness, and he is the more deserving of credit for the noble stand he took at the outset of his reign to uproot the iniquitous practices which had corrupted the spiritual life of the nation during the three preceding reigns. "And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God. For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves: and commanded Judah to seek the Lord God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment." As a result of his reformatory policies the land was richly blessed with peace and prosperity during the early years of Asa's reign. When war did come God blessed Asa with victory because of his reliance upon Jehovah, though his forces were outnumbered by the Ethiopian invaders two to one: "Asa cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: Help us, O Lord our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O Lord, thou art our God; let not man prevail against three." This was Asa's prayer, and such faith could not fail of victory. God's promise to him as to us was, "The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. . . . . Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak; for your work shall be rewarded."

Asa's Reformation Analyzed

A study of Asa's reformation, as of every true reformation, reveals its origin in a return to the Word of God as the prophet of the day revealed to Asa the will of God. This reformation, born of the Word of God, was fostered in worship to which Asa rallied the people in Jerusalem: "And they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul." The result was great national joy, for, "All Judah rejoiced at the oath: For they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire, and he was found of them: and the Lord gave them rest round about."

Asa had his faults in later life in depending upon human resources rather than upon Jehovah, and suffered punishment for this defect in his faith, thus teaching us our need of perseverance unto the end. God graciously shields these faults, however, and views the general trend of this godly king's life, saying, "Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, as did David his father".

CELEBRATE OPENING OF SCENIC HIGHWAY

(International News Service)

DENVER—A four-day celebration, sometime around July 4, will mark the opening of the new Bear Creek highway into the mountains west of Denver. The former road up the canyon was destroyed by a disastrous flood about a year ago.

It has been rebuilt by the state highway department high above the creek bed, where it is considered safe from future cloudbursts, and its location reveals some of the greatest scenic beauty in the Denver mountain park system.

Slays Second Wife And Son Of First Wife

(International News Service)

CAMDEN, N. J., July 6.—Upon the "unwritten law" did Michael Maggio, 44, wealthy importer of Philadelphia, rely today for exoneration in the slaying of his second wife, Anna, and his son by a previous marriage, Joseph.

Admitting, according to authorities, that he slew the 34-year-old woman and the 21-year-old youth when he surprised them in his summer cottage at Pillings Lake last Friday, Maggio contends the double-killing was fully justified.

Silently forlorn, the food merchant awaiting grand jury action without bail on charges of murder.

The prisoner's lawyer, Carl Kisselman, expressed confidence that his client will never go to trial.

"Maggio and I are satisfied," the attorney said, "that he will be exonerated in the eyes of the public and the court when all the facts are known."

Weirton Steel Company Cuts Down Operations

(International News Service)

WEIRTON, W. V., July 6—Complete suspension of operations in the Clarksburg plant and drastic curtailment of production in its two other plants at Weirton and Steubenville, O., was announced today by the Weirton Steel Company through J. C. Williams, president.

The finishing processes plant at Clarksburg was entirely closed down for an indefinite period, Williams said. One blast furnace has been withdrawn from production at Weirton while open hearth operations have been reduced more than 50 per cent with prospects of a further decrease.

Substantial reductions have been made in all finishings mill operations at both Weirton and Steubenville. Indications are that a further curtailment will be necessary, Williams added.

Legion Teams To Battle Tonight

New Castle American Legion baseball team will play the Bessemer-Mt. Jackson Legion team tonight at 5:30 o'clock at the George Washington Junior high field. This game is a playoff of the deadlocked game earlier in the season.

The winner of the game tonight will go to Butler for a game with the Butler Legion team next Monday night. The New Castle Legion team has won all of the games played this year with the exception of the deadlocked battle that is being played over tonight.

LIGHTNING HITS GARAGE

GROVE CITY, July 6.—During a severe storm which was accompanied by a high wind, the garage of W. W. Kapp, Liberty street, was struck by lightning and set afire, on July 4. The bolt entered the garage over a radio aerial and ignited wallpaper stored there. Mr. Kapp succeeded in extinguishing the blaze before much damage resulted.

A conservative is one who clings to ideas that got some radical in trouble 30 years ago.

Asa Relies On God

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Heb. 13:6—"The Lord is my helper; I will not fear: what shall man do unto me?"

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for July 8 is II Chronicles, chapters 14 to 16, especially 15:1-12, the Golden Text being Hebrew 13:6, "The Lord is my helper; I will not fear: what shall man do unto me?"

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

While the northern or secession kingdom of Israel in its 254 years of history had 19 kings all of whom were wicked idolaters, and the southern kingdom of Judah in its 389 years of history had also 19 kings, yet five of these latter were righteous men who served God in effecting great spiritual reformations during their reigns.

Asa was one of these good kings and reformers. Son of the godless and idolatrous King Abijah, grandson of the foolish and heartless King Rehoboam who split the kingdom into two rival kingdoms, and great-grandson of Asbolom, Asa's background was not favorable to godliness, and he is the more deserving of credit for the noble stand he took at the outset of his reign to uproot the iniquitous practices which had corrupted the spiritual life of the nation during the three preceding reigns. "And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God. For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves: and commanded Judah to seek the Lord God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment." As a result of his reformatory policies the land was richly blessed with peace and prosperity during the early years of Asa's reign. When war did come God blessed Asa with victory because of his reliance upon Jehovah, though his forces were outnumbered by the Ethiopian invaders two to one: "Asa cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: Help us, O Lord our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O Lord, thou art our God; let not man prevail against three." This was Asa's prayer, and such faith could not fail of victory. God's promise to him as to us was, "The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. . . . . Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak; for your work shall be rewarded."

Asa's Reformation Analyzed

A study of Asa's reformation, as of every true reformation, reveals its origin in a return to the Word of God as the prophet of the day revealed to Asa the will of God. This reformation, born of the Word of God, was fostered in worship to which Asa rallied the people in Jerusalem: "And they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul." The result was great national joy, for, "All Judah rejoiced at the oath: For they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire, and he was found of them: and the Lord gave them rest round about."

Asa had his faults in later life in depending upon human resources rather than upon Jehovah, and suffered punishment for this defect in his faith, thus teaching us our need of perseverance unto the end. God graciously shields these faults, however, and views the general trend of this godly king's life, saying, "Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, as did David his father".

CELEBRATE OPENING OF SCENIC HIGHWAY

(International News Service)

DENVER—A four-day celebration, sometime around July 4, will mark the opening of the new Bear Creek highway into the mountains west of Denver. The former road up the canyon was destroyed by a disastrous flood about a year ago.

It has been rebuilt by the state highway department high above the creek bed, where it is considered safe from future cloudbursts, and its location reveals some of the greatest scenic beauty in the Denver mountain park system.

Lou Gehrig Hits Two More Homers

"Larruping Lou" Busts Up Ball Game With Terrific Clouts Over Fence

GIANTS-PHILS WIN BATTLES

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 6.—If you had a million bucks and your choice of all ball players to buy to form a new ball club, which player would you choose?

Lou Gehrig of the Yanks? Well, that makes it unanimous and in perfect accord with the judgement of all Major League managers.

However, I doubt that a million would pry Lou loose from Col. Jake Ruppert because Jake already has some 70-odd millions and another more or less means nothing to him compared with the pleasure he derives from seeing Lou bust up ball games for his Yanks.

Hits Two Homers

Here's a man you can depend on to hit anywhere from .340 up and drive in anywhere from 15 to 175 runs a year. He already has knocked in 88 this year and seven of those he sent scampering over the plate yesterday while he and his buddies were knocking off the Senators, 8 to 3.

A second glance at that score will show you just how much Lou means to the Yanks. His 22nd homer with the bases loaded accounted for the first four Yankee runs and his 23rd with one aboard sent over two more. Oh, yes, he also made a couple of singles but these hardly are worth mentioning except insofar as they helped swell his total base output for the season to 194.

With such a man socking for him Johnny Bronca of Yale had no trouble hanging up another victory for himself.

Hildebrand Wins

Oral Hildebrand of the Indians shut out the White Sox, 8 to 0, with eight hits. Earnshaw did pretty well until the seventh when the Indians piled into him for six runs.

The Athletics with Benton, Vaughan and Cascarella working against Rhodes, Welch and Ostermueller, trimmed the Red Sox, 6 to 5.

Phils-Giants Win

There were only two games played in the National League and the Phillies and Giants won them. The Phillies knocked off the Braves, 14 to 11, making 20 hits to 17 for the Braves. Just an oldfashioned pitchers' battle especially in the eighth when McManus and Berger hit homers for the losers and George Davis and Camilli did as much for the winners.

The Giants took advantage of the idling Cards and Cubs to increase their lead at the expense of the dizzy Dodgers whom they walloped, 13 to 7.

Bessemer and West Pittsburgh, the latter first half champs of the Lawrence County loop will play at West Pittsburgh and indications are Snyder will pitch for Bessemer and Houk for Garlands. Mahoning will send Russo to the mound when they play the Polish at Glasser field and the Polish who made a great showing in the first half will use Houston on the mound. Both games will start at three p. m. according to Secretary Jake Vessella.

Bryan Grant, Atlanta's mighty atom of tennis dusted out of the clay court championships Arthur Hendrix of Lakeland, Fla., 4-6, 4-1, 6-1, 6-2 and has entered the semi-finals to join Don Budge, Oakland, Calif. redhead. City Golf League Matches Called Off

Rain Interferes With Majority Of Games Scheduled Last Evening

When rain continued to fall at game time last evening, many of the teams felt that play would be impossible and most of the players failed to show up for the regularly scheduled contests. Later, when the rain stopped, a hasty attempt was made to get teams together and play off the games. In some instances only five holes were gotten in.

While several of the teams had their full quota of players out and played out their matches, the league officials felt that in justice to all, that all matches should be washed off the records and the games scheduled for last evening should be played next Thursday evening, and have ruled accordingly.

Some splendid scores were made by those who did play last evening, but these will have to be washed off the records, as a result of their decision.

New Wilmington Takes Two Games

New Wilmington played good baseball on the Fourth to win both games of a twin bill from Bedford, the first game ending to the tune of 9-8 and the nightcap ended 13-0 in favor of the College Towners.

The morning go was tight throughout with Bedford leading the greater part of the fray. Errors by the A. A. team allowed four runs to cross the plate in early innings, but Hutchison, shortstop, smacked a triple in the eighth inning to tie the game, and then was sacrificed to win the battle.

The afternoon session was entirely New Wilmington. Aided by the sterling moundwork of Herriott, portsider, the locals had little trouble in scoring at will against a befuddled Bedford nine. The third inning was Waterloo for the Bedfordites, when the A. A. nine scored ten runs. Herriott allowed only six scattered hits, while the snappy play of McKean's nine kept the Bedford team from crossing the plate safely.

Saturday afternoon the locals will be host to a Sharpsville Merchant nine who have previously turned in a victory over the Wilmington team.

St. Andrews Tops Merchants 10 To 6

St. Andrews topped the West Side Merchants 10 to 6 at the Boroline field last night in a National league game. Evans pitched for the Saints and allowed 11 hits, but kept them scattered. The Saints found Irwin and Nickie Uram for 21 hits. Picarri and Pascarella were the batting stars of the game for the St. Andrews team.

Score by innings—	R.	H.	E.
St. Andrews ..101 023 030	10	21	5
Merchants 001 121 010	6	11	1

Batteries: St. Andrews—Evans and Laurel. Merchants—Irwin, N. Uram and Glassetter.

Golf Matches Are Postponed

New Castle Church golfing league matches were rained out yesterday at the Castle Hills course and will be played next week. It has been suggested that the captains of the teams get together and arrange to play off their postponed match so as not to interfere with the regular schedule. Matches could be played today, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

From all indications the First Presbyterians will put another team in the league to replace the Epworth M. E. team.

Director Glitch Assigns Umpires

Lawrence County league umpires ordered to arbitrate games Saturday follows: Guinaugh and Walzer at Glasser field, Price, and Vessella will umpire at West Pittsburgh and or Sunday Guinaugh and Irwin will go to Bessemer and Dunn and Vessella at Mahoning. Price and Jackson will arbitrate at Hillsville Monday, according to Lewis Glitch, director of umpires.

HAND INJURED

GROVE CITY, July 6.—Her hand badly swollen when it was caught in a power wringer, Mrs. P. N. Joyner is recovering from a painful accident at her home. She had the wringer in reverse, and reached over the top to pull the clothing out when her hand became entangled. Her arm, resting on the safety release, made it impossible to stop the machine, and her hand was drawn into the rollers. She was alone, but her screams attracted the attention of her son who came to her aid.

Someone Took Bounce Out Of Tennis Balls

Mercer Beasley, Famous Princeton Coach Says New Ball Doesn't Bounce Very High

West Coast Players Strongly Protest Against No Bounce, Easterners Satisfied

CHICAGO, July 6.—Skulduggery and machinations—having to do with the bounce of the ball—were exposed to the tennis world today by Mercer Beasley, Princeton tennis coach and probably the most famous in his profession.

Beasley, on tour with his protege and pupil, Frankie Parker, for the purpose of collecting a few tennis trophies, said the less lively ball was "right down Parker's alley," and therefore he would make no objections to the change.

Ball Is Changed

"Nevertheless," said Beasley, "the ball has been changed. The manufacturers of the ball and the United States Lawn Tennis Association undoubtedly will deny it, but I am positive there has been some tampering with its construction.

"For years the west coast players have been demanding a ball with a higher bounce, which is better adapted to their cement and asphalt courts. In the east, the demand is for a lower bounce, probably because of the increase in mechanical or "form" play. The west wants a shoulder-high bounce; the east must have it around the knees or waist."

Slides On Court

In explaining the bounce, on clay courts, Beasley said: "A ball struck with no top-spin and no under-cut, a flat shot, slides along the surface of the court for nine inches, after a moderately hard hit, before it rises. With top-spin, the ball leaves the court surface after four inches of slide.

"On cement and asphalt courts, the ball rises directly after contact with the surface.

"I believe the ball manufacturers have acceded to the demands of the east and middle-west, where clay and grass courts predominate, and have made some changes."

Charges Answered

The ball manufacturers had a few words to say when told of Beasley's charges.

Leo Lunn, tennis ball manufacturer's representative: "Impossible. The U. S. L. T. A. specifications are followed to the letter. There has been a slight change in the construction of the cover, to improve the ball, but absolutely nothing has been done to affect the bounce."

Three Games In Softball League

Three games will be played tonight in the American softball league with all games starting at 6 o'clock.

The league leading Scarazzos and Tolans will tangle at the B. & O. field in what looks like a fine engagement. The Audias will be at Canyon field against the Unions. The Pump Stations will play the Saks team at Franklin field.

When another day has arrived, we will find that we have consumed our yesterday's tomorrow; another morrow will urge on our years, and still be a little beyond us.—Persius.

RADIATORS TO PLAY

National Radiators softball team will play the fast Beaver Falls Battery team at the Radiator field at 2:30 o'clock Sunday according to an announcement today, by R. W. Bolsinger. All players are asked to report for the Sunday tilt. Next Monday the Rads will play the W. S. Merchants at the Rad field and will meet the East Side Merchants in a postponed game next Tuesday. The Radiator-E. S. Merchant game last night was rained out.

YOUNG YANKEE MIDGETS

Young Yankee Midgets bested the Marcella A. C. at Scunglo field yesterday afternoon 25 to 5. Colello, Scunglo and Ambrosia each had home runs to feature the game. For games with the Yankee Midgets call 1389-M and ask for Victor.

AIELLO A. C. WINS

Aiello A. C. handed the Italian A. A. a 12 to 6 defeat at the Dean Park field yesterday. Santangelo and Gennock featured the game. The Aiellos will play the Pearson A. C. Saturday at Dean Park field.

RICHFIELD MIDGETS

Richfield Midgets softball team won its 12th straight game at the B. & O. field yesterday morning by taking the measure of the I. W. W. team 8 to 2. Pascarella allowed the losers but six hits. He fanned seven men. The Richfield Midgets earlier in the week defeated the West Side Midgets and the Forrest A. C.

RENNERS WIN GAME

Renners softball team hung up its 9th straight victory of the season yesterday by handing the fast Russo A. C. a 14 to 1 defeat in a game at Dean Park field. DelRoss limited the Russos to six hits. The Renners had 18 hits off of Alfera. H. Venditto featured the game with a homer. The Renners would like to meet a strong team Sunday. Call 9120, Frank Viggiano is the manager of the Renners team.

HANNONS WIN GAME

Hannons softball team defeated the Renners team 12 to 5 in a softball game with Johnny Roman doing the pitching. Only seven hits were made off of Roman. R. Covelli was hit hard for the Renners. Ray Must, Regna, Bondi and T. Sheldone led the attack on Covelli. Last night the Hannons lost to the Cunningham A. C. 11 to 1 at Gaston Park Field, in a National league game.

Merchants Card Warren Tonight

East Side Merchants softball team has scheduled the strong Stevenson softball team of Warren, Ohio for a game tonight at 6 o'clock at Centennial field. The Merchants have put Centennial field in shape and will use it from now on as their home field. The Saks will use it as their home field also.

The Warren team is rated the fastest in Eastern Ohio and will give the Merchants a tough engagement.

ELECT VESSELLA AS SECRETARY

Alec Samuels was elected president, William G. Andrews vice president, Ed Connery treasurer and Jacob Vessella secretary of the Lawrence county league when they held their monthly meeting at the Sport Goods store here. Among the decisions reached was one which ordered all teams to play games as scheduled instead of postponing league games to play exhibition clashes.

Some of the clubs claimed they could not play Sunday baseball on some fields and it was decided that Sunday games allotted to Hillsville will be played on Thursdays and all of Wampum's supposedly home games will be played away from home.

Saturday, July 7—Mahoning at Polish, Bessemer at West Pittsburg.
Monday, July 9—Wampum at Hillsville.

Six Games In Indies League

Independent Baseball League Games Will Be Resumed Tonight

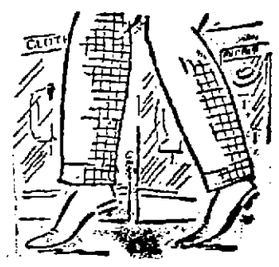

Six games are listed in the Independent baseball league for tonight. The games will start at 6 o'clock.

In the National league the Clifton Flats team will journey to Coaltown for a battle. The Rose Point team will go to Ryantown for a game, and the East New Castle Merchants will go to Mahoning Indies for an engagement.

The American league teams will also go into action with Wampum playing at the Slovaks field, and with Boro A. C. playing the National Pants at the Lehigh field. The New Castle Merchants will be at Colonial field tonight against the fast stepping Colonial A. C. team.

TIN MILL GOLFERS

Tonight at the Castle Hills golf course the Shenango Tin Mill golfing league will play. There are 70 or 80 of the Tin Mill men interested in the league and some fine scores have been turned in.

Lou Gehrig Hits Two More Homers

"Larruping Lou" Busts Up Ball Game With Terrific Clouts Over Fence

GIANTS-PHILS WIN BATTLES

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 6.—If you had a million bucks and your choice of all ball players to buy to form a new ball club, which player would you choose?

Lou Gehrig of the Yanks? Well, that makes it unanimous and in perfect accord with the judgement of all Major League managers.

However, I doubt that a million would pry Lou loose from Col. Jake Ruppert because Jake already has some 70-odd millions and another more or less means nothing to him compared with the pleasure he derives from seeing Lou bust up ball games for his Yanks.

Hits Two Homers

Here's a man you can depend on to hit anywhere from .340 up and drive in anywhere from 15 to 175 runs a year. He already has knocked in 88 this year and seven of those he sent scampering over the plate yesterday while he and his buddies were knocking off the Senators, 8 to 3.

A second glance at that score will show you just how much Lou means to the Yanks. His 22nd homer with the bases loaded accounted for the first four Yankee runs and his 23rd with one aboard sent over two more. Oh, yes, he also made a couple of singles but these hardly are worth mentioning except insofar as they helped swell his total base output for the season to 194.

With such a man socking for him Johnny Broaca of Yale had no trouble hanging up another victory for himself.

Hildebrand Wins

Oral Hildebrand of the Indians shut out the White Sox, 8 to 0, with eight hits. Earnshaw did pretty well until the seventh when the Indians piled into him for six runs.

The Athletics with Benton, Vaughan and Cascarella working against Rhodes, Welch and Ostermueller, trimmed the Red Sox, 6 to 5.

Phils-Giants Win

There were only two games played in the National League and the Phillies and Giants won them. The Phillies knocked off the Braves, 14 to 11, making 20 hits to 17 for the Braves. Just an oldfashioned pitchers' battle especially in the eighth when McManus and Berger hit homers for the losers and George Davis and Camilli did as much for the winners.

The Giants took advantage of the idling Cards and Cubs to increase their lead at the expense of the dizzy Dodgers whom they walloped, 13 to 7.

City Golf League Matches Called Off

Rain Interferes With Majority Of Games Scheduled Last Evening

Officials of the New Castle Golf League have ordered all matches scheduled for last evening replayed on next Thursday.

When rain continued to fall at game time last evening, many of the teams felt that play would be impossible and most of the players failed to show up for the regularly scheduled contests. Later, when the rain stopped, a hasty attempt was made to get teams together and play off the games. In some instances only five holes were gotten in.

While several of the teams had their full quota of players out and played out their matches, the league officials felt that in justice to all, that all matches should be washed off the records and the games scheduled for last evening should be played next Thursday evening, and have ruled accordingly.

Some splendid scores were made by those who did play last evening, but these will have to be washed off the records, as a result of their decision.

There will still be plenty of time to finish up the league season, as only four games remain to be played.

New Wilmington Takes Two Games

New Wilmington played good baseball on the Fourth to win both games of a twin bill from Bedford, the first game ending to the tune of 9-8 and the nightcap ended 13-0 in favor of the College Towners.

The morning go was tight throughout with Bedford leading the greater part of the fray. Errors by the A. A. team allowed four runs to cross the plate in early innings, but Hutchison, shortstop, smacked a triple in the eighth inning to tie the game, and then was sacrificed to win the battle.

The afternoon session was entirely New Wilmington. Aided by the sterling moundwork of Herriott, portsider, the locals had little trouble in scoring at will against a befuddled Bedford nine. The third inning was Waterloo for the Bedfordites, when the A. A. nine scored ten runs. Herriott allowed only six scattered hits, while the snappy play of McKean's nine kept the Bedford team from crossing the plate safely.

Saturday afternoon the locals will be host to a Sharpsville Merchant nine who have previously turned in a victory over the Wilmington team.

St. Andrews Tops Merchants 10 To 6

St. Andrews topped the West Side Merchants 10 to 6 at the Boroline field last night in a National league game. Evans pitched for the Saints and allowed 11 hits, but kept them scattered. The Saints found Irwin and Nickie Uram for 21 hits. Picarri and Pascarella were the batting stars of the game for the St. Andrews team.

Score by innings— R. H. E.
St. Andrews ..101 023 030—10 21 5
Batteries: St. Andrews—Evans and Laurel. Merchants—Irwin, N. Uram and Glassetter.

Golf Matches Are Postponed

New Castle Church golfing league matches were rained out yesterday at the Castle Hills course and will be played next week. It has been suggested that the captains of the teams get together and arrange to play off their postponed match so as not to interfere with the regular schedule. Matches could be played today, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

From all indications the First Presbyterians will put another team in the league to replace the Epworth M. E. team.

Director Glitch Assigns Umpires

Lawrence County league umpires ordered to arbitrate games Saturday follows: Guinaugh and Walzer at Glasser field, Price, and Vessella will umpire at West Pittsburgh and or Sunday Guinaugh and Irwin will go to Bessemer and Dunn and Vessella at Mahoning. Price and Jackson will arbitrate at Hillsville Monday, according to Lewis Glitch, director of umpires.

SPYING ON SPORTS

The first time your correspondent saw Sammy Mandell was more than a decade ago, in Chicago. The little Rockford, Ill., Italian, who rose to the royal purple of the ring was working out with some sparring partners in a Clark street gymnasium.

There was another ring in that gym, but all the gawking spectators, handlers, fighters, hangers-on and what not in that dingy fight factory were clustered about Mandell's ring.

So they crowded around the ropes alert for every move of the handsome, swarthy kid with the dazzling white smile. And none took more than a a passing glance into the other ring.

Jack Johnson, himself, former world's heavyweight champion was in that other ring working out for some pork-and-bean battle with an unknown. But they didn't watch him, for Johnson was through—just a fat, bald-headed darky, busted flat a grotesquely rounded caricature of the slim-shanked Galveston stevedore who knocked Jim Jeffries kicking and won for himself and the black race the title of best fighting man in the world.

You might feel sorry for Johnson—that crowd reasoned—but you wouldn't waste your time watching him, a hopeless has-been. Not anyway, when a rising star like Mandell was the other attraction.

"Oakland, Cal.—Joe Bernal scored a technical knockout over Sammy Mandell in the sixth round."

His great boxing skill, his punch—gone Sammy Mandell former world's lightweight champion, wanders from cheap fight to cheap fight in the dim twilight of a brilliant ring career. Long after everyone save, possibly, himself knew he was through—Sammy kept on fighting— he needed dough.

The 10 years or so since have made it all even between the little white boy and the big black man.

GAME IS POSTPONED

The Third U. P. and Ellwood City Millers game last night at Franklin Field was postponed due to the rain. The game will be played later. Tonight the Millers and Cunninghams will play off a postponed game at the Ellwood City field.

Little Bessemer Girl Severely Injured In Fall From Swing On Fourth

Irene Davorsky, aged nine years, of Bessemer is in the Jameson Memorial hospital suffering with a fractured hip sustained in a fall from a swing on the Fourth.

She was admitted to the hospital yesterday, when the full extent of her injuries had been determined.

Big Fire Loss In Oles' Market

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 6—Market operated by former Mayor Geo. Oles was damaged by fire last night to the extent of $40,000.

Oles said his inventory was $22,000 and estimated that nearly all of his stock had been destroyed by either fire, smoke or water. However 500 chickens on the third floor escaped any harm and were calmly eating food as the firemen finished their work.

Oriental Dinner At The Cathedral

The Cathedral is anticipated to be crowded tonight when the women of the St. Elias Syrian Orthodox church will give an Oriental dinner. The affair will start at 6:30 o'clock.

Dinner will be served until 9:30 o'clock. The committee in charge has arranged a musical program following the serving. The dinner was originally scheduled for last week but was postponed until tonight.

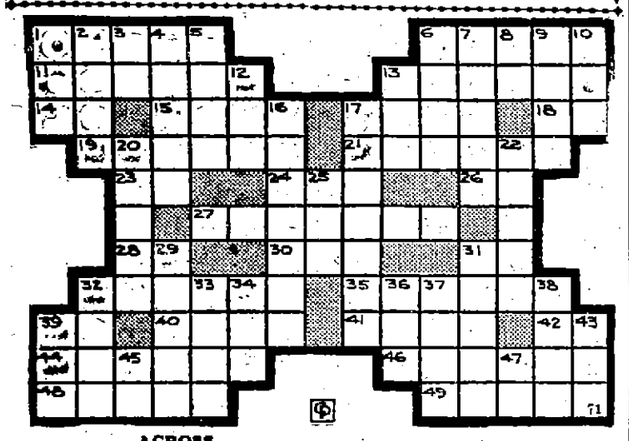

Son Of Steel Man Dies Of Injuries

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 6—Julian B. McDonald, 31 son of Louis N. McDonald, general superintendent of the Youngstown district of the Carnegie Steel Corporation, died today of injuries suffered last night when his automobile and another sideswiped each other north of the city.

Mrs. Harold Wilson, who was with McDonald and Gabriel Mariotti, driver of the other car, also were injured.

Punxsutawney Man Is Placed In Jail

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—En route to Indianapolis, Ind., where he is under indictment on a charge of using the mails to defraud, Dr. Russell M. Perry, 41, of Punxsutawney, was brought here today and jailed pending his transfer westward.

Punxsutawney Man Is Placed In Jail

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—En route to Indianapolis, Ind., where he is under indictment on a charge of using the mails to defraud, Dr. Russell M. Perry, 41, of Punxsutawney, was brought here today and jailed pending his transfer westward.

Perry, according to federal authorities, is also charged with aiding in the misapplication of funds and credits of the Greensburg National Bank at Greensburg, Ind.

The defendant's father, Daniel P. Perry, former cashier of the bank, is now serving a sentence in Indiana, the federal agents added.

Market Continues Recovery Today With Firmer Tone, Renewed Confidence

RAIL SHARES ARE FIRMER

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6.—The stock market continued its recovery today with the utilities showing the way. Other sections of the list also showed a renewed disposition to advance.

The commodity markets, however, failed to maintain yesterday's gains. Cotton declined about 75 cents a bale, while wheat and other grains lost fractionally in early trading.

Consolidated Gas was the outstanding strong spot in the utilities opening fractionally higher and then extending its gain to about a point. Public Service of N. J. also was strong.

Philadelphia Reading Coal & Iron, an active issue, suddenly became active today and ran up about half a point in fast trading.

Railroad shares were again firm under the leadership of Atchison. Steel stocks, though, were sluggish after yesterday's rally and appeared to be meeting with profit taking.

Council Acts On Many Matters

To Pass On Legality Of Bond Of Tax Collector For Boro

DISCUSS MOVE FOR BIG PICNIC

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6—Borough Solicitor J. W. Humphrey was delegated by Council of Ellwood City to satisfy himself as to the legality of Tax Collector T. A. E. McConahy's personal bond for $10,000 and as to the efficiency of its bondsmen, at its regular meeting in the city building last night. The bond was for the collection of the 1934 tax duplicate.

The tax collector's commission was also set at this time. He will be allowed 1½ per cent for collection and 5 per cent for delinquent collection.

Upon request of Councilman William McGlincey, the finance committee was delegated to reconsider the tax millage for the library. The millage was set the same as last year at 1½ mills but due to the drop of valuation it will not result in the same amount of funds as last year. I 3-4 mills will be necessary, for which the library board is asking.

Council voted to grant the request of the Ellwood Historical Society which is sponsoring the second annual Community Picnic, to build two stands for the distribution of free coffee, lemonade, and orangeade. But the city solons were not satisfied with the date of Wednesday, Aug. 1 for the picnic. It was pointed out that all the mills will be working at this time, which means that about two thirds of the people will be unable to participate. Saturday would have been a more suitable date for the mills will either be working only half day or can shut down. President Alex Main appointed a committee of J. E. Powell and Thomas Wilson to confer with the Historical Society for the possibility of changing the date.

The communication of the B. V. M. Church for the use of a portion of Franklin avenue for their annual celebration from Aug. 15 to 18 was referred to the street committee with power to act. The same committee was ordered to investigate the request of I. E. B. Wilcox to change the curve at 800 Lawrence avenue for the purpose of building a gas station.

Council voted to defer action for a short period on the request of the Ellwood Foundry and Machine company for the closing of an alley, which will be essential to them when new land is purchased for the purpose of building a new addition to the company. An expression of opinion of this matter is being awaited from a property owner. It was pointed out that the alley is not traveled.

An ordinance presented by Councilman William McGlincey for the annexation of a portion of North Sewickley Township, which will include the Robert Gardner property, was voted down by Council, which moved that the matter be laid on the table.

An amendment to the salary ordinance for an adjustment to the garbage department employees was passed at this time. The furnace firemen will receive 50c per hour for a 44 hour week and the collections 48c per hour for a 44 hour week.

T. O. B. Club Has Swimming Party

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—Members of the T. O. B. club held an enjoyable swimming party in place of their customary form of meeting yesterday, at the Shelby Pool.

A delicious picnic luncheon was enjoyed later. The club plans to meet again next Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. James Casey in Knox Plan.

W. M. SOCIETY AT FURY HOME

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—With pleasing hospitality, Mrs. Harry Fury opened her home at Wurtemburg last evening to members of the Women's Missionary society of the Wurtemburg U. P. church who gathered for the regular July meeting with a majority of members in attendance.

Our Cities and Hoy Shall We Evangelize Them, was the topic for discussion and it was presented by Mrs. George Gibbons. A number of members contributed papers on the subject.

Plans were made to hold a missionary tea at the church on Thursday, July 19. The hostess served a dainty repast and adjournment was taken to meet again on Thursday, August 2.

Borough Will Not Accept PWA Loan

Motion To Use $97,000 Federal Loan For Sewers Is Defeated By 5-4 Vote

MATTER WILL BE LEFT TO EXPIRE

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—Borough of Ellwood City will not accept the $97,000 PWA grant of the federal government for the purpose of building sewers, according to an action taken by council at its monthly meeting in the city building Thursday evening.

The plans and application for the loan were made by the old council. Since then there were five new councilmen elected and a special election held for a new bond issue which was to be used to cover a PWA loan. The bond issue was overwhelmingly defeated. Because of this, council was of the opinion that they would not be justified in accepting the $97,000 loan which was permitted by councilmanic authority. The loan would necessitate an increase in the tax millage, against which the citizens have expressed their opinion.

A formal notification of the federal grant from Harrisburg was read by the secretary. A sum of $24,000 was delegated for a storm sewer incidental with the paving of Fountain and Lawrence avenues. In the delay of the federal grant council found it possible to finance this venture itself, and the work on Fountain avenue was nearly completed. The above mentioned streets are being repaved by the state. Due to the vote of the citizens at the special election the remaining $73,000 which was to be used in constructing a storm sewer on Oak avenue and Sixth street will not be accepted.

Councilman J. E. Powell moved that the matter be left on the table. The motion passed by a 5-4 vote. The meaning of this, of course, is that the federal government will retract the grant after an appreciable amount of time has elapsed, with no word from the borough of Ellwood City.

Family Reunions Held Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—The descendants of Lewis Daufen assembled Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Daufen of Franklin township for the eighth annual reunion with eighty-five participating.

The group partook of delicious meals at noon and in the evening. Officers selected were: president, Norman Hall; vice president, Samuel Boots; secretary, Miss Thelma Daufen. Reunion to be held same time and place next year.

Annual reunion of the descendants of Joseph and Anna Varley was held at Mill Creek park with more than fifty in attendance.

Johnson Home Is Scene Of Picnic

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—A very enjoyable fourth of July picnic was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Johnson on the Ellwood-New Castle road. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bell and family of Steubenville, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Derr and family of New Castle, Mr. and Mrs. William Bleakney and family of Ellwood, Mrs. Edna Barry of Pulaski, were present on the occasion.

After the dinner the afternoon was spent in sports and swimming and a general social time.

She was accompanied home by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Feidler of Chicago, who will spend several weeks with the latter's mother, Mrs. William Hardie of Harmony.

City To Build Two New Tennis Courts

Recommendation Of Committees Is Accepted In Building Two New Courts

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—Upon recommendation of the rules and regulations and police committees, borough council voted to build two new tennis courts in Ewing Park at an estimated cost of $275.

The courts are to be built east of the abandoned Harmony railway in a vacant plot of ground. A request had been made for the courts since the old ones at Lincoln field had been torn down in making a practice field.

As a result of a resolution passed by council many property owners will be notified to repair their sidewalks within 30 days of receiving a notice. The resolution was presented by Councilman Thomas A. Wilson. In conjunction with this many will be asked to trim their trees and dispose of any weeds on their property. There are reported to be many low-hanging branches that will cause injury to pedestrians.

Urge Worldwide Gold Standard

Economists State that Recent Legislation Has Weakened Monetary Position

(International News Service)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 6.—Restoration of a world-wide gold standard, economic disarmament, and international equality for women were advocated by speakers at the institute of public affairs.

Dr. Leo Pasvolsky, economist of the Brookings Institution, urged an international gold standard. He declared that recent legislation had weakened the country's monetary position.

Orestes Ferrera, former Cuban ambassador to the United States, calling for "economic disarmament," proposed the nations of the western hemisphere meet to discuss the removal of trade barriers.

International equality for women and the victory of women at the Pan-American conference at Montevideo were discussed by Miss Doris Stevens, a delegate to the Pan-American conference.

Market Continues Recovery Today With Firmer Tone, Renewed Confidence

RAIL SHARES ARE FIRMER

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 6.—The stock market continued its recovery today with the utilities showing the way. Other sections of the list also showed a renewed disposition to advance.

The commodity markets, however, failed to maintain yesterday's gains. Cotton declined about 75 cents a bale, while wheat and other grains lost fractionally in early trading.

Consolidated Gas was the outstanding strong spot in the utilities opening fractionally higher and then extending its gain to about a point. Public Service of N. J. also was strong.

Philadelphia Reading Coal & Iron, an active issue, suddenly became active today and ran up about half a point in fast trading.

Railroad shares were again firm under the leadership of Atchison. Steel stocks, though, were sluggish after yesterday's rally and appeared to be meeting with profit taking.

DuPont again was the feature of the chemical shares, gaining nearly a point to sell at a new top for the move.

Council Acts On Many Matters

DISCUSS MOVE FOR BIG PICNIC

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6—Borough Solicitor J. W. Humphrey was delegated by Council of Ellwood City to satisfy himself as to the legality of Tax Collector T. A. E. McConahy's personal bond for $10,000 and as to the efficiency of its bondsmen, at its regular meeting in the city building last night. The bond was for the collection of the 1934 tax duplicate.

The tax collector's commission was also set at this time. He will be allowed 1½ per cent for collection and 5 per cent for delinquent collection.

Upon request of Councilman William McGlincey, the finance committee was delegated to reconsider the tax millage for the library. The millage was set the same as last year at 1½ mills but due to the drop of valuation it will not result in the same amount of funds as last year. 1 3-4 mills will be necessary, for which the library board is asking.

Council voted to grant the request of the Ellwood Historical Society which is sponsoring the second annual Community Picnic, to build two stands for the distribution of free coffee, lemonade, and orangeade. But the city solons were not satisfied with the date of Wednesday, Aug. 1 for the picnic. It was pointed out that all the mills will be working at this time, which means that about two thirds of the people will be unable to participate. Saturday would have been a more suitable date for the mills will either be working only half day or can shut down. President Alex Main appointed a committee of J. E. Powell and Thomas Wilson to confer with the Historical Society for the possibility of changing the date.

The communication of the B. V. M. Church for the use of a portion of Franklin avenue for their annual celebration from Aug. 15 to 18 was referred to the street committee with power to act. The same committee was ordered to investigate the request of I. E. B. Wilcox to change the curve at 800 Lawrence avenue for the purpose of building a gas station.

The request of Harry Felton to improve the approach at his service station was granted.

Council voted to defer action for a short period on the request of the Ellwood Foundry and Machine company for the closing of an alley, which will be essential to them when new land is purchased for the purpose of building a new addition to the company. An expression of opinion of this matter is being awaited from a property owner. It was pointed out that the alley is not traveled.

An ordinance presented by Councilman William McGlincey for the annexation of a portion of North Sewickley Township, which will include the Robert Gardner property, was voted down by Council, which moved that the matter be laid on the table.

An amendment to the salary ordinance for an adjustment to the garbage department employees was passed at this time. The furnace firemen will receive 50c per hour for a 44 hour week and the collections 48c per hour for a 44 hour week.

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—With pleasing hospitality, Mrs. Harry Fury opened her home at Wurtemburg last evening to members of the Women's Missionary society of the Wurtemburg U. P. church who gathered for the regular July meeting with a majority of members in attendance.

Our Cities and Hoy Shall We Evangelize Them, was the topic for discussion and it was presented by Mrs. George Gibbons. A number of members contributed papers on the subject.

Plans were made to hold a missionary tea at the church on Thursday, July 19. The hostess served a dainty repast and adjournment was taken to meet again on Thursday, August 2.

Borough Will Not Accept PWA Loan

Motion To Use $97,000 Federal Loan For Sewers Is Defeated By 5-4 Vote

MATTER WILL BE LEFT TO EXPIRE

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—Borough of Ellwood City will not accept the $97,000 PWA grant of the federal government for the purpose of building sewers, according to an action taken by council at its monthly meeting in the city building Thursday evening.

The plans and application for the loan were made by the old council. Since then there were five new councilmen elected and a special election held for a new bond issue which was to be used to cover a PWA loan. The bond issue was overwhelmingly defeated. Because of this, council was of the opinion that they would not be justified in accepting the $97,000 loan which was permitted by councilmanic authority. The loan would necessitate an increase in the tax millage, against which the citizens have expressed their opinion.

A formal notification of the federal grant from Harrisburg was read by the secretary. A sum of $24,000 was delegated for a storm sewer incidental with the paving of Fountain and Lawrence avenues. In the delay of the federal grant council found it possible to finance this venture itself, and the work on Fountain avenue was nearly completed. The above mentioned streets are being repaved by the state. Due to the vote of the citizens at the special e tion the remaining $73,000 which was to be used in constructing a storm sewer on Oak avenue and Sixth street will not be accepted.

Councilman J. E. Powell moved that the matter be left on the table. The motion passed by a 5-4 vote. The meaning of this, of course, is that the federal government will retract the grant after an appreciable amount of time has elapsed, with no word from the borough of Ellwood City.

Family Reunions Held Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—The descendants of Lewis Daufen assembled Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Daufen of Franklin township for the eighth annual reunion with eighty-five participating.

The group partook of delicious meals at noon and in the evening. Officers selected were: president, Norman Hall; vice president, Samuel Boots; secretary, Miss Thelma Daufen. Reunion to be held same time and place next year.

Annual reunion of the descendants of Joseph and Anna Varley was held at Mill Creek park with more than fifty in attendance.

Johnson Home Is Scene Of Picnic

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—A very enjoyable fourth of July picnic was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Johnson on the Ellwood-New Castle road. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bell and family of Steubenville, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Derr and family of New Castle, Mr. and Mrs. William Bleakney and family of Ellwood, Mrs. Edna Barry of Pulaski, were present on the occasion.

After the dinner the afternoon was spent in sports and swimming and a general social time.

She was accompanied home by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Feidler of Chicago, who will spend several weeks with the latter's mother, Mrs. William Hardie of Harmony.

City To Build Two New Tennis Courts

Recommendation Of Committees Is Accepted In Building Two New Courts

ELLWOOD CITY, July 6.—Upon recommendation of the rules and regulations and police committees, borough council voted to build two new tennis courts in Ewing Park at an estimated cost of $275.

The courts are to be built east of the abandoned Harmony railway in a vacant plot of ground. A request had been made for the courts since the old ones at Lincoln field had been torn down in making a practice field.

As a result of a resolution passed by council many property owners will be notified to repair their sidewalks within 30 days of receiving a notice. The resolution was presented by Councilman Thomas A. Wilson. In conjunction with this many will be asked to trim their trees and dispose of any weeds on their property. There are reported to be many low-hanging branches that will cause injury to pedestrians.

Urge Worldwide Gold Standard

Economists State that Recent Legislation Has Weakened Monetary Position

(International News Service)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 6.—Restoration of a world-wide gold standard, economic disarmament, and international equality for women were advocated by speakers at the institute of public affairs.

Dr. Leo Pasvolsky, economist of the Brookings Institution, urged an international gold standard. He declared that recent legislation had weakened the country's monetary position.

Orestes Ferrera, former Cuban ambassador to the United States, calling for "economic disarmament," proposed the nations of the western hemisphere meet to discuss the removal of trade barriers.

International equality for women and the victory of women at the Pan-American conference at Montevideo were discussed by Miss Doris Stevens, a delegate to the Pan-American conference.

Must Insure To Protect Patrons

Bus And Taxi Companies Must Protect Patrons In Case Of Accident

FIX AMOUNTS TO CARE FOR INJURY

HARRISBURG, July 6.—Taxicab and bus operators holding certificates of public convenience have until August 1 to comply with the Public Service Commission's recent order specifying the amounts of public liability insurance they must carry.

The order requires coverage of at least $5000 for injury to one person, $10,000 for injuries arising from one accident, and a $1000 policy to provide for payment of compensation for damage to property. All insurance policies must be issued by a reliable insurance company and must receive commission approval.

Certificated operators have the alternative of submitting to the commission a bond of evidence of bank deposits reserved for such compensation, the amount of the bond or bank deposit to be satisfactory to the commission, and in no case to be less than $10,000.

The order benefits the public by insuring payments of compensation for damages. The commission believes that reasonable assurance of payment requires that at least $10,000 should be available for payment of compensation for damages caused by the operation of this class of common carriers of pasengers.

Most of the larger bus companies carry insurance in amounts much larger than $10,000. The order does not supersede requirements that the larger amounts of insurance be carried by such companies.

Spanish War Vets Going To Clarion

Northwestern Council Meeting Will Take Place On Monday Afternoon

Col. Daniel Leasure Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, and members of their auxiliary, are making preparations to attend the Northwestern Council meeting, which will take place at Clarion, Sunday afternoon.

One of the principal items of business at this meeting will be the election of officers for the coming year. Plans will also be outlined for the state encampment to be held in Pittsburgh during August, which is expected to prove one of the largest gatherings ever held by the state organization.

Mahoning A. A. To Battle Aliquippa

Mahoning A. A. will play the Aliquippa Grays tonight at the E. & A. Field at 5:30 o'clock. According to the Mahoning A. A. management, the game should be a fast one as the Grays have one of the best teams in the Beaver valley.

The Seventh ward boys will be out to win tonight and will have their strongest lineup available.

SHOW RESISTANCE TO BLIGHT ATTACKS

HARRISBURG, July 6.—Additional evidence to support the contention of Pennsylvania foresters that the chestnut tree is developing resistance to the deadly chestnut blight has been cited by Professor George S. Perry of the Forest Research Institute, Mont Alto.

In recent months discoveries have been made in various parts of the state by emergency conservation workers engaged in taking a stock survey of the state forests of vigorous chestnut sprout growth entirely free of the barb disease cankers.

If they keep improving wine, it may be as good as cider some day.

ENJOY REUNION

Several children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes gathered at their home Wednesday and enjoyed the first Hughes reunion. They began coming from their different homes about noon and when they were all gathered, tables were set under the trees where a picnic dinner was enjoyed by those present. After dinner a business meeting was held at which the following officers were elected: president, John Hughes, Jr.; vice president, Charles Allen; and secretary, Mrs. J. R. Frealand. Those who enjoyed the day were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Frealand of Marwood; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wall and grandson and friend; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Zeigler, son Weldon and Miss Francis Mills of New Castle; Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, Jr., of Saxonburg; Mrs. Fred McConnell and son Fred Jr., of New Castle and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Allen and family of Mercer. The next reunion will be held on the second Saturday in July, 1935.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

The many friends of George Cunningham will be glad to learn that he has recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home from the Mercer hospital, where he has been a patient. He is getting along as well as can be expected.

Clifford McClymonds who is a patient at the Mercer hospital, is slowly improving.

HURT IN MINE

Clifford McClymonds is a patient in the Mercer hospital, where he is suffering with a broken rib and body bruises, received when a timber which he was unloading fell on his back while at work at Mine No. 2. He is getting along as well as can be expected.

CHURCH NOTES

Holy Communion services will take place next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Preparatory services will be held Friday evening.

The first and second years Junior classes and their teachers, Mrs. Floyd Hazlett and Mrs. Howard Schuller, will have their class picnic at church on Saturday afternoon, at 1:30.

The Dorcas society will have an all day meeting at the church on Wednesday, July 11. Mrs. Paul Crawford will be hostess.

INJURED IN FALL

George Cunningham is also a patient in the Mercer hospital. He is getting along as well as can be expected. George fell from a cherry tree while picking cherries at the home of Charlie Sankey, breaking both arms, his left arm in two places. He also broke two ribs and is suffering from body bruises.

Lee Tracy Lets Out New Blast

By HARRISON CARROLL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

HOLYWOOD, July 6.—Out of a clear sky, Lee Tracy let loose a verbal blast today that will probably cause cinema hostesses to scratch his name off their invitation lists for good.

The slender actor, who plays wise-cracking, debunking roles on the screen, has his dander up about Hollywood's famous parties.

"You can say for me," he declared in his Paramount dressingroom, "That a Hollywood party is a gathering where people with no ability to enjoy life meet in a pathetic attempt to have a good time.

"I can count on the fingers of one hand the number of parties I've been to since I came to the coast—and I consider those evenings wasted."

Take it from this fast-talking critic of cinema social life, any party with more than six people who are congenial and who know each other well is the perfect recipe for a dull evening. As to the theory that you have to be a good mixer to get along in Hollywood, Lee snaps:

"Maybe I'd have been a lot better off if I had; but then, again, maybe I wouldn't. At any rate, if I have to be successful that way, you can count me out."

And, incidentally, you don't even see Lee around the night-clubs since his mother came out to visit him.

League For Social Justice May Take Up Professor's Case

Ousted Pitt Professor Blames "Business Men Trustees" For Move

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Ousted he claimed, by "businessmen-trustees" and "persons linked with Mellon-Grundy machine", Dr. Ralph E. Turner, deposed associate professor of history at University of Pittsburgh, today was rapidly becoming the center of a storm of resentment.

Dismissal of the professor was expected to be discussed at a monthly meeting tonight of the Pennsylvania League for Social Justice. This group is closely allied with the Security League through its membership and was expected to lodge a formal protest to the university and to "start the ball rolling" for other liberal and civic groups in the city.

Meanwhile Dr. Turner was seeking "specific cause" for his dismissal. He had been told by Dr. John W. Oliver, head of the history department, that it was his "understanding" that an "accumulation of several complaints extending over some years had caused it."

Dr. Turner said if such is the case he is at a loss to understand why his contract was renewed. Under the contract Dr. Turner must be paid a year's salary despite his dismissal.

Woman Who Shook Lincoln's Hand Says It Was Big

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—Abraham Lincoln's hands—large and thin and toil worn—remain vividly outlined in the memory of Mrs. Mary Calvery of Camden, N. J.

Seventy-four years ago, the 98-year-old woman was one of a throng that shook the then newly elected president's hand at a reception in Independence Hall here.

"I can still see those hands—so huge and thin—the hands of a poor man," said Mrs. Calvery, a second cousin of General Ulysses S. Grant. She was born in Bucks county, Pa., and received her early education in a log schoolhouse.

This Makes Jobs For At Least Ten

(International News Service)

PHILADELJHIA, July 6. — The state employment office is endeavoring to place in positions with private industry thousands of unemployed on the lists of the organization.

Confident that a definite upward trend in business will enable the firms doing increased business to re-employ many of the 250,000 on the rolls of the state employment office here, Franklin G. Connor, supervisor for this area, outlined a new policy.

Mother's Message Came To Dead Man

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., July 6.—Death stepped between Michael Subsaro, Pittsburgh, and the job his mother's wire to him at a CCC camp near here, said was awaiting him at a steel mill.

Camp officers were attempting to telephone the mother to inform her of Michael's drowning when the telegram was received at the camp. It read:

Four Injured In Strike Riot In New Jersey

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

RIDGETON, N. J., July 6.—In a fierce fight between striking farm workers and men assigned to protect the Seabrook farms, four of the guards were injured today.

The riot was quelled by details of state police who hurled tear gas bombs into the ranks of 200 striking farmers, dispersing the mob.

The guards were being mauled by the strikers in the first riotous outbreak since the walkout began some time ago. They were rescued by the state police rushed to the Seabrook farms, three miles south of here, from barracks at Woodstown, Port Norris and Hammonton.

The injured victims were Jack Saunders, Sam Gould, Jack Stevenson and Morris Peck.

Prepare For Guard Camp

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 6.—Preliminary preparations for supplying food to the Pennsylvania National Guard in training here July 14 to 28 got underway today with the departure of supply detachments for the military reservation at Mt. Gretna and Indiantown Gap.

Advance detachments from each regiment will go to the camp sites on July 11, to erect canvas and prepare the regiment camp areas.

The camp will be named Camp Charles H. Muir in tribute to Maj. Gen. Charles H. Muir, war-time commander of the 28th division, who died last December.

Wool Producers Get Fair Price By Co-operation

(International News Service)

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., July 6.—Approximately 4617 pounds of wool shorn from sheep on the farms of bucks and Montgomery counties this spring and representing a value of $41,250 were shipped recently by rail from Doylestown ot Boston, Mass.

The shipment was the first of its kind made from Doylestown in many years, according to County Agent William F. Greenawalt, through whose efforts the Bucks County Co-operative Wool Growers' association was formed this spring.

Tigers Stage Ladies Night

Despite inclement weather, the Tigers Club annual ladies' night, held at Anthony's camp, along the Neshannock creek Thursday night, proved a huge success.

The 50 or more persons present enjoyed swimming, volley ball and bocce. During the course of the evening delicious refreshments were served. The committee in charge: T. C. Richards, chairman; Joseph Bordonaro, James Scarazzo, Al Richards, P. J. Richards, John Ross, Charles Scaglione, and Adolph DeGennaro.

Three Survivors Out Of 900 Men

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—Three Civil War veterans, Andrew Moss, 96, of Ingham, John Renton, 89¾ of Wilkinsburg and William Griffin, 91, of New York, are the lone survivors of the old 102nd regiment of 900 men who marched away to the Civil War.

Bue when the 102nd held its fifty-ninth reunion here recently, the regiment was represented only by Andy and John. Bill was injured in an automobile accident several months ago and could not attend.

FIELD DAY PLANNED

MERCER, July 6.—E. S. Ingraham of Mercer, a director of the Pennsylvania Jersey Cattle club, announces the program of the field day of the club that will be held for western Pennsylvania Jersey owners on July 6. The event is held at the J. S. Campbell farm near Butler.

L. L. Rummell, editor of the "Ohio Farmer" and O. G. Shaeffer of "Successful Farming" are carded as the speakers of the afternoon. Ingraham is in charge of the picnic. The Mercer sanitarium, of which he is manager, is the owner of a prize herd of jerseys in the state.

Marie Dressler Is Resting Quietly

Famous Screen Star Is Waging Desperate Battle Against Death On Coast

(International News Service)

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 6.—"Unchanged—resting quietly" was the word that went out again today from the palatial "cottage" on the C. K. Billings estate where Marie Dressler, the grand old trouper, is waging her most desperate battle.

Although physicians conceded that the beloved 62-year-old actress may live for days, even weeks, there is no hope that she will ever regain her health, or return to the screen on which she climaxed a successful stage career by winning new hosts of admirers.

FORMER KILTIE BAND LEADER HERE

F. L. Morrison of Gary, Ind., is visiting his sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Criswell and family of Randolph street.

Mr. Morrison will be remembered by many as the leader of the famous Youngstown Kiltie band which made a number of appearances here, particularly at Masonic gatherings.

Must Insure To Protect Patrons

Bus And Taxi Companies Must Protect Patrons In Case Of Accident

FIX AMOUNTS TO CARE FOR INJURY

HARRISBURG, July 6.—Taxicab and bus operators holding certificates of public convenience have until August 1 to comply with the Public Service Commission's recent order specifying the amounts of public liability insurance they must carry.

The order requires coverage of at least $5000 for injury to one person, $10,000 for injuries arising from one accident, and a $1000 policy to provide for payment of compensation for damage to property. All insurance policies must be issued by a reliable insurance company and must receive commission approval.

Certificated operators have the alternative of submitting to the commission a bond of evidence of bank deposits reserved for such compensation, the amount of the bond or bank deposit to be satisfactory to the commission, and in no case to be less than $10,000.

The order benefits the public by insuring payments of compensation for damages. The commission believes that reasonable assurance of payment requires that at least $10,000 should be available for payment of compensation for damages caused by the operation of this class of common carriers of pasengers.

Most of the larger bus companies carry insurance in amounts much larger than $10,000. The order does not supersede requirements that the larger amounts of insurance be carried by such companies.

Spanish War Vets Going To Clarion

Northwestern Council Meeting Will Take Place On Monday Afternoon

Col. Daniel Leasure Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, and members of their auxiliary, are making preparations to attend the Northwestern Council meeting, which will take place at Clarion, Sunday afternoon.

One of the principal items of business at this meeting will be the election of officers for the coming year. Plans will also be outlined for the state encampment to be held in Pittsburgh during August, which is expected to prove one of the largest gatherings ever held by the state organization.

Mahoning A. A. To Battle Aliquippa

Mahoning A. A. will play the Aliquippa Grays tonight at the E. & A. Field at 5:30 o'clock. According to the Mahoning A. A. management, the game should be a fast one as the Grays have one of the best teams in the Beaver valley.

The Seventh ward boys will be out to win tonight and will have their strongest lineup available.

SHOW RESISTANCE TO BLIGHT ATTACKS

HARRISBURG, July 6.—Additional evidence to support the contention of Pennsylvania foresters that the chestnut tree is developing resistance to the deadly chestnut blight has been cited by Professor George S. Perry of the Forest Research Institute, Mont Alto.

In recent months discoveries have been made in various parts of the state by emergency conservation workers engaged in taking a stock survey of the state forests of vigorous chestnut sprout growth entirely free of the barb disease cankers.

If they keep improving wine, it may be as good as cider some day.

LEESBURG NEWS

ENJOY REUNION

Several children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes gathered at their home Wednesday and enjoyed the first Hughes reunion. They began coming from their different homes about noon and when they were all gathered, tables were set under the trees where a picnic dinner was enjoyed by those present. After dinner a business meeting was held at which the following officers were elected: president, John Hughes, Jr.; vice president, Charles Allen; and secretary, Mrs. J. R. Frealand. Those who enjoyed the day were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Frealand of Marwood; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wall and grandson and friend; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Zeigler, son Weldon and Miss Francis Mills of New Castle; Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, Jr., of Saxonburg; Mrs. Fred McConnell and son Fred Jr., of New Castle and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Allen and family of Mercer. The next reunion will be held on the second Saturday in July, 1935.
